Proposed Definition

2-136.2 – Dwelling, co-living.

A portion of a building containing five or six private living spaces, a shared kitchen and other communal areas. Each private living space must include a bedroom but may or may not include a private bathroom. Each co-living dwelling cannot exceed a total occupancy of eight people.

Cooking facilities, specifically a stove or oven, shall not be provided within a private living space. Typically, private living spaces within a co-living dwelling are leased on an individual basis.

City Officials Request Feedback on 'Co-Living' Initiative

Single Room Occupancy (SRO) homes or group housing can help boost affordable housing stock, but some residents are nervous.

Alexandria looking into regulating 'co-housing,' though term is confused with 'co-living'

Alexandria, Virginia, is considering regulating what it calls "co-housing," but what exactly qualifies as co-housing may not be completely clear.

The city said co-housing would include rooming and boarding houses, single room occupancy and some types of group living arrangements. But a spokesperson for

Planning Commission recommends initiation and approval
