Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

My name is Scott Cullinane and for the past 15 years, I have worked in and around Washington - living in Alexandria since 2020. Professionally, I was a staffer on Capitol Hill focusing on foreign policy issues for a number of years and now work in foreign policy advocacy with special expertise on Europe. My wife and I recently purchased our first home and I am looking to become more involved in Alexandria civic life. The Sister Cities Committee for Caen seems like a natural fit with my experience and interest in Europe. I look forward to contributing to the work of the Committee, building on the legacy of US-French relations, and enriching our local community. Thank you.

My connection to Alexandria is deeply personal and lifelong, rooted in growing up in Mount Vernon, VA, and spending nearly every week in Old Town, which instilled in me a profound appreciation for the city's unique history and vibrant community spirit. The mission of the ACSCC, to foster enduring cultural, educational, and economic ties between Alexandria and Caen, perfectly aligns with my passion for international travel and my innate drive to connect with people from diverse backgrounds. I believe that successful city partnerships are built on genuine enthusiasm and active engagement. My frequent visits to Old Town provided me with an intimate understanding of the historic preservation and community engagement that defines Alexandria. I am eager to contribute my energy and time to organizing events, facilitating exchanges, and helping to strengthen the bond between our two distinct, historic cities. ## Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I'd like to serve on the Alexandria-Caen Sister Cities Committee because I value cultural exchange as a way to build connections and understanding between communities. Alexandria's partnership with Caen is a meaningful example of how relationships across borders can have real impact, and I'd like to help support and grow that work locally. In my professional life, I work in communications and public affairs supporting government organizations. I'm used to translating complex initiatives for the public, coordinating with multiple stakeholders, and helping make sure programs and events run smoothly. I think those skills could be helpful to the Committee in promoting its work and engaging the community. If selected, I would focus on being a reliable, engaged member who helps wherever I can—whether that's supporting events, outreach, or just helping make sure things get done. I'm excited about learning more about the Alexandria-Caen relationship and finding ways to strengthen it for the benefit of our community.

Previously, I led media strategy for research programs at a think tank and handled high-profile media relations for legal cases reaching the Supreme Court, securing national and international coverage. Throughout my career, I have developed expertise in translating complex topics for public audiences, building and maintaining professional relationships, and ensuring strategic messaging aligns with organizational goals. I am skilled in stakeholder engagement, event support, and representing organizations in public and media-facing settings. In addition to my professional experience, I am actively engaged in civic and cultural activities, including photography, music, and local community events, which gives me a broad perspective on how to connect with and support Alexandria's diverse community. ## Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I'm honored to submit my application to be a member of the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee. As a 6-year Alexandria resident and a 25-year Francophile, I believe I'm uniquely suited to contribute to the objectives and success of the committee. My interest in Franco-American relations began in high school French classes, was elevated with a study abroad experience in Paris, and became cemented as an English teaching assistant in Tours. As a result, my entire professional career has had an international through-line. In particular, 7 years as a manager of a university exchange program fed my appreciation of the value of cross-cultural interactions. Working with international students on exchange in the U.S., it was a privilege to represent our country - highlighting our customs, our history, our culture. Similarly, introducing American students to the world through the program felt like a true responsibility - preparing them to understand the opportunities and challenges of interacting with many types of people. Additionally, my experience in organizing and supporting events would assist with the promotion and execution of community outreach efforts. I've developed plans and logistics for several recruiting, exhibition, and celebratory events. My personal experience as an exchange student and cultural ambassador, combined with my professional roles in exchange program, led me to the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee. I look forward to translating my passion for international understanding to our community.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

To Whom it May Concern, Thank you for considering my application for the vacant Member position on the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee. I am interested in joining this committee because I want to get more involved in local governance and help to build upon Alexandria's stellar reputation as a top city and community in USA. I've lived in Alexandria for five years, the DC Metro Area for 20 years, and am an active member of this community. I am currently the Treasurer and on the board of my neighborhood association, Marlan Forest Citizen's Association. As Treasurer, I collected the highest amount of dues (both in dollars and total household) the association has collected in the last decade. I also planned and hosted this year's annual Oktoberfest, where we combined with the adjacent neighborhood, found event sponsors, and tripled the attendance record from 100 to 300 neighborhood attendees this year. It was called the best ever festival the neighborhood has seen in the 40-year history of the event. I also have a 5 year-old daughter and 6 year-old son and am the head coach for their T-Ball and Dad's Pitch baseball team at Fort Hunt Little League, going into my 3rd year. I've been working with USA baseball to develop in season and out-of-season plans to make the games and practices both fun and to maximize player development. I think you'll find my participation on this committee to be reliable and effective as my current local commitments. I understand one of the activities this committee supports are exchange programs. I have first-hand experience. After completing my undergraduate degree, I participated in a year-long work abroad program in Holland, organized and sponsored by the French international student organization, AIESEC (<https://aiesec.org/>). I was the organization's national student representative in Holland during the year I was there, speaking to and recruiting new students into the program. I understand and have experience with both sides of the operation as a planner and a participant. I am also well experienced with France. I lived in Southern France (Montpellier) for 5 months, studying French, before graduate school, and have travelled throughout France and Europe extensively. I'm attuned to many of the activities this committee supported in 2025. My wife and I love French wine. I love Rugby, having played for two years during graduate school in Boston and one year in Washington DC. I still watch international rugby and follow DC's professional rugby squad, Old Glory. Finally, my two decade long professional career has focused on international development related work. I have worked and lived throughout Africa, and traveled to over 60 countries for both business and leisure. I am culturally aware, sensitive to how others view America, and am a seasoned 'diplomat' having worked with foreign partners throughout my career, finding common ground to achieving mutual interests. I look forward to making the two-year commitment to serve this committee and City of Alexandria, and to develop and achieve a set of goals we can be proud of. Thank you for your consideration. Warm Regards, Matt Siller

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I am deeply passionate about fostering international connections, having lived abroad for both school and work, experiences that opened my eyes to the transformative power of cultural exchange. My connection to France is particularly meaningful—I was married there, and I have a profound personal connection to the region's history. My great grandfather fought in World War II and saw action on D-Day, making the memorials in Normandy sacred ground for my family. This personal tie to the shared history between our nations drives my commitment to strengthening the bonds between Alexandria and Caen. Beyond my personal connection to France, I bring practical experience in community engagement and event organization. As the former Social Chair for The Madison, a DC charity organization, I have successfully planned and executed large-scale charity events that bring people together for meaningful causes. I am excited to apply this experience to the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee, where I can help create programming that celebrates our partnership, educates our community about French culture and history, and builds lasting relationships between the citizens of both cities.
