Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)
I've had a life-long interest in and affection for France from age 7, when I first studied the language, honed by visits to the country and friends there. I believe cross-cultural and inter-country relations are immensely valuable at all levels, from personal to governmental, and I think sister-city relationships are an excellent way to foster them. I'm impressed with the Committee's activities, and the ideas and enthusiasms I've seen at the meetings I've attended, and I would like to contribute and participate.

Have you ever served the City of Alexandria in any capacity?
No

Have you ever attended a meeting of the Board or Commission for which you are applying?
Yes

Are you now paid by the City of Alexandria?

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)
My name is Scott Cullinane and for the past 15 years, I have worked in and around Washington – living in Alexandria since 2020. Professionally, I was a staffer on Capitol Hill focusing on foreign policy issues for a number of years and now work in foreign policy advocacy with special expertise on Europe. My wife and I recently purchased our first home and I am looking to become more involved in Alexandria civic life. The Sister Cities Committee for Caen seems like a natural fit with my experience and interest in Europe. I look forward to contributing to the work of the Committee, building on the legacy of US-French relations, and enriching our local community. Thank you.

How long have you lived in Alexandria?
I returned to Alexandria this month, having lived abroad with the U.S. Air Force the last 5 years. Before that I resided in Alexandria from 2017-2020.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)
I have always had a strong desire to serve my community. Having just returned from living in Europe and working with our European NATO allies, I believe I can continue to serve my community on the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee. During my time overseas, I planned several large events including with VIPs and Distinguished Visitors, and saw how these events advanced our interests and built crucial partnerships that will last. My strong interest in history can also be valuable in ensuring that the planned events can help our community learn about Alexandria's storied history, and that of Caen, France.

How long have you lived in Alexandria?
1 year currently, but grew up in Mount Vernon, VA my whole life

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)
I am writing to express my strong interest in serving as a member of the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee. My connection to Alexandria is deeply personal and lifelong, rooted in growing up in Mount Vernon, VA, and spending nearly every week in Old Town, which instilled in me a profound appreciation for the city's unique history and vibrant community spirit. The mission of the ACSCC, to foster enduring cultural, educational, and economic ties between Alexandria and Caen, perfectly aligns with my passion for international travel and my innate drive to connect with people from diverse backgrounds. I believe that successful city partnerships are built on genuine enthusiasm and active engagement. My frequent visits to Old Town provided me with an intimate understanding of the historic preservation and community engagement that defines Alexandria. This local perspective, combined with my love for travel and networking, positions me to be an effective advocate for the partnership. I am eager to contribute my energy and time to organizing events, facilitating exchanges, and helping to strengthen the bond between our two distinct, historic cities. I am confident I can help the committee achieve its goals and look forward to the opportunity to serve.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)
I would be honored to be nominated for the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee. With extensive international experience—including work with UN agencies, INGOs, and government partners—I bring strong expertise in cross-cultural communication, diplomacy, and international collaboration. I have a working knowledge of French and have worked in multicultural environments across Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and North America. As a PhD candidate focusing on migration, identity, and cultural heritage, I believe deeply in the importance of people-to-people exchange and the preservation of shared histories. The Alexandria-Caen partnership represents exactly that: a living bridge between communities. My academic work and professional career have consistently centered on fostering mutual understanding, cultural dialogue, and international cooperation—values that are essential to this committee. I would welcome the opportunity to contribute to meaningful exchanges between Alexandria and Caen, promote cultural programming, support youth engagement, and ensure that migration, heritage, and community narratives are included in the broader dialogue. I believe that Sister Cities are not only symbolic, but also engines of connection, memory, and shared future—and I would be proud to help strengthen this transatlantic bond.

Summary of Work and Experience

With over a decade of experience across international development, humanitarian response, policy advising, and monitoring & evaluation, I have worked extensively with UN agencies (including WFP and UNOPS), INGOs, government partners, and World Bank-funded initiatives across the Middle East, Africa, and North America. My roles have focused on programme management, evidence-based policy design, stakeholder coordination, safeguarding, and data-driven decision-making. I have led multi-million-dollar projects, supported capacity-building for government and civil society actors, and contributed to institutional strategy, donor reporting, research, and evaluation frameworks. My expertise also spans migration policy, social protection, identity-based discrimination, and humanitarian response, including cash- and voucher-based programming and crisis management. Currently, as a PhD candidate studying migration, identity, and conflict dynamics, I integrate academic research with field-based practice, ensuring policy solutions are grounded in data, context, and human-centered design. My career has consistently emphasized cross-cultural collaboration, diplomacy, and inclusion, working closely with diverse partners to advance protection, resilience, and social cohesion.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)
Hello, I would like to be considered for a citizen member spot for the Alexandria-Caen Sister Cities Committee. Civic service was a value that my father instilled in me from a very early age and I would like to volunteer to assist my community in Alexandria. This particular position spoke to me due to my love of France and exploring the country last year.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)
I recently moved to Alexandria from Franconia after marrying my wife, and am looking to be an active part of this community as we start to build our family. Of the vacancies that for strictly citizens, this one stood out to me because I was a liaison to French forces while deployed to East Africa. This past summer we hosted one of my French friends in Alexandria in order to show her our city and the capital. Sharing our experience with her was rewarding, and I would be glad to do more of it.

Have you ever served the City of Alexandria in any capacity?

Summary of Work and Experience
I am a data engineer for the Army, and previously for other federal agencies; I write software to process big data and automate tasks. I am concurrently an Army Reservist, in the Civil Affairs branch. I speak French at a beginner's level now; at my best a few years ago I would conduct interviews about public health and hospital management with doctors in Djibouti.
