

RESOLUTION NO.3314

WHEREAS, the City Council has established the Subcommittee for the Review of Standing Committees to review the current standing committees and determine if the City Council should move to a different standing committee structure and what impact on staffing and current advisory committees a change may have; and

WHEREAS, the work of the subcommittee is still ongoing and the City Council wishes to ensure a continued forum for community input and allow more time for the subcommittee to complete its work.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED
BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA:

1. That the term of the Subcommittee for the Review of Standing Committees will hereby be extended.
2. That the Subcommittee for the Review of Standing Committees shall continue to review the current standing committees, determine if the City Council should move to a different standing committee structure and what impact on staffing and current advisory committees a change may have, and present a plan to implement the final recommendation.
3. That the subcommittee will continue to be staffed by representatives from the Office of the City Manager, the Office of the City Clerk, the Office of the City Attorney, and other City staff as dictated by available staff resources and the nature of the work.
4. That the Subcommittee for the Review of Standing Committees shall meet on an ad hoc basis as needed until no later than April 30, 2026 or the completion of their stated tasks, if earlier, as defined herein, unless otherwise extended by the City Council.
