Statement of Interest

Ever since I first came to Alexandria in 1984 when I was stationed at the Pentagon, I have been fascinated by the city and its history--this position would give me a chance to further explore that history. I have long had a deep interest in history in general and have a masters degree in military history. I have done work at the Alexandria Library digitizing a diary of an Alexandria resident written during the Civil War and the Confiscation records from the Civil War. For the last three years have been working with the Virginia Chronicle in correcting the digital records of the Alexandria Gazette for the period 1861-1865. In summarizing I see the Archeological Commission as a means to further learn about Alexandria's history as well as providing support to the city's efforts in this area.
