Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

My beautiful son, who was half French, passed away in November 2022. His passing has made me re-evaluate my life and I am feeling the need to give back and be more involved in the community. What more perfect way than to be involved with a partnership between our beautiful Alexandria, and France, which has a special place in my heart. I am a Realtor and former Psychologist with a Masters of Education. I lived and studied in France and speak and read French fluently. We spend 2 weeks in France in the summers. My husband and I live in Old Town. My stepson has Boy Scouts every Monday evening, so the meetings of this committee are perfect for me in that I can walk to City Hall and be involved while my stepson and husband are busy with their Monday evening activities. I believe I would be a valued member of the committee and bring enthusiasm and fresh ideas to the Committee. I look forward to joining "l'équipe"!!

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

Since my recent retirement from the corporate world, I have a desire (and the time) to become more involved with Alexandria's activities and the mission of the Alexandria-Caen Sister City committee piqued my interest. I enjoy collaborating and committee work allows one to focus on the goals of the relationship. I've had the opportunity to connect and collaborate with other nonprofit work (AIAA and NASA, DEI for Aviation Week, Women in Aerospace) across the aerospace industry which has allowed me to expand my personal knowledge and professional development. I'm interested in the sister city committee role because I view it as an opportunity to expand viewpoints and pave the way for fulfilling experiences, to celebrate the uniqueness of Alexandria and Caen to a broader audience.
