Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

Over the last two years, the pandemic has exposed so many fault lines of American society--including the immense pressure women are under, and the lack of support we so frequently experience. The unequal burdens felt by women have been well documented over the past year. At this juncture, it is critical that we build on the excellent 2018 Status of Women Report, refreshing those findings with an eye to the ways that the pandemic has altered women's experiences in particular, and with a focus on intersectionality. As a litigator, I have significant experience in collecting and organizing information, drafting written reports, and managing complex projects that would be useful in this endeavor. But more importantly, I am particularly adept at building coalitions of people with diverse viewpoints, and making sure that people who come to me with concerns feel heard. It would be an honor to put those skills to use in service of my community. Although I am new to Alexandria, I am not new to engagement on women's issues. As a leader of the women's initiative at my prior law firm, and a member of several women's initiatives in the DC legal community, I saw firsthand the challenges women face in professional settings, and the imperative to create communities where women feel comfortable sharing their most vulnerable moments. I chose to move to Alexandria in part because I was so impressed with the level of community engagement here. I am eager to be a part of that culture. Thank you for your consideration.

SUMMARY OF WORK AND PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE (Please list titles and duties for the past five years):

Democracy Forward Foundation, Senior Counsel (Feb. 2021-Present): Democracy Forward is a public interest organization that advocates for good governance through litigation and regulatory advocacy. I develop and run cases in state court, collaborate with our nonprofit partners and clients, and engage with federal agencies in rulemaking processes. Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP (Nov. 2015-Jan. 2021): As a senior litigation associate, I was responsible for managing complex cases at every stage, from initial discovery through appeal. I managed large teams of more junior associates and staff, developed strategy, collaborated with partners and co-counsel, drafted briefs, and argued motions in court. I devoted a significant portion of my practice to pro bono work, with a focus on voting rights, civil rights, and criminal justice. I also served on the Associates Committee and had a leadership role in the firm's women's initiative.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

So I am a transgender woman. I began my transition in June of this year, and received my court-ordered name change from Mark Stuart Cattell to my new living name, Charlotte Achelois Scherer, on October 1. This is an exciting time for me, and I believe that I can bring a unique perspective to the Commission for Women as a transgender woman. I have always considered myself a feminist who believed in equal rights and equal treatment of the sexes. And as an assistant public defender for nearly five years, I dealt with many battered and abused women, and women living in extreme poverty who never knew where their next meal might come from. I believe that this gives me the compassion and the hard-earned wisdom to advocate for the interests of women, both cisgender and trans. I can be counted on to attend each meeting and to listen thoughtfully, take notes, and propose solutions. I hope to attend the Council meeting on December 14 when council members will vote on this resolution. Thank you.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

I am interested in serving as a member of the City of Alexandria Commission for Women. My spouse and I purchased a home in the Hume Springs neighborhood in 2021, and I'm hoping to get engaged in civic life in the City of Alexandria. As a commissioner, I could bring the following attributes:

- An understanding of public policy. I hold a dual degree in public health and public administration from the University of Michigan. For the last five years, I have worked in health policy at both the state and federal level on issues of maternal child health, health equity, and public health.
- A passion for women's issues. As a woman and a mother, I have lived experience with maternal mental health issues and sexual violence. Through my work at Families USA, I work to improve the lives of women, particularly mothers of color, through better public policy. I also serve as the secretary for the National Alliance for Safe Housing, which aims to increase safe housing opportunities for victims of sexual and domestic violence.
- The heart of an advocate. Growing up in rural Mississippi, I was first exposed to the systemic barriers faced by people of color and residents of disinvested rural regions. My perspective on systemic inequities broadened when I moved into an inner-city neighborhood as an educator following my undergraduate education. These experiences shaped my view of the world and continue to fuel my passion for developing thriving communities through collaborative partnerships and equitable policy change.
- A commitment to public service. I believe that the duty of a public servant is to listen to the concerns of all citizens, but most importantly to work to amplify the voice of marginalized populations. I would be honored to join the Commission for Women. Please let me know if you need any further information.
