I am writing to formally express my interest in continuing to serve on the Juvenile Detention Center Commission. Over the past three years, it has been an honor to contribute to this work. As a caregiver who has had a child sentenced to the center, I bring lived experience that offers a unique and valuable perspective. I believe that insight from families who have directly navigated the juvenile justice system is essential in helping shape policies, practices, and supports that are both effective and compassionate. My goal has always been to advocate for youth and families while supporting the center in its mission to provide accountability, rehabilitation, and growth opportunities. I remain deeply committed to ensuring that family voices are heard and that our system continues to evolve in ways that promote positive outcomes for young people. I would welcome the opportunity to continue contributing my experience and perspective in service to our community. Thank you for your consideration.

Summary of Work and Experience

Dedicated professional with over 35 years of experience in food service management, advancing into senior leadership roles including Food and Nutrition Director within long-term care centers. Demonstrated expertise in operations management, regulatory compliance, staff supervision, budgeting, and delivering high-quality nutritional services to vulnerable populations. Recognized for strong leadership, team development, and a commitment to excellence in resident care. Currently retired from the food service industry and serving as a Family Support Partner, where I utilize my lived experience and professional background to support and empower families navigating complex child-serving systems. Passionate about advocacy, collaboration, and ensuring that family voices are heard and respected in decision-making processes.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

As a dedicated and highly experienced professional, I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Board Member position. With a robust background as a Doctoral candidate and extensive, hands-on experience across a multitude of disciplines, I am confident that my unique blend of skills and expertise would be a valuable asset to your board. My background is rooted in a deep commitment to security and justice. My experience in Law and Order, Investigations, and Criminal Justice Information (CJI) is complemented by specialized knowledge in Physical/Personal/Construction Security, Facility Security, and Anti-Terrorism. I have a proven track record of excellence in high-stakes environments, demonstrated through my work with Special Reaction Teams and in developing and implementing Active Shooter and Emergency Management protocols. My expertise in Incident Management ensures a calm and methodical approach to any crisis. Beyond tactical and operational expertise, I have a strong foundation in the systems and programs that support a thriving and equitable organization. My work in Human Resources, Program Management, and as a Congressional Liaison has provided me with a comprehensive understanding of policy, procedure, and effective governance. I have a proven ability to manage complex programs, as evidenced by my experience as a Government Purchase Card holder, Defense Travel System Reviewer, Contract Representative, and Working Group Coordinator. A cornerstone of my career has been a dedication to the well-being of others. This is highlighted by my extensive work in Victimology, Trauma-Informed Response, and as a Victim Advocate and Sexual Assault Response Coordinator. I am passionate about creating supportive and resilient communities and have a deep understanding of the needs of veterans and military families through my work with Veteran and Military Programs. I am a forward-thinking and adaptable professional with a broad range of additional skills, including logistical support, training, and even experience in museum visitor services and campus management. My doctoral research has further honed my analytical and research techniques, allowing me to approach challenges with a critical and informed perspective. I am eager to bring my diverse experience and unwavering commitment to your organization. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my skills and passion can contribute to the important work of your board.
