Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest

A robust and diverse economic base is critical to our city being able to provide consistently excellent public services including park, recreation, and education services. The IDA plays a critical role in attracting a variety of needed businesses of all sizes to our city and fulfilling the vision of Alexandria as a 21st Century City. I am proud of the work we have done in the past three years to more fully exercise our statutory powers in service of the public. Having just been unanimously elected chair, I would like to continue to serve. I have a bachelor's degree in Political Science and Economics, a masters degree in Public Policy, and a law degree. I have used the knowledge and analytical skills from that educational background in my service the community and would continue to bring that background to my work on the IDA. As an attorney, I have worked with businesses and non-profit organizations of all sizes and understand the legal and economic framework in which they operate globally, nationally, and locally. My educational and practical experience would be an asset to the IDA.
