- 4 Commissioner’s Reports, Comments & Questions

Commissioner Lyle mentioned that the Eisenhower West Implementation Group dedicated a mural on Edsall Road. She also mentioned that several projects in the West End are coming along nicely and on schedule. Vice Chairman Macek noted that the Parking Standards for New Development had last meeting and will be coming to the Planning Commission in January. Commissioner Koenig gave an updated on the Environmental Policy Commission, stressing the need for a joint work session between the EPC and the Planning Commission, which is likely to happen in February. Chairwoman Lyman inquired to whether a joint work session between the Planning Commission and City Council had been scheduled, to which Planning Director Karl Moritz answered that he needed to speak with Council first, but no date has been confirmed. Vice Chairman Macek added another updated regarding the Waterfront Commission, in that the Old Dominion Boat Club is in the process of moving from their old location to their new location and that demolition is coming soon for the old boat club. The Commissioners and staff discussed the possible need for 2 January Planning Commission meetings given the large docket. Commissioner Koenig asked for a briefing in February on the Joing City-Schools Task Force. Commissioner McMahon gave a brief update on the Transportation Commission, including the revised Vision Zero Action Plan.
