Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest

I have lived in Alexandria for 16 years and have owned a business here for more than a decade. I am an active member of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce, having served on the ACC's Government Relations Committee for several years. I also served as a business representative on the North Potomac Yard Small Area Plan Amendment working group under the leadership of Stephen Koenig, the advisory group that reviewed and made recommendations to City Council regarding Dominion Virginia's proposed transmission line upgrade and the advisory group that made recommendations regarding design guidelines for the Bus Depot redevelopment. My Chamber and personal relationships in Alexandria, my commitment to Alexandria business and growth and my experience working on the North Potomac Yard Small Area Plan Amendment cause me to be familiar with the City's and City's citizens' vision for Potomac yard and very interested in the development and success of Potomac Yard. My most recent service was on PYDAC. My term is expiring. Therefore I am applying for serve a new term.
