705 Prince Street

I. REPORT SUMMARY

The applicant, Maricela Noble, requests Special Use Permit approval to operate a non-complying health profession office in a tenant space where a continuing non-complying business and professional office has operated at 705 Prince Street. Staff recommends approval of the Special Use Permit request with conditions as described in the report.

SITE DESCRIPTION

The subject site is a two-story townhouse, occupied by offices and located at 705 Prince Street. The lot has approximately 20 feet of frontage along Prince Street, 100 feet of depth and 2,127 square feet in lot area (Figure 1). An alley, accessed from South Washington Street, is located behind the building.

Commercial, office, residential and institutional uses surround the subject site. Radiance Yoga and a TD Bank are located in the building immediately east of the subject site at the corner of Prince Street and South Washington Street. The Washington Street United Methodist Church is located to the north of the subject site and The Lyceum is to the south, across Prince Street. On the 700 block of Prince Street, two residential dwellings and the Swann-Daingerfield Condominiums exist to the west.

BACKGROUND

Although originally constructed as a residential dwelling around 1912, City records show that various business and professional office uses have occupied the subject site since 1979. The most recent office use at 705 Prince Street was an advertising agency. There have been no complaints registered with the City or zoning enforcement issues at the subject site.

Prior to 1992, the site was part of the C-3 zone which permitted office uses for businesses, architects, attorneys at law, dentists, physicians, osteopaths, professional engineers, public accountants, ministers and teachers. The changes to the RM zone in the 1992 Zoning Ordinance deleted all types of office uses as permitted in that zone. As a result, the office uses that existed in the RM zone were allowed to continue as legal non-complying uses.

Also, in 1992, the office use category was divided into separate definitions for business and professional office and for medical office. A recent text amendment redefined medical offices as health profession offices to include a wider range of offices providing health and wellness services.

Prior to this request, the applicant operated Your Life Energy, a health profession office and a private commercial school, out of a commercial building at 311 North Washington Street.

PROPOSAL

The applicant, Maricela Noble, requests to operate a health profession office, called Your Life Energy, in the 2,127 square-foot building at 705 Prince Street. She would no longer operate the private commercial school aspect of the business that she had at 311 North Washington Street. Your Life Energy would offer both energy healing services to address anxiety, emotional stress and physical pain management and holistic skincare services. Energy healing services would be provided through four techniques: reiki, a process in which reiki healers transfer energy through static hand positions; emotional freedom technique, where practitioners tap meridian points with their fingertips to address emotional stress; meditation and body energy work; and meridian acupressure, a technique akin to acupuncture without needles. The holistic skincare practices would treat clients going through chemotherapy, who may suffer skincare conditions due to side effects of medication, and women who are pregnant with skin conditions.

Your Life Energy would operate 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., daily, with Sundays being reserved for follow-up appointments only. The operations would not accept walk-ins other than to provide basic information if staff is available. Two practitioners would schedule a maximum of five appointments a day. The applicant does not anticipate noise or odors at the site. Unloading of supplies would occur in the rear of the building in the alley.

PARKING

The subject property is located within the Central Business District (CBD). Health profession offices located within the CBD are exempt from parking requirements pursuant to Section 8-300(B) of the Zoning Ordinance

ZONING/ MASTER PLAN DESIGNATION

The subject property is located in the RM/Townhouse Zone. Section 3-1104 does not permit health profession offices in the RM Zone. Section 12-302(B) of the Zoning Ordinance states that a non-complying use, the previous business and professional office use in this case, may be continued or changed as noted in Section 12-302(B)(2):

“A noncomplying use may be changed, with a special use permit, to any use allowed in the zone in which such noncomplying use is first listed in this ordinance.”

As it is separately defined in the Zoning Ordinance, the health profession office request represents a change from the previous legal, non-complying business and professional office. Business professional office and health profession office uses first appear together in the zoning ordinance as permitted uses in the CL zone, indicating that they are considered similar in terms of neighborhood impacts. The proposed health profession office use, therefore, would require

SUP approval as a continuing non-complying use.

The subject site is within the Old Town Small Area Plan which designates the area for a mix of retail and residential uses.

II. STAFF ANALYSIS

Staff supports the applicant's request to operate a health profession office as a continuing, non-complying use in a townhouse which has been used for business and professional office uses prior to 1992 at 705 Prince Street. The proposal would allow for an established Old Town business to not only accommodate existing clients but also to attract new clientele by relocating closer to the King Street corridor. Although the proposed health profession office would be a non-complying use, office uses of similar intensities have existed at the subject site for the past 40 years without issue.

Health profession offices and business and professional offices are similar in operation and produce minimal impacts. Both uses operate primarily through client appointments, which, at a maximum of five per day for the applicant, generate limited foot traffic. In addition, the consultation-based nature of these types of office uses does not elicit noise that could be detected beyond the property line. Residents to the west would not be affected as commercially used buildings are next to 705 Prince Street on either side.

Additionally, as the 700 block of Prince Street is not exclusively residential and includes RM, CL and CD zoned uses, the proposed health profession office would continue to contribute to neighborhood vibrancy typically associated with mixed-use areas (Figure 2).

Standard conditions, often included for non-complying office use Special Use Permits, have been included to mitigate potential impacts. To address environmental concerns, Condition #3 would require trash and garbage to be stored inside or in sealed containers and Condition #4 would control potential odors or air pollutants. Lastly, Condition #7 would require the applicant to adhere to the noise ordinance. Although the applicant requested hours of operation between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m., staff extended the hours to 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. for operational flexibility in Condition #2. Staff believes the conditioned hours are reasonable for an office use in a residential zone.

Given that business and professional office uses at 705 Prince Street have operated compatibly in the RM zone since 1979, staff believes it is reasonable for a low-impact health profession office to operate at the site as a legal, continuing non-complying use. Subject to the conditions contained in Section III of this report, staff recommends approval of the Special Use Permit request.

To whom it may concern:

Maricela Noble and her business, Your Life Energy Holistic Center, was my neighbor in the office building at 311 N. Washington Street for several years. She has always been a courteous, considerate, caring, and professional neighbor. She went above and beyond the call to improve things for the building and the neighborhood at every opportunity. We miss her at 311 N. Washington St, and I am confident she will remain an asset to the neighborhood around her at her new location.

Please feel free to contact me at the number below with any questions or clarifications you may need.

Hey Patrick

One of the applications (705 Prince) that came in at the end of the day yesterday came with a letter of support and she is providing another from her neighbor.

To Whom It May Concern,

I wanted to provide a reference for Mariceal Nobel and her business, Your Life Energy Holistic Center. Maricela has truly been a wonderful addition to our neighborhood. She has been a respectful and appreciative member of our small community; for example, she has been cooperative with us when we have had contractors coming to our condos for repairs and helped us make things easier for everyone regarding parking. She has also worked with us on any issue when we have asked for her help. She is truly a delight to know and have as a neighbor!

Not only is she a kind and considerate person, but she has planted beautiful flowers, gardens, etc. at her own expense in an effort to make our community a more wonderful place to live. She also volunteered to help her previous landlord with plantings to better our community. I can't recommend anyone more than Maricela to have a business in their neighborhood.

Please feel free to call me with any questions or concerns.

Kind regards,

To whom it may concern:

Maricela Noble and her business, Your Life Energy Holistic Center, was my neighbor in the office building at 311 N. Washington Street for several years. She has always been a courteous, considerate, caring, and professional neighbor. She went above and beyond the call to improve things for the building and the neighborhood at every opportunity. We miss her at 311 N. Washington St, and I am confident she will remain an asset to the neighborhood around her at her new location.

Please feel free to contact me at the number below with any questions or clarifications you may need.

Thank you.

Dear Lynne and Mark

I hope all is well with you guys at the north side of town. I am about to ask you for a big favor. The City Hall is making me to apply again for my special permit for my business and is requesting me to have a reference note from my neighbors where I had my business before. Making sure that I did not cause any problem to any of you. Is it possible for you to give me this reference? You can do quick note and send it by email. Sadly I need this within today. Sorry for the short time request. ☹

Thank you very much for your attention to this matter

What is Reiki?

Reiki is a Japanese-Tibetan holistic technique. It was discovered and developed by a Japanese Buddhist Mikao Usui. Reiki is a spiritual and healing energy, in Chinese Medicine Reiki is known as Chi "Universal Life Energy". Because Reiki exists within the entire universe, its strength and innate wisdom are endless. Reiki healers serve as channels for this spiritual energy. The healing energy enters your body, balancing your energy, removing energetic blockages, cleaning the body of toxins, releasing stress, soothing pain, and promoting your body's natural ability to heal itself. It works on the body and mind, helping emotional and spiritual levels. Reiki has an innate intelligence and it goes wherever needed in the body. Reiki also works on plants and animals. Over time it enhances intuition, meditation and personal spiritual evolution.

What is it like to experience Reiki treatment?

Receiving Reiki is a very simple process, but it produces quite profound effects. The session begins by lying down on a treatment couch/massage table, fully clothed, closing your eyes & listening to gentle, soothing music. The Reiki practitioner will gently place his/her hands above the body of the client but some practitioners will gently rest his/her hands upon you, non-intrusively, in a series of hand positions from the crown of the head to the feet. Each hand position is held for a few minutes. During this time the energy flows. Feelings of deep relaxation are usually felt by all. In addition, many feel a wonderful glowing radiance that flows through and surrounds them as the Reiki energy encourages them to let go of all tension, anxiety, fear or other negative feelings. A state of peace and well-being is experienced. Others report of experiencing heat or cold over certain parts of their bodies. Some drift off to sleep or report a sensation of floating in the air. Sometimes people have an emotional release, as emotional turmoil is brought to the surface and dissipated. Time duration for Reiki varies, it could take from 45 minutes to 90 minutes.

What is Emotional Freedom Technique (EFT)?

It is a tapping sequence made with your fingertips on top of the Meridian Points of your body. This action stimulates the Well-energy within yourself. It provides immediate and positive results to either physical or emotional problem. It is considered as the emotional acupuncture therapy without the invasiveness of needles. EFT is an energy therapy with early origins to Acupressure and Shiatsu, which therapies developed independently but alongside each other in China and Japan. Roger Callahan, Ph.D., is a clinical psychologist and the founder of Callahan Techniques® (<http://www.tftrx.com/callahan.html>). He learned, applied and combined ancient Eastern therapy with traditional Psychology on a patient with Hydrophobia. The results he got were almost immediate and very successful. Gary Craig is the founder of EFT (<http://www.emofree.com/>). He learned from Dr. Roger Callahan, this new therapy. He also developed and simplified the series of acupressure (tapping) in different Meridian Points of the body. Both gentlemen contributed with their knowledge, giving us a wonderful and effective tool to release all harmful emotions.

How is an EFT session like?

The practitioner and client will be in a consultation room to talk and identify each emotion that are affecting and causing the emotional stress. Once this is done, the practitioner will coach the client to apply the tapping sequence on top of her/his meridians points and helping during the practice until the client can do it on her/his own. The duration of the session could take 60 or 90 minutes.

Who can benefit from EFT?

Everyone! It is a wonderful Universal Tool Aid. It will help you with stress, tension, anxiety, sleeplessness and related symptoms, feeling unable to cope, low spirits, moods swings. Weight loss or eating habits/disorders. Stopping smoking, phobias, public speaking, confidence, self-motivation, improving your self-performance and physical pain management. Time duration is generally 75 minutes.

These techniques had been recently included in several hospitals, they had given positive results and helped people who are dealing with their high level of stress and illnesses.
