Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I am honored to express my interest in serving on the Advisory Board for Northern Virginia Community College representing the City of Alexandria. Throughout my career in public education and educational leadership, I have remained deeply committed to student success, community engagement, and expanding opportunities for lifelong learning. My professional experience includes serving as a Chief of Staff, School Board Member, and Principal Coach, where I worked collaboratively with educators, families, community leaders, and stakeholders to strengthen educational outcomes and support strategic planning initiatives. These experiences have provided me with a broad understanding of the educational pipeline and the importance of creating strong partnerships between K-12 education, higher education, workforce development, and the broader community. I am particularly interested in supporting NOVA's mission of providing accessible, high-quality education that prepares students for academic achievement, career readiness, and civic engagement. As a representative of Alexandria, I would bring a collaborative leadership style, a commitment to equity and inclusion, and a strong understanding of the diverse needs of our community. I welcome the opportunity to contribute my experience in governance, strategic planning, community relations, and educational leadership to help advance the goals and vision of Northern Virginia Community College and the residents of Alexandria.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I am seeking appointment to the Northern Virginia Community College Board because I believe community colleges are essential to expanding opportunity, strengthening the workforce, and developing future leaders in our region. Throughout more than 20 years of service as an Air Force officer, military judge, and senior legal advisor, I have led teams, mentored young professionals, and advised senior leaders on governance, ethics, and organizational effectiveness. I am particularly interested in supporting accessible, high-quality education pathways tied to public service, technology, cybersecurity, and workforce development. As a parent and Alexandria resident, I would bring a practical, mission-focused perspective grounded in leadership, accountability, and community service.

Summary of Work and Experience

I am a public-sector leader with extensive experience in local government consulting, community development, and data-driven process improvement. As a Vice President with Front Line Advisory Group, I help cities and counties modernize development processes, strengthen budgeting and program controls, improve public services, and implement practical technology solutions. My work spans permitting reform, capital program oversight, long-range planning, and analytics, giving me a strong foundation for boards focused on planning, budgeting, IT, and community services. I also brings a deep commitment to education and community engagement through my work as a graduate lecturer, mentor, and builder of training and internship programs. My service on nonprofit boards and background as a U.S. Marine officer further shape my collaborative, mission-driven approach to governance. I bring experience in strategic planning, technology adoption, financial oversight, and equitable community impact, making me well-suited for a variety of civic roles.
