Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I'm interested in filling the can't seat on the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee. I have lived in Old Town Alexandria for 7 years, am serving on my condo's board of directors for my 4th year, and intend to be more involved within the larger community. The Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee is the unique opportunity for me to engage with the community. I studied french in grade-school and am intrigued by this specific committee. If I am fortunate enough to be selected, I will serve to the best of my abilities enthusiastically. Due to my interest and dedication to serving, I would be honored to be an asset to the committee, and I hope that you will consider me for the vacant seat.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

My name is Scott Cullinane and for the past 15 years, I have worked in and around Washington – living in Alexandria since 2020. Professionally, I was a staffer on Capitol Hill focusing on foreign policy issues for a number of years and now work in foreign policy advocacy with special expertise on Europe. My wife and I recently purchased our first home and I am looking to become more involved in Alexandria civic life. The Sister Cities Committee for Caen seems like a natural fit with my experience and interest in Europe. I look forward to contributing to the work of the Committee, building on the legacy of US-French relations, and enriching our local community. Thank you.

How long have you lived in Alexandria?

I returned to Alexandria this month, having lived abroad with the U.S. Air Force the last 5 years. Before that I resided in Alexandria from 2017-2020.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I have always had a strong desire to serve my community. Having just returned from living in Europe and working with our European NATO allies, I believe I can continue to serve my community on the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee. During my time overseas, I planned several large events including with VIPs and Distinguished Visitors, and saw how these events advanced our interests and built crucial partnerships that will last. My strong interest in history can also be valuable in ensuring that the planned events can help our community learn about Alexandria's storied history, and that of Caen, France.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I am writing to express my strong interest in serving as a member of the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee. My connection to Alexandria is deeply personal and lifelong, rooted in growing up in Mount Vernon, VA, and spending nearly every week in Old Town, which instilled in me a profound appreciation for the city's unique history and vibrant community spirit. The mission of the ACSCC, to foster enduring cultural, educational, and economic ties between Alexandria and Caen, perfectly aligns with my passion for international travel and my innate drive to connect with people from diverse backgrounds. I believe that successful city partnerships are built on genuine enthusiasm and active engagement. My frequent visits to Old Town provided me with an intimate understanding of the historic preservation and community engagement that defines Alexandria. This local perspective, combined with my love for travel and networking, positions me to be an effective advocate for the partnership. I am eager to contribute my energy and time to organizing events, facilitating exchanges, and helping to strengthen the bond between our two distinct, historic cities. I am confident I can help the committee achieve its goals and look forward to the opportunity to serve.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I'd like to serve on the Alexandria-Caen Sister Cities Committee because I value cultural exchange as a way to build connections and understanding between communities. Alexandria's partnership with Caen is a meaningful example of how relationships across borders can have real impact, and I'd like to help support and grow that work locally. In my professional life, I work in communications and public affairs supporting government organizations. I'm used to translating complex initiatives for the public, coordinating with multiple stakeholders, and helping make sure programs and events run smoothly. I think those skills could be helpful to the Committee in promoting its work and engaging the community. If selected, I would focus on being a reliable, engaged member who helps wherever I can—whether that's supporting events, outreach, or just helping make sure things get done. I'm excited about learning more about the Alexandria-Caen relationship and finding ways to strengthen it for the benefit of our community.

Summary of Work and Experience

I have over seven years of experience in communications, media relations, and public affairs, primarily supporting government and policy organizations. In my current role, I coordinate communications for a federal agency, drafting press materials, coaching staff for media appearances, and managing outreach to diverse stakeholders. Previously, I led media strategy for research programs at a think tank and handled high-profile media relations for legal cases reaching the Supreme Court, securing national and international coverage. Throughout my career, I have developed expertise in translating complex topics for public audiences, building and maintaining professional relationships, and ensuring strategic messaging aligns with organizational goals. I am skilled in stakeholder engagement, event support, and representing organizations in public and media-facing settings. In addition to my professional experience, I am actively engaged in civic and cultural activities, including photography, music, and local community events, which gives me a broad perspective on how to connect with and support Alexandria's diverse community. I am committed to serving thoughtfully, collaborating effectively, and bringing practical skills to support the goals of the Alexandria-Caen Sister Cities Committee.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

To Whom it May Concern, Thank you for considering my application for the vacant Member position on the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee. I am interested in joining this committee because I want to get more involved in local governance and help to build upon Alexandria's stellar reputation as a top city and community in USA. I've lived in Alexandria for five years, the DC Metro Area for 20 years, and am an active member of this community. I am currently the Treasurer and on the board of my neighborhood association, Marlan Forest Citizen's Association. As Treasurer, I collected the highest amount of dues (both in dollars and total household) the association has collected in the last decade. I also planned and hosted this year's annual Oktoberfest, where we combined with the adjacent neighborhood, found event sponsors, and tripled the attendance record from 100 to 300 neighborhood attendees this year. It was called the best ever festival the neighborhood has seen in the 40-year history of the event. I also have a 5 year-old daughter and 6 year-old son and am the head coach for their T-Ball and Dad's Pitch baseball team at Fort Hunt Little League, going into my 3rd year. I've been working with USA baseball to develop in season and out-of-season plans to make the games and practices both fun and to maximize player development. I think you'll find my participation on this committee to be reliable and effective as my current local commitments. I understand one of the activities this committee supports are exchange programs. I have first-hand experience. After completing my undergraduate degree, I participated in a year-long work abroad program in Holland, organized and sponsored by the French international student organization, AIESEC (<https://aiesec.org/>). I was the organization's national student representative in Holland during the year I was there, speaking to and recruiting new students into the program. I understand and have experience with both sides of the operation as a planner and a participant. I am also well experienced with France. I lived in Southern France (Montpellier) for 5 months, studying French, before graduate school, and have travelled throughout France and Europe extensively. I'm attuned to many of the activities this committee supported in 2025. My wife and I love French wine. I love Rugby, having played for two years during graduate school in Boston and one year in Washington DC. I still watch international rugby and follow DC's professional rugby squad, Old Glory. Finally, my two decade long professional career has focused on international development related work. I have worked and lived throughout Africa, and traveled to over 60 countries for both business and leisure. I am culturally aware, sensitive to how others view America, and am a seasoned 'diplomat' having worked with foreign partners throughout my career, finding common ground to achieving mutual interests. I look forward to making the two-year commitment to serve this committee and City of Alexandria, and to develop and achieve a set of goals we can be proud of. Thank you for your consideration. Warm Regards, Matt Siller

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I recently moved to Alexandria from Franconia after marrying my wife, and am looking to be an active part of this community as we start to build our family. Of the vacancies that for strictly citizens, this one stood out to me because I was a liaison to French forces while deployed to East Africa. This past summer we hosted one of my French friends in Alexandria in order to show her our city and the capital. Sharing our experience with her was rewarding, and I would be glad to do more of it.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I am deeply passionate about fostering international connections, having lived abroad for both school and work, experiences that opened my eyes to the transformative power of cultural exchange. My connection to France is particularly meaningful—I was married there, and I have a profound personal connection to the region's history. My great grandfather fought in World War II and saw action on D-Day, making the memorials in Normandy sacred ground for my family. This personal tie to the shared history between our nations drives my commitment to strengthening the bonds between Alexandria and Caen. Beyond my personal connection to France, I bring practical experience in community engagement and event organization. As the former Social Chair for The Madison, a DC charity organization, I have successfully planned and executed large-scale charity events that bring people together for meaningful causes. I am excited to apply this experience to the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee, where I can help create programming that celebrates our partnership, educates our community about French culture and history, and builds lasting relationships between the citizens of both cities.
