Statement of Interest

I am applying to join the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee with a strong belief in the importance of the role of local government; it is my conviction that a crucial part of the continuous process of building a home in Alexandria is participation in municipal politics and service to the community. I consider maintaining healthy cultural interactions between Alexandria and Caen a cornerstone of enduring solidarity and accord, with both commerce and curiosity serving as powerful incentives for continued cultural exchange between evolving societies. Furthermore, I have many fond memories of time spent in France, interacting with and learning from its people; I look forward to sharing such experiences, however partial, with my fellow Alexandrians. I am certain that the committee would benefit from my skills, including my proficiency in the French language, and I hope to be able to leverage them to serve in building a lasting bridge across geographical and cultural borders.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest

Dear Members of the Alexandria City Council Commission for Women, I am writing to express my interest in serving on the Commission for Women. As a dedicated advocate for equality and inclusion, I am deeply committed to the Commission's mission to eliminate gender discrimination and encourage equal opportunities for women in all aspects of their lives. With a diverse background in leadership, strategy, and planning, I have led teams in various sectors, including sports, military, manufacturing, and consulting, across four countries. My experience as an Army veteran, certified project management professional, and M.B.A. graduate from Georgetown University has equipped me with a strong foundation in organizational leadership and a technical background in systems engineering. Throughout my career, I have been passionate about creating inclusive environments and promoting diversity. As the Chief of Staff and Metro DC Local Market Lead at Accenture, I have focused on community building, civic partnerships, and strategic client relationship development. Additionally, my role as the Strategic Operations & Activation Lead for the Inclusion, Diversity, & Equity Practice at Accenture has allowed me to contribute to creating more equitable workplaces. I believe that my unique blend of 'soft' skills refined from management and consulting services, combined with my experience in fast-paced environments like the military and manufacturing, enables me to bring valuable perspectives to the Commission. My commitment to co-creating, organizing, and driving organizational success while focusing on people development aligns with the Commission's goals to empower women and promote gender equality. I am particularly interested in contributing to the Commission's efforts in encouraging equal opportunities for women in employment, health services, education, and government. I am eager to leverage my skills and experiences to support the Commission's initiatives, recommend policy changes, and conduct educational programs to advance the status of women in Alexandria. Thank you for considering my application. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to the Alexandria City Council Commission for Women and to work collaboratively to make a positive impact on the lives of women in our community. Sincerely, Kafi A. Joseph

Statement of Interest

For many years I have been interested in working on issues impacting women. I began working right out of college as a volunteer at an orphanage in Mexico. When I moved back to the East Coast and into the City of Alexandria, I immediately began working as a volunteer with the Domestic Violence Program as an interpreter and a shelter volunteer. I feel I could be a real asset to Board of the Commission on Women. Not only do I bring my years of experience, but I'm also bilingual in English/Spanish. I could assist with outreach in the Hispanic Community within the City. Since I have been on the CFW I have moderated the Commission's first ever panel on Human Trafficking and I am currently co-chair of the committee to plan the celebration of the Commission's 50th Anniversary.

I briefly served on the Community Services Board, having been recruited by a then-member Jason Decant in 2016/17. Due to my young child's special needs, I submitted my resignation and devoted my attend to my child's special needs.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest

As a parent of a child with additional needs, a citizen of the City of Alexandria, and a clinical social worker by training, the needs of people with disabilities and differences is close to my heart personally, professionally, and in every way. I briefly served on a Community Services Board in 2016/17, and needed to step away from work and any additional responsibilities to care for my young family and child with developmental needs. I understand the challenges of living with disability, in a world continues to struggle at times to accept differences, let alone collaborate to meet the needs of those with differences. As a social worker and public servant in New York City and in the Washington D.C. area, I have served hundreds of young families and children with diverse backgrounds and needs, throughout our nation. It has been a privilege and honor to work with people with such varied stories, and to take to the time to actively listen and learn from others. I hope to bring this professional, as well as my personal perspective, to our City of Alexandria. I am committed to working across groups collaboratively to a society that is inclusive of all needs and capabilities, which champions all our stories in order to strengthen our City's culture and community. After years of pursuing early intervention for my child, I am grateful to have returned to the workforce as a Public Health Advisor, specializing in children's mental health. I now hope to begin again my contributions as a citizen to our community as well through this Commission position.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

I am a 2023 graduate of Alexandria City High School. My recent graduation from Alexandria City Public Schools allows me to provide the commission a student perspective.

SUMMARY OF WORK AND PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE:

I became involved in the disability and chronic illness community long before I became reliant on wheelchairs and other mobility aids or became aware of labels like "low vision" and how they apply to me. Type 1 diabetes, which sparked my interest in disability and chronic illness at age 12, is now far from my most significant medical condition and as I have developed more and more conditions over the years, the community has gotten more and more important to me. As a student at Alexandria City High School, I founded the Disability and Illness Alliance (a support and advocacy group for students with disabilities and chronic illnesses) and was the student representative to the Alexandria City Public Schools PTA Council's DEI Committee. I was also Mid-Atlantic Chapter Ambassador/Youth Advocacy Leader for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. I have been actively involved in the City of Alexandria community ever since I moved here from Okinawa, Japan during high school — not only through Alexandria City High School and Alexandria City Public Schools but also through volunteering at the Office of Voter Registrations and Elections. More recently, I have been attending and participating in both the Commission on Persons with Disabilities and the LGBTQ+ Task Force and I am beginning the Alexandria City Academy program.

Statement of Interest

As the Chair of the Alexandria Archaeology Commission, I believe it is critical to have a strong and collaborative working relationship with other City commissions and boards that focus on historic and preservation efforts for Alexandria. As the stewards of the City's archaeological artifacts, including the ship timbers, it is the goal of the Alexandria Archaeology Commission to interpret and exhibit the artifacts in the most compelling and innovative manner. This is becoming increasingly critical with the return in the next few years of the conserved ship hull discovered at the Hotel Indigo site in 2018. This can best be achieved with consensus and input from sister organizations. After having served on the Historic Alexandria Resources Commission for the past two years, I am increasingly aware of the need for collaboration and identifying the key challenges facing the preservation community for the Commission to effective. I look forward to serving another term to address some of the key issues currently discussed, including the future of the Torpedo Factory and the completion of the Waterfront Museum Feasibility study.

Statement of Interest

Dear Members of the Potomac Yard Design Advisory Committee, I am writing to express my strong interest in serving on the Potomac Yard Design Advisory Committee. As a resident of the City of Alexandria and an immigrant from Ghana who has made the United States my home, I am deeply committed to contributing to the betterment of our community. My professional background and personal experiences make me a valuable asset to this committee. My educational and professional journey has equipped me with diverse skills and knowledge that can be applied effectively to the tasks and responsibilities of this committee. With a background in law, I have gained extensive experience in project finance, immigration law, economics, and international trade. This multidisciplinary background has given me a unique perspective on the complex issues that often arise in urban development and design. I am particularly enthusiastic about the committee's mission to review applications for a preliminary development plan, primarily using permit approval under the ordinance within CDD No. 10 Potomac Yard/Greens and CDD No. 19 North Potomac Yard for compliance with the respective urban design guidelines. My legal expertise in project finance and understanding of regulatory compliance will be invaluable in ensuring that proposed developments align with our city's urban design goals and guidelines. Furthermore, as an immigrant who has embraced the United States as my home, I sincerely appreciate the importance of inclusive and sustainable community development. I am committed to ensuring that our community's diverse voices and perspectives are heard and represented in the decision-making process. I am excited to work collaboratively with fellow committee members, city officials, and developers to shape the future of Potomac Yard and enhance its livability, sustainability, and overall quality of life for all residents. My dedication, diverse background, and passion for community involvement will enable me to contribute meaningfully to the Potomac Yard Design Advisory Committee. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to serving our community in this capacity and contributing to the continued growth and development of Potomac Yard. Sincerely, Joyce Williams

As a citizen of Alexandria for almost a decade, I truly cherish the community we have. During the pandemic, I took the City Academy to better understand our system of government and look into ways I could be involved. As a new parent, I am particularly interested in promoting the well-being of our youth and providing them the services they need to thrive. As an international development professional, I hope to leverage my experience in project management, working in complex environments and with diverse communities to support social services in Alexandria.
