To whom it may concern:

Good morning,

I stopped by at La Pluma Coffee & Wine today and noticed a request from the business to let this email know what a great job this business is doing for the community. I have been a witness to this business since they started construction over a year ago. I would drive by the building on my way to work and notice it with curiosity and anticipation as the opening date neared. Since it's opening, this place has been a lovely addition to the small business community in Old Town Alexandria. I regularly frequent here with my friends before and after practicing and teaching yoga at the Rising Sol Yoga School. It is a go to spot for its beautiful atmosphere and comfort food & drink. The staff is genuine and kind. I love the representation the business brings to the rich diversity of our community. I humbly request the receiver of this message consider my testimony when working on the future planning of the area. I don't need another big development or chain retail shop. I want to feel part of the small business community in Old town Alexandria. This is part of what makes living here special.

Thank you,

I love La Pluma so much. Their breakfasts, pastries and coffee is delicious. I haven't tried the wine yet as I'm usually there in the mornings, but it's one of my favorite coffee places. It's quaint, the outdoor patio divine, and the staff is delightful.

Good Evening,

I just wanted to reach out to express my appreciation for La Pluma. They are try source of community for me, and theirs presence is important for people of color. Safe places are hard to find sometimes, and I'd be remiss to not speak up for one of mine.

Hi, reaching out via email because I can't make the 11/15 city council meeting re: La Pluma restaurant. Just want to voice my support for the restaurant and the positive change it's made in the area. It's a great neighborhood spot, and makes the area feel more lively and cosmopolitan. My mother lives a few blocks north, and it's nice to have a local spot to walk to that's off the main drag and quiet. More outdoor tables would be great!

Thanks for your time,

To whom it may concern,

I'm reaching out today to share the immense appreciation I have for LaPluma, and the care they've put into making their restaurant a welcoming space for the entire community with the hope that Alexandria's City Council gives them a chance to grow.

I've had the pleasure of dining here a few times, and it's been an amazing experience every time! The layout of the restaurant is so cozy and inviting, and the staff have been so kind and welcoming that coming to eat here almost feels like you're visiting a close friend's house. It's more than a place to eat, it's a growing hub for the community where everyone is welcome.

In this day and age, spaces that openly celebrate diversity are harder to come by, making those that do even more important for the communities they're based in. Everyone deserves a space where they feel like they belong, just as they are, and LaPluma is one of them. Providing them with more seating and extended hours gives them the opportunity to be that space for even more members of the Alexandria community.

Good afternoon!

I'm writing to express my support for La Pluma in Alexandria! It's the kind of underrated spot that Old Town thrives on and makes downtown such a scenic little dream. I've spent several evenings and afternoons there, whether it be to relax with friends, show my family around, or have a chill date night. The food is phenomenal, the wine selection is great, and the atmosphere is ideal. However, I do think it would benefit from more hours and more seating and I think the neighborhood would benefit from the increase as well! Thank you for your time!!

I'm a resident of Alexandria, writing in support of La Pluma and their request for 5 additional outdoor tables.

I discovered La Pluma a few months ago. I dropped by for coffee a few times and was struck by the genuine hospitality of each worker. I met the owners, Iliana and Dany Lopez, and told them how nice the staff was as well as how much I loved the beautiful restoration and the design sensibility. I tried the food and learned high standards applied there as well: every dish is fresh, delicious, and beautiful. I have raved about this to friends and neighbors. I don't know anyplace in Alexandria so comfortable, appealing, friendly, and immaculate...a place you can drop by at any hour and be assured of gracious staff and excellent food and drink. I think many people are interested in La Pluma...the 4 photos I posted on Google in past 2 months have been viewed over 39,000 times.

Recently on several visits I've found all seating occupied indoors and outside, so I think the request for 5 additional tables is wise and reasonable.

Dear Mr. Blaser,

I am writing to express my full support for LaPluma Coffee & Wine located at 1000 Cameron St, Alexandria, VA 22314. This new local small business has brought new life, culture, and prosperity to our community. Since opening, they have transformed an area that had long struggled into a welcoming place for residents and visitors alike.

Beyond their excellent food and inviting atmosphere, LaPluma has shown consistent respect and consideration for their neighbors. They maintain a clean and orderly property, manage noise and traffic responsibly, and communicate openly with nearby residents and businesses. Their professionalism and courtesy have made them a valued part of the neighborhood, not just a successful business.

LaPluma has created a space that celebrates community and diversity while contributing to the local economy. I hope the department will continue to support their efforts and recognize the positive impact they've had on revitalizing this part of town.

Thank you for your time and thoughtful consideration.

Sincerely,

Eric Meyer

Hello Mr. Blaser,

I hope this email finds you well. I wanted to take a moment to share how impressed I am with La Pluma Coffee & Wine restaurant in the Old Town Alexandria area. From the moment I walked in, I was struck by how clean, inviting, and well-maintained the space is. The atmosphere perfectly complements the charm of Old Town, adding a fresh and vibrant dining option for both locals and visitors.

The Central American cuisine offered here is absolutely outstanding—rich in flavor, beautifully presented, and a wonderful reflection of the region's culinary traditions. Every dish I tried was fresh, authentic, and clearly made with great attention to detail. I can't say enough about their delicious coffee and war drinks.

Equally noteworthy was the staff: every employee I encountered was courteous, attentive, and genuinely friendly, making the entire dining experience even more enjoyable.

It's wonderful to see such a high-quality establishment bringing delicious Central American flavors to the Old Town community. I'm confident this restaurant will quickly become one of the top favorites among residents and a highlight for anyone visiting the area.

Hello,

I have been coming to La Pluma restaurant since it opened. La Pluma staff have made an impression on me, they have been welcoming, professional and have provided quality service. Their food connects me with my Latin American roots. It is refreshing to have a place in the area with original and delicious flavors. The music they play, gives a great vibe.

To whom it may concern ,

I own a home on north Patrick, a few doors down from La Pluma. I love this small personal meeting, eating place. Ever since they opened I have felt better about my street. This is one of the reasons I live in Old Town. The owners are lovely. I have celebrated two birthdays at La Pluma. The owners even made a special cake for a friend's birthday.

I would be in favor of anything they want to do to grow their small local business. Please support them !

To whom it may concern ,

I own a home on north Patrick, a few doors down from La Pluma. I love this small personal meeting, eating place. Ever since they opened I have felt better about my street. This is one of the reasons I live in Old Town. The owners are lovely. I have celebrated two birthdays at La Pluma. The owners even made a special cake for a friend's birthday.

I would be in favor of anything they want to do to grow their small local business. Please support them !

Sincerely,
Rosemary Covey (118 North Patrick)
