Statement of Interest

Thank you for the opportunity to apply for the Alexandria Commission on Employment. Since early in my teen years, employment has been the pinnacle of independence, ingenuity, and opportunity. A few years later, I went on to study Human Resources Management in college, taking courses in labor relations, recruitment, industrial and organization psychology, and compensation strategy. It was through this program that I understood the broader “world of work” and how it shapes our society. As a small business owner assisting various small businesses and nonprofit organizations with their accounting, bookkeeping, and payroll, I bring a unique perspective on the challenges these local entities face in recruiting, compensating, training, and maintaining their employees. I know that I would serve with support for fair treatment of all employees, equitable opportunities, and strong advocacy for building the workforce and advancing it. If selected to serve on this commission, I will work to further understand the employment landscape for Alexandria and foster collaboration between City programs, labor groups, the school system, and businesses of all sizes. It is with confidence that I submit this application, as my background, personal interests, and dedication to workforce development are directly aligned. I am committed to using my experience to advance programs that benefit employers and employees, ensuring that Alexandria remains a vibrant and inclusive place to live and work. Thank you for your consideration.
