For Applications to City Boards, Commissions, and Committees

Completion of this section is VOLUNTARY. When completed, the section is separated and redacted from your application prior to the application's submission to City Council. COUNCIL AND STAFF DO NOT USE THIS FORM IN DETERMINING APPOINTMENTS. Information provided in this section is treated confidentially and the information is forwarded to the Alexandria Office on Human Rights for compilation of statistics. One responsibility of the Human Rights Commission (HRC) is to track whether the diversity in our City's population is reflected in appointments made to boards, commissions, committees and authorities; the HRC does this using only data supplied on this form. The HRC reports statistics only to Council.

The HRC's main role is to ensure discrimination does not occur in our city based on race, color, sex, religion, ancestry, national origin, marital status, familial status, age, sexual orientation or disability with respect to housing, employment, public accommodations, health and social services, education, credit or city contracts.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

In 2018, I participated in a non-partisan Get Out The Vote campaign for ARHA residents ahead of the mayoral election. Initially, I'd signed up for one evening, after meeting some of the residents, including many who were also out knocking on doors, I signed up to come out each day, including once on a lunch break. I met residents who are invested in their community and who deserve to have representation that can balance political and fiscal honesty with strong advocacy for the residents themselves. As a resident of an Affordable Dwelling Unit in an Alexandria apartment complex, I understand the value of a affordable, workforce and market rate housing. As a resident and parent in Alexandria, I understand the value of diversity across demographics in a 21st century city.
