- 153
154 (a) The director shall prepare or cause to be prepared and shall keep current a comprehensive 155 emergency operations plan.
156
157 (b) The plan shall include but not be limited to the responsibilities of all local departments,
158 agencies, commissions, etc.
159
160 (c) The director shall in the plan establish a chain of command within the emergency
161 organization. The responsible person for each agency shall designate and keep on file
162 with the director a current list of three persons as successors to his position. The list shall 163 be in order of succession.
164
165 (d) The plan shall be comprehensively reviewed, updated, and formally adopted by city
166 council every four years.
167

168 Sec. 4-3-8 - City liability.

- 169
170 (a) Neither the city nor agents nor representatives of the city, nor any individual, receiver, 171 firm, partnership, corporation, association or trustee, nor any of the agents thereof, in 172 good faith carrying out, complying with or attempting to comply with any order, rule or 173 regulation promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall be liable for any 174 damage sustained to persons or property as a result of this activity.
175
176 (b) Any person owning or controlling real estate or other premises who voluntarily and 177 without compensation grants the city the right to inspect, designate and use the whole or 178 any parts of the real estate or premises for the purpose of sheltering persons during an 179 actual or impending disaster shall not be civilly liable for the death of, or injury to, any 180 persons on or about the real estate or premises under any license, privilege or other
181 permission, or for loss of or damage to the property of the person.
182
183 (c) If any person holds a license, certificate or other permit issued by any state or political 184 subdivision thereof, evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical

185 or other skills, the person may gratuitously render aid involving that skill in the city
186 during a disaster, and that person shall not be liable for negligently causing the death of,
187 or injury to, any person or for the loss of or damage to the property of any person
188 resulting from any gratuitous service.
