Subject: Nathan Lee Application for Torpedo Factory Board Public-at-Large Position
To the Honorable Mayor and Members of City Council,

My name is Nathan

Lee and I am one of the public-at-large applicants for the appointment to the Torpedo Factory Board. I am applying for this board appointment because I have the expertise in the arts, experience in public service, skills and Comments: passion to make a real difference on the board.

I started playing the violin since I was 4 years old and viola when I was 16. In addition to travelling and performing around the world I also have the unique perspective where I understand the business constraints and reality that face musicians and artists on a daily basis. I know first-hand the struggle between pursuing an artistic profession juxtaposed against the uncertainty of financial revenue. With this knowledge I want to use my expertise to work with the artists at the Torpedo Factory and the community to maximize the relationship between the creativity and social wellbeing generated by the arts and business reality.

My public service experience starts with my internship at the White House. As an intern at the White House Office of Public Correspondence, I interacted with people on a daily basis from around the world listening to their thoughts and letting them know that their voice was being heard. From this experience I then worked at the campaign level on the John Kerry campaign going door-to-door to get people to vote. Public service is one of the most valuable pursuits that one can engage in and why I am applying for the board of the Torpedo Factory.

I

currently work at Lockheed Martin as a Finance Analyst in the leadership development program. My leadership experience combined with my analytical mindset will be the basis for creating solutions and then implementing them successfully. In addition, I am positive that the constant inflow of new ideas and concepts that I learn through my part-time MBA program at GWU will also be leveraged if elected to the board.

Art and creativity is one of the most treasured endeavors that a community and nation can create and foster for current and future generations. I am applying for the board position because I know that I can make a difference at the Torpedo Factory and because I want to make a difference.

I humbly ask for your support in my nomination and to grant a residency waiver for my application so that I can work with the Torpedo Factory board to take the artistry and creativity in Alexandria to the next level over the next 3 years.

Sincerely,
Nathan Lee

Dear Member of City Council,

As I understand Harry Mahon has applied for the recent board vacancy on the Torpedo Factory Art Center Board. I was sorry to see Mr. Mahon passed over when the vote came up in December 2012.

As a nine+ year TFAC staff member and having worked with Mr. Mahon for Comments: the last 18 months I believe he is an excellent candidate to fill this vacancy. With our new CEO, Eric Wallner, in place Mr. Mahon's knowledge of Alexandria and specifically the arts in Alexandria would offer an incredible asset to the TFACB.

I appreciate your consideration of this matter.

Subject: Torpedo Factory Board - Citizen Appointment
Dear Mayor, Vice Mayor, and Council Members

I wanted to write in my support to have Harry Mahon appointed to the Torpedo Factory Art Center Board. I have worked for the Torpedo Factory since February of 2008 and have seen a lot of change over with different boards. Working under Harry while he was Interim CEO provided an environment for the staff and the Comments: Artist Association to flourish. His passion for the arts, and his roots and support of the City of Alexandria benefited the Art Center greatly. I think his experience working at the Art Center would give him great insight to how the organization functions. Apart from the artists on the board it would be beneficial for the board to have a member that understands the inner workings - programs and events, staff roles, budget, etc. I hope you will take this in to consideration when making your selections.

Dear Ms. Henderson,

I would like to endorse

Mr. Harry Mahon for the vacant community at-large position on the Torpedo Comments: Factory Art Center Board.

As a member of the community, Mr. Mahon is an ardent supporter of the arts. He appreciates the value of a rich cultural tradition and he understands the Torpedo Factory's role as an economic generator in Alexandria.

As Interim CEO of the TFACB, Mr.

Mahon facilitated a smooth operational transition, bringing together all of the moving parts to work in synch.

As a TFACB board member, Mr.

Mahon would add the community perspective. He is a strong voice for strategic planning; his strengths, combined with his familiarity with the art center, make him an ideal candidate.

I highly recommend Mr. Mahon for this position.

Very respectfully,
Tanya Davis
President, Torpedo

Factory Artists' Association

I understand that you will vote tonight for the vacant position on the Torpedo Factory Board. I was the first president of the Friends of the Torpedo Factory -- founded just before the artists moved from Building 10 into the renovated building. I worked for several years in establishing the Friends as the primary promotion and fund raising arm for the factory.

Comments: I also advised the Art League in lease negotiations using my experience in real estate as they searched for expanded space as they increased their student body to over 2500 students. I have been interested in the process of increasing the economic development use of the Torpedo Factory. Certainly its presence on the waterfront at the base of King Street and its popularity as a tourist attraction makes it a good focus for Alexandria.

And it is necessary for it to remain as a vital part of our waterfront development.

I have a broad knowledge of Alexandria and its policies.

I believe that this can be useful in the future. I urge you to vote for me tonight. Thank you.

Dear Mayor Euille and Council Members:

I serve as Chair of the Alexandria Commission for the Arts and recently completed two terms as Vice Chair of the Torpedo Factory Art Center Board (TFACB). I remain on the TFACB and am writing to ask you to appoint Lois Walker to the Board.

Comments: From my work on TFACB over the past two years, it's clear to me that Lois is exactly the kind of person we need on the Board. As a local businesswoman with deep knowledge of and commitment to the Alexandria community and as a former City Council member, she will bring the fresh perspective we need at this crucial time in TFACB's work. We have hired a new and outstanding CEO, strengthened our finances, and begun to plan for a renewal of TFAC's facilities and programs. We need the involvement of citizens like Lois to help us make these plans a reality. Lois knows TFAC well and served in the past as president of the Friends of the Torpedo Factory. But it is her broader involvement in the community and work as a businesswoman that will add much-needed skills to the TFACB.

Thank you,

as always, for your support for the arts in Alexandria. Those of us who work as volunteers for the arts here understand that your support makes our efforts possible...and successful. And we are grateful. Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Thank you!

Nathan Lee's Background related to the Torpedo Factory Board Position:

Nathan Lee is a rising star and leader in the DC metro area defense industry and also an acclaimed classical violinist/violist with an international presence and over 20 years of music experience. For the past 24 years Nathan has achieved exceptional results professionally and personally. In his professional career, highlights include managing a $2.2B overhead budget and leading a cross-functional team through complex intellectual property rights negotiations with the U.S Government. Nathan also pushes himself to his absolute limit in his personal life as well. He has reached the summit of a 19,000 ft mountain in La Paz, Bolivia. One of the seven marathons he has completed thus far includes the Pikes Peak Marathon in Colorado Springs, Colorado which took 7 grueling hours to run through snow, ice and thunder to the summit of the 14,000 ft Pike Peak Mountain and then back down again. Nathan is someone that challenges others to be their best and holds himself to an even higher standard of excellence. He is someone that will bring leadership, a diverse viewpoint and proven experience to the Torpedo Factory Board as a public-at-large director.

He came to Washington to accept a position at the Fortune 100 defense company Lockheed Martin in their prestigious Finance Leadership Development Program (FLDP). This exclusive program interviewed over 400 of the brightest and most accomplished individuals around the United States graduating from college and down-selected only 44 for the FLDP program. As part of this program Nathan has been fortunate to participate in week-long leadership and strategy conferences, brief senior executives at Lockheed Martin and obtained a wealth of experience through a functional rotation program.

Prior to his relocation to Washington, Nathan has held an internship at the White House Office of Presidential Correspondence, worked at a newspaper in the advertising and editorial departments, and also as a violin teacher to elementary and middle school students. These experiences have honed his communication and marketing skills that can also be used for the benefit of the Torpedo Factory.

Nathan Lee is currently a financial analyst with Lockheed Martin and also pursuing his MBA at The George Washington University (GWU). He is excited at the opportunity to use his musical background, analytical skills and connection with the students at GWU to foster greater interaction and synergy between the community and the Torpedo Factory for years to come.

To the Honorable Mayor, Vice-Mayor, and City Council,

I am writing this letter with great pleasure to provide recommendation for Mr. Nathan Lee to be appointed to the Torpedo Factory Board. I have had the pleasure of witnessing Mr. Lee's commitment to the arts since meeting him, and as a citizen of Alexandria, I wholeheartedly endorse him for this position.

Nathan Lee is a champion for arts in the greater Washington area. He currently is a member of a volunteer string orchestra quartet at George Washington University. He is also a frequent attendee and advocate for arts events in the area.

In addition to his artistic qualifications, Nathan has a tremendous degree of civic duty to the city of Alexandria. He is a kind-spirited, intelligent, and dependable person. He has lead and been involved with civic programs which allow others to appreciate the opportunities this area has to offer. Nathan has worked to teach English as a second language to area citizens, and volunteered on behalf of other charitable organizations that enrich and enhance the Alexandria area.

These are all qualities that I believe make him an exceptional candidate for this post. His good judgment and mature outlook ensure a logical and practical approach to all of his endeavors.

Sincerely,

Suzanne M. Dove, CDFM

To the Honorable Mayor, Vice-Mayor and City Council,

I am writing this letter to provide my full support for Nathan Lee to be appointed to the Torpedo Factory Art Center Board. I have been a friend of Nathan's since college, and have seen his genuine intentions toward helping and working with others toward meeting common goals. He is a great team player, who provides countless numbers of fresh, ingenious ideas that are all logical and functionally feasible. In addition, he socially can adapt to any team dynamic, which is an innate capability that is hard to come by. I have no doubt that Nathan will be a superb addition to the Torpedo Factory Art Center Board.

Over the past few years, he has established his home roots in Northern Virginia. Nathan innovatively thinks of creative, efficient solutions to any situation, and I know that he would want to add value not only for the board but to the entire community he resides in. Nathan's intellectual strengths range from his solid verbal and written skills to his finance, management and marketing knowledge. His intellectual aptitude, soft skills, and passion towards improving things for the betterment of people are intangible assets that will be invaluable to the board.

I hope you strongly consider Nathan Lee as a top candidate for the position. He will make the Torpedo Factory Art Center an even more vital and memorable place to all the visitors, as well as to the citizens of the community.
