Statement of Interest

My passion for housing for all began in 2013 when the Episcopal Church of the Resurrection in the West End of Alexandria decided to pursue its vision of replacing its current church with The Spire, a 113 unit affordable housing apartment building, and a new smaller church. As the chair of the church’s Redevelopment Committee I was involved in every aspect of the project. I have been a resource for other members of the faith community considering a similar project The freedom of retirement has provided more time to become engaged in the Alexandria community. I am engaged in a number of outreach ministries that provide an opportunity to learn about the needs of our neighbors, especially related to housing. Through church activity I work closely with the other seven Episcopal churches in Alexandria. And through our church’s membership in VOICE (Virginians Organized for Interfaith Community Engagement) I work more closely with the other churches, synagogues and mosques in Alexandria and Northern Virginia. As a counselor with Christ Church Financial Ministry providing immediate urgent finances to residents needing assistance with rent, utilities or certain medical expenses; I hear directly about the needs and struggles of Alexandria residents. The ministry also gives me insights in the ARHA application process, operations and housing. I volunteer at Carpenter’s Shelter providing dinner meals throughout the year. I would value the opportunity continue to share my experience and knowledge with the City on this very important subject. I have been engaged in the Housing Master Plan 2040 conversation and would like to see that process through to its conclusion. I also recognize the escalating housing needs and challenges that face Alexandria, Northern Virginia and the nation. I would like to help find solutions to those challenges as well. Thank you for considering my interest in serving my community.

I believe that a lot of change can happen in Alexandria, and asking students and teenagers who are currently involved in the school systems can provide a helpful perspective on the efforts that succeed and the efforts that may not work so well. I'm interested in representing students and teenagers in Alexandria with current issues and to help to the best of my ability. I think this is a great way to help the community and my peers.

Statement of Interest

Dear Chairman Moran and the Alexandria City Council, I am writing to express my candidacy for the Citizen Member opening on the Citizen Corps Council. My motivation for applying stems from a deep sense of civic engagement I have observed since moving to Alexandria and my desire to contribute meaningfully to that spirit in a city where my wife and I plan to establish long-term roots. I see this opportunity as both a way to serve my neighbors and as the first of many steps toward becoming a trusted, respected, and active member of the Alexandria community. While I am at an early stage in my civic involvement, I believe it is important for younger residents to serve in local government. Doing so ensures generational representation and brings fresh perspectives that can benefit the entire community. I am eager to fill this often-missing niche, contributing both enthusiasm and a deep respect for the responsibilities of public service. My qualifications are grounded in leadership, problem-solving, and cross-sector collaboration across my professional and volunteer experiences. As an Operations Manager at McMaster-Carr during the COVID-19 pandemic, I worked on the frontlines of an essential business, developing creative solutions to complex problems with limited resources and engaging with both internal stakeholders and local government agencies to enhance emergency preparedness efforts. I have also previously contributed to emergency response efforts through Habitat for Humanity, coordinating with public safety agencies as well as community leaders in the Greater Boston area. In addition, my experience as a wilderness orientation leader with specialized medical training has equipped me to design and implement preparedness strategies in collaboration with first responders under challenging conditions. The Council’s mission to foster a culture of preparedness and resilience aligns directly with my values. I am eager to bring my skills, energy, and dedication to this work, supporting initiatives that safeguard residents and ensure Alexandria remains a vibrant, well-prepared city. Serving on the Citizen Corps Council would be an honor, and I am committed to contributing my time and expertise to support the Council’s objectives. I appreciate the Council’s time and thoughtful consideration of my application and remain available to provide any additional information that may assist in its review. Very Respectfully, Anthony Benja-Athon

Statement of Interest

I am honored to submit my interest in serving as the Business Community Representative on the City of Alexandria’s Commission on Employment. As the Executive Director of Together We Bake (TWB), an employer located in Old Town Alexandria, I lead a mission-driven business that is deeply rooted in both our community and the local economy. TWB is an employment social enterprise that operates a small commercial bakery, producing and selling cookies and granola to individual customers and wholesale accounts. Beyond the products we create, we offer life-changing workforce training to women overcoming barriers to employment, preparing them for stable, quality jobs across the region. I bring over two decades of leadership experience in workforce development and economic development. My career has included serving as President/CEO of a regional economic development organization, developing Mile High United Way’s first workforce program, and leading initiatives to build inclusive economic ecosystems. I have worked at the intersection of business needs and job seeker preparation, advocating for strategies that meet employer demands while opening pathways for underrepresented populations to access sustainable careers. I am also a strong advocate for the Job Quality Framework, ensuring that jobs provide not just a paycheck, but stability, dignity, opportunities for advancement, and alignment with worker needs. At TWB, we model this commitment by offering supportive employment, competitive wages, and skill-building that equips our graduates to succeed in the workplace and thrive in life. If appointed to the Commission, I will contribute: • A business perspective grounded in social impact, offering insights into how employers can balance profitability with inclusive hiring practices and employee well-being. • Deep workforce expertise, helping shape policies and initiatives that align Alexandria’s workforce development ecosystem with evolving labor market trends. • Strong community partnerships, drawing on my experience building cross-sector collaborations to address systemic barriers to employment. • Advocacy for quality jobs, championing employment opportunities that strengthen both the city’s economy and the lives of its residents. Serving on the Commission would be an opportunity to apply my business and workforce development experience in service to the city I work in and care deeply about. I am committed to working alongside my fellow Commissioners to ensure Alexandria remains a place where businesses can thrive and residents can access meaningful, quality employment. Tricia Allen

Summary of Work and Experience

Tricia Allen is the incoming Executive Director of Together We Bake, an employment social enterprise serving women as they overcome barriers to employment. Tricia joins Together We Bake from the Economic Development Association for Black Communities (EDABC) where she served as Chief Program Officer. The EDABC focuses on developing innovative and inclusive economic development strategies and programs to improve economic outcomes for the Black community across the Denver metro region. She was responsible for developing program strategy, implementation, and evaluation and advocating for inclusive economic development policies, particularly tied to Black talent development and entrepreneurship. She has over twenty years of executive and senior-level experience in economic development, building local and regional economies through business development, attraction, retention, and creating high-quality jobs. Before this, she served as the Vice President of Community Impact at Mile High United Way (MHUW). In this role, she was responsible for developing and implementing the strategic vision for the organization's community priority of 'creating economic opportunity for all' and program areas that include Careers United, Bridging the Gap, Tax Help Colorado, and United for Business. She designed and launched the Building Success Accelerator for BIPOC social entrepreneurs. Prior to her tenure at Mile United Way, Tricia served as the President and Chief Executive Officer of a regional economic development organization. In this role, she was the trusted voice and champion for business and economic development, providing visionary and inspirational leadership to the organization and the community. Tricia completed the prestigious McKinsey & Company's Black Executive Leadership Program and Leadership Denver. She holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in Political Science and Africana Studies. She received certifications in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion from the University of South Florida and Social Impact Strategy from the University of Pennsylvania. She earned the Just Communities Accredited Practitioner credential from the Partnership for Southern Equity. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. Tricia serves on numerous Boards and community organizations, including the Community Enterprise Development Services, Social Venture Partners - Denver, Metropolitan Diversity & Equity Partners, and Montbello Organizing Committee's Building Success Policy Council. She is also a member of Level Leaders, an organization of women who invest in Black women-owned startups. Originally from Colorado, Tricia is a small business owner who enjoys spending time with her husband, Greg, and their dog, Shadow, as well as reading, attending plays and concerts, and cheering on her favorite sports teams, including the Denver Nuggets, Broncos, and The Ohio State University football.

Statement of Interest
I've served on this board now for a few years and excited about the things we have been able to do, as well as the amazing projects to come -- whether that is finally realizing a continuous walk along our waterfront, improving and building more athletic fields, kyack launches, and walking and bike trails or helping residents access the city's parks and services. I'm particularly excited about supporting the new Department Director and looking for ways to not only increase access but to look at innovative ways to fund improvements to our parks that our residents would like to see. Lots more to do to keep our green spaces inviting and useful to meet our community's needs!

Statement of Interest

As I contemplate retirement from a 40-plus year career with NASA and the federal government, I’ve been considering volunteer opportunities in Alexandria. Having lived in Alexandria for the past 25 years, I’ve benefited greatly from everything that the city has to offer. My wife and I raised our two children in Alexandria and have had many happy memories of Old Town parades, Christmas tree lightings at City Hall, First Nights, and other activities promoted by the city. Years ago, before having children, I volunteered as a “Big Brother” in the Big Brothers Big Sisters of the National Capital Area program and taught English as a second language to immigrants at an Alexandria church. Now that our kids are grown up, I’d like to return to volunteering, and specifically, to give back to this city. I looked at the Alexandria website pertaining to volunteer boards and committees; the Sister Cities Committee resonated with me given the possibility of building relationships between Alexandria and other parts of the world. Having explored the world both professionally as well as for leisure, I understand the importance of such connections. Not only do these relationships benefit the cities economically, but they also bring us all a little bit closer. As noted on the city website, the committee “develops, encourages and promotes educational and cultural exchanges between the Cities of Dundee, Scotland; Helsingborg, Sweden; Caen, France; Gyumri, Armenia and the City of Alexandria; and coordinates activities within the City relating to these exchanges.” My work experiences in Japan, France, England, and Argentina have shown me the importance of connecting globally, building good will, partnerships and collaborations. Additionally, I attended the Olympics in Atlanta (1996), London (2012), and Paris (2024) and saw what good such events can have on the host cities as well as with the visiting country delegations. With my history of working with diverse teams at NASA, I believe that I could bring new ideas to the Sister Cities Committee. I can assure you that if I’m selected, I would be “all in” to support the committee however needed. Thank you for your consideration of my application.

B.S., Mechanical Engineering, 1984, State University of New York at Buffalo M.S., Engineering Administration, 1989, George Washington University Senior Executive Fellows Program, 2004, JFK School of Government, Harvard University NASA Senior Executive Service Candidate Development Program (2004-2006)

Summary of Work and Experience

Began career in 1984 with the Department of Navy testing solid rocket motor systems and aircrew escape systems. Transferred to NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center (GSFC) in 1987 with early work focused on expendable launch vehicles, including the successful Delta launches of the Mars Global Surveyor and Mars Pathfinder missions. Joined the Geostationary Operational Environmental Satellites (GOES) Program in 1997 as the Source Evaluation Board chairman, then became the Observatory Manager, and ultimately the Project Manager. Detailed to the Kennedy Space Center in 2005 to work on strategic planning initiatives and then a related detail at NASA Headquarters. In 2006, worked as a NASA Congressional Fellow in the office of U.S. Senator Bill Nelson. Returned to GSFC in October 2006 and became the Deputy Associate Director of the Earth Science Projects Division. Concurrently, was the Project Manager for a Mars Scout proposal effort, the Mars Atmosphere and Volatile Evolution (MAVEN) mission. With MAVEN's selection as NASA's next Mars Scout mission in 2008, became the full time Project Manager until its successful insertion into Mars orbit and the start of science operations in late 2014. Starting in 2015, became Goddard's Director of Flight Projects, with a portfolio of more than 80 missions, from small satellites to flagship missions such as the James Webb Space Telescope. Became Director of the Engineering and Technology Directorate (ETD) in 2021. By workforce size, ETD is the largest directorate in the Agency. In January 2022, became the Agency's first Chief Program Management Officer, reporting to the NASA Associate Administrator. From January 2023 to April 2023, temporarily returned to Goddard to be the Acting Center Director. Since December 2024, became the Associate Administrator for the Mission Support Directorate at NASA Headquarters, leading an organization with an annual budget in excess of $3B. In recent years, led or served on the following NASA boards and teams: Acquisition & Program/Project Management Tiger Team; Psyche Mission Independent Review Board; Risk Management Tiger Team; NASA 2040 Process Workstream Team; two separate Mars Sample Return review teams. Traveled domestically and internationally in support of the NASA mission (Europe, South America, Asia).

Statement of Interest
International partnerships has long been a strong personal and professional interest. In my career as a Librarian, I have served as co-chair of the American Library Association's Sister Libraries Committee, as well as a member of the International Connections Committee. I currently serve on the International Relations Roundtable's Executive Committee as Secretary/Treasurer, as well as a member of the UN SDG Liaison Committee, which allowed me the opportunity to be a delegate to the UN High Level Political Forum this past July in New York. During my time of Alexandria's Sister Cities Committee, I began two new Sister Library partnerships with our Sister City public libraries in Dundee, Scotland and Helsingborg, Sweden and co-host virtual programs for the public with these libraries on a regular basis. I would love to continue my work with the Sister Cities Committee and to continue building productive partnerships with our Sister Cities in the future.

Statement of Interest

I have an extensive background and a very strong interest in technological issues and natural systems in general, and in air, water, and natural resource protection in particular. In addition, both my professional career and my daily life have consistently included a strong focus on service to the natural world and to my community. As a recent example, I have been writing a weekly 2-page “Waterfront Watch” newsletter to educate friends and neighbors for over 5 years. I also have a keen sense of the importance of collaboration and teamwork for the success of advisory entities such as the Environmental Policy Commission (EPC). intensive and collaborative efforts of the EPC and T&ES staff in the formulation of Alexandria's 2040 Environmental Action Plan. I believe the EPC has played a critical role in moving Alexandria’s climate mitigation and adaptation efforts forward, most notably by supporting the city’s new Office of Climate Action. Ryan Freed is doing an outstanding service to Alexandria by leading that office, and I’d especially like to continue the productive collaboration between EPC and OCA as Alexandria continues to address its environmental and climate challenges. I was also honored to serve as Chair of the Planning Committee for Alexandria Earth Day events in both 2018 and 2019. In addition, I'm pleased to serve as the EPC representative Alexandria’s Waterfront Commission. Finally, I am pleased have helped the city formulate a common-sense plan for addressing erosion issues along the Taylor Run and Strawberry Run watersheds. I am very interested in continuing to contribute to the environmental and natural resource conservation causes of Alexandria and this region. While I am already active in a number of related areas, such as river cleanups, promoting safe bicycling among youth, and natural resource education efforts, I believe that I can continue to make valuable contributions to the Environmental Policy Commission’s efforts to provide sound and informed guidance on the full spectrum of environmental and resource protection issues facing our community and region. In particular, I want to support the very intensive actions that Alexandria will be undertaking to meet its climate mitigation and adaptation goals, especially through the collaborative efforts of the OCA, the EPC, the Planning Commission, and the public. Please see the attached resume for more information on my 40-year career in energy and environmental issues, as well as my interests and strengths relevant to serving on Alexandria’s Environmental Policy Commission.

New Applicant or Current Member

Current Member of This Board

How many terms have you served?

3 or more

What seat are you applying for? (Ex: citizen, architect, youth member, etc.)

Park Planning District II, my current seat

Do you currently live in the City of Alexandria? NOTE: If your answer is no, a residency waiver is required for positions that are not specific to an organization or profession.

Yes

How long have you lived in Alexandria?

31 years

Statement of Interest

I have enjoyed my time on the commission, am very active, and wish to continue for another term. I am a retired senior military officer, a lifelong boater, and current member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary. In this current role, I am interested in particular in flood and debris mitigation, and the connection between them. Not only will improvements in these areas help the health of our City and wildlife, but will at the same time aid local boaters and the Coast Guard by improving boating safety and, hopefully, reducing the number and severity of rescue and assist calls. I am a member of a consulting firm located on the waterfront in Old Town, so am interested that the maintenance of this area is done well and promotes our businesses. Of course, being a long-time resident of the Old Town area, I am very interested that the direction of future waterfront park and area improvements maintains our historic culture and health of our natural environment. I am very pleased with what has been done to date.

Have you ever served the City of Alexandria in any capacity?

Yes (Please explain), Member of the Waterfront Commission for 6 years

Have you ever attended a meeting of the Board or Commission for which you are applying?

Yes

Are you now paid by the City of Alexandria?

No

Do any of your immediate relatives or business associates now serve the City of Alexandria in any capacity?

No

Attendance Requirements: Sec. 2-4-7 of the City Code requires appointees to attend at least 75% of the yearly committee meetings. Absences may be excused because of personal illness or serious illness of members of the immediate family, death of a family member, unscheduled business trips and emergency work assignments only. All other absences are recorded as unexcused. In light of the aforementioned statement, will you be able to attend at least 75% of the regular meetings of the board which you may be appointed?

Yes

If applicable, will you comply with the provisions of the City's conflict of interest requirements in City Ordinance 2867 regarding the completion of a financial disclosure statement?

Yes

Educational Background

• M.S.S. (Masters of Strategic Studies), Air War College, Air University • M.M.O.A.S.
