Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

Dear Members of the Sister Cities Committee, I'm writing to share my genuine enthusiasm for the opportunity to serve as a citizen member of the Sister Cities Committee. Thank you for considering my application. After seven years of calling Alexandria home, I've grown deeply connected to this community and feel grateful for the sense of belonging it has given me. I'm truly inspired by the Committee's mission to foster meaningful educational and cultural exchanges between the Cities of Dundee, Scotland; Helsingborg, Sweden; and Alexandria. The opportunity to help build and strengthen these global relationships is one I would be honored to support. I am so proud of the many strengths and diverse community of our city, and welcoming others and showing how special truly makes my heart sing. Throughout my professional and volunteer experiences, I've been recognized for my collaborative approach and my commitment to creating respectful, inclusive environments. I enjoy bringing people together (across teams, groups, and perspectives) to ensure communication flows smoothly and everyone feels valued. Additionally, I am enthusiastic and friendly - I am energized by meeting new people and connecting with others. If selected as a board member, I would look forward to helping deepen our existing partnerships and exploring new ways to encourage connection, learning, and cultural celebration. I'm eager to contribute my organizational strengths, creativity, and inclusive leadership to help expand the Committee's impact on our community. Thank you again for your consideration. I would welcome the chance to discuss how my background, passion, and ideas align with the Committee's goals. I'm excited about the possibility of working alongside you to continue advancing this meaningful mission. Many thanks, Lindsay Gsell

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

Having lived in different parts of the world, I have seen firsthand how meaningful connections between people can shape individuals and strengthen entire communities. Experiencing different cultures, traditions, and ways of life has taught me that understanding grows not from distance, but from shared experiences, conversation, and collaboration. These experiences have shaped my appreciation for programs like Sister Cities, which create opportunities for communities to learn from one another and build lasting relationships across borders. I would welcome the opportunity to join your team and contribute to your mission.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I am interested in joining the Alexandria Sister Cities Committee because I value cultural understanding and the connections that form between communities. I have traveled to France and Scotland and have worked in Scandinavia, which gives me a real appreciation for this region of the world and for the partnerships Alexandria maintains. I also have some familiarity with Armenia through my mother's Peace Corps service there when I was in my late thirties. As a former protocol officer and cultural subject matter expert, I would welcome the opportunity to support the Committee's work.

Summary of Work and Experience

With a career rooted in connecting people, ideas, and process in human ways, I bring more than 20 years of experience designing programs, events, and engagements that help people understand one another and work well together. I have led strategic events, executive programs, and cross cultural engagements for global companies, associations, and law firms. My background includes serving as a Corporate Protocol Officer at Lockheed Martin, where I supported international visits and executive interactions that required cultural awareness, diplomacy, and thoughtful planning. Across my roles, I have managed conferences, leadership meetings, member programs, and mission driven initiatives that brought together diverse groups across industries and regions. My work has always centered on the experience of the people involved, making sure the purpose is clear, the environment is welcoming, and the interaction is meaningful. I have also worked closely with global teams and partners, which has strengthened my ability to navigate cultural nuance and represent organizations with professionalism and respect. My travel to France and Scotland, my work in Scandinavia, and my familiarity with Armenia through my mother's Peace Corps service have shaped my appreciation for the cultures connected to Alexandria's sister cities. The common thread in my work is building programs that reflect respect, community, and shared purpose, qualities that align well with the mission of the Sister Cities Committee.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I am seeking the opportunity to serve on the City of Alexandria's Sister City Commission because I am deeply committed to fostering international understanding, cultural exchange, and community engagement. Having grown up in Alexandria my entire life, I care deeply about this community and would value the opportunity to share that long-term perspective while helping strengthen its global connections. In addition, my professional background includes broad international relations experience across various government roles, giving me insight into cross-cultural collaboration, diplomacy, and global partnership-building. I would bring enthusiasm, thoughtful perspective, and a strong sense of responsibility to supporting existing sister city relationships and cultivating new opportunities for educational, cultural, and economic exchange. I am eager to contribute my skills and energy to a commission that enriches Alexandria through meaningful international engagement.

Educational Background

B.S. in Marketing, Hospitality, Entrepreneurship, and Tourism with a minor in American Sign Language Masters in Business Administration Both degrees awarded by the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. During my education I also studied abroad in Czechia and at the University of Strathclyde in Glasgow, Scotland. I hold a certificate from SDA Bocconi School of Management in Milan, Italy.

Summary of Work and Experience

I have worked both in non-profit and for-profit industries. I recently started a position at American Clean Power Association as Manager of Events Business Development. Before that I worked for 5 years at Prysmian, a cable manufacturer, there I worked first in Lexington, SC at a telecom cable factory working across functions to support quality, on time delivery, and training. Then I moved overseas to our Milan, Italy headquarters where I worked with Electric Vehicle Charging cables globally (primarily focusing on US, German, and Chinese markets) and was Partnership Manager for Andretti Formula E events. I held that role for 3 years managing events across 8 countries and for over 3000 participants. At the end of 2024 I returned to the US and worked for Prysmian as a Technology Specialist in the Electric Utility space where I helped to develop new technologies and sell solutions to utilities to improve electric grid performance and increase the life cycle of existing infrastructure.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

As a proud Alexandria resident and someone who has spent her career building bridges across cultures — from coordinating diplomatic delegations to the UAE, to serving as a communications officer on the ground in African and Caribbean countries following humanitarian crises, to studying language and art in Paris — I am deeply passionate about the power of international connection to foster understanding and goodwill. My lifelong love of travel has taken me across Africa, the Middle East, Europe, and the Caribbean, experiences that have shaped not only my worldview but my professional approach to storytelling and relationship-building. With more than 25 years in strategic communications, including roles at the U.S. State Department, The White House, and in international development, I bring both the interpersonal skills and the cross-cultural sensitivity that Sister Cities work demands. I would be honored to bring this experience, along with my genuine enthusiasm for cultural exchange, to the Alexandria City Sister Cities Commission and help deepen the meaningful connections our city shares with communities around the world.

I am eager to serve on the Alexandria Sister Cities Committee as both my professional background and personal interests may be of use to the Committee. My career has been grounded in building connections across cultures and communities, and the ability to utilize cross cultural dialogue as a diplomatic lever. At the Smithsonian's Center for Folklife and Cultural Heritage, I worked to elevate living cultural traditions and foster dialogue among artists, scholars, and communities from around the world. In this capacity, I specifically supported artisans in Georgia and Armenia to create cultural tourism experiences. I also led the charge to secure $22M from the Lilly Endowment to support the Smithsonian's 250th Semiquincentennial activities. As the U.S. Director for the American Research Center in Egypt, I collaborated closely with Egyptian partners to support scholarship, preservation, and cross-border engagement. These experiences strengthened my belief that sustained people-to-people exchange is one of the most important tools we have to bridge divides and cultivate lasting international relationships. Having spent my professional life advancing institutions dedicated to culture, education, and international collaboration, I am excited by the opportunity to apply those skills locally. Serving on the Sister Cities Committee would allow me to give back to my city by fostering international partnerships that enrich our community, deepen cross-cultural understanding, and reflect the inclusive, outward-looking spirit of Alexandria.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

Dear Committee, I am writing to express my interest in serving on Alexandria's Sister Cities Committee. I want to join the Sister Cities Committee to help build and strengthen the connections that make Alexandria vibrant, engaged, and welcoming to all. I am eager to engage with and give back to the community by serving on this committee; one that I believe plays an important role in creating opportunities for residents and beyond to engage with our neighbors across the world. Cultural exchange has played an important role in both my personal and professional life. I have personally benefitted from international exchanges and spent time in Prague, Czech Republic; Buenos Aires, Argentina; and Sydney, Australia. Meeting other students whilst abroad, touring local businesses, and being immersed in their customs broadened by global perspective and reinforced my belief in the power of cross-cultural engagement. As a Human Resources professional, I have had the privilege of partnering closely with individuals and teams from across the globe. In my role, developing strong cultural understandings have been essential to my ability to build, maintain, and deepen my connection with coworkers in the UK and Germany. I also have experience in planning and coordinating events that range from receptions and trainings to conferences. My personal and professional experiences has given me a strong foundation in relationship building, facilitation, and cross-cultural communication, which I believe will benefit the committee and support its values of deepening international ties and cultural understanding. I enjoy learning about other cultures, sharing that knowledge with others, and creating meaningful connections by bringing people together. By joining the Sister Cities Committee, I look forward to exploring how I can partner with the other committee members to enrich Alexandria through even stronger partnerships. Thank you for considering my application. Sincerely, Ashley Scheller

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I am keen to serve on the Sister Cities Committee by helping to identify and develop ways to strengthen Alexandria's relationship with the cities of Dundee, Helsingborg, Caen, and Gyumri, especially via activities that productively and congenially engage Alexandrians with their overseas counterparts. My previous work experience includes four years working in Singapore, one of the world's biggest trading centers, as a newspaper and magazine editor. This work required me to engage regularly with leaders in Singapore's vast international business community. One takeaway from my experience is that cultural differences among nationalities are often overstated. We have much in common with each other, especially shared civic values and goals. We also can and should seek to learn from each other. I recently moved to Old Town to begin my retirement. I have lived in Alexandria twice before. I also have lived in Washington, D.C., Singapore, and Indianapolis, but Alexandria is truly my home. I believe in public service and supporting my community, and I hope to serve Alexandria by actively volunteering with the Sister Cities Committee. Thank you for your consideration.

Summary of Work and Experience

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE U.S. Consumer Financial Protection Bureau – Washington, D.C. September 2015 – September 2025 As a Program Manager in the Office of Markets in the Research, Monitoring, and Regulations Division, I served as the Bureau's subject matter expert for the student lending market – the nation's second largest consumer credit market. Led development and delivery of market intelligence products, including briefing papers, chartbooks, and data analyses, to inform Bureau stakeholders about key developments and trends in student lending and servicing, with focus on identifying ongoing or potential consumer harms. Supervised and reviewed work of analysts and other staff assigned to help monitor the student lending markets, providing strategic direction. United Student Aid Funds, Inc. – Indianapolis, Indiana October 2012 – September 2015 As Senior Program Manager in the National Engagement & Philanthropy division, I managed consumer- and policy-focused information services and philanthropic programs designed to promote college access and completion, including the development of content and social media support for the corporate website. (USA Funds is now known as Strada Education Foundation.) Independent Consultant – Indianapolis, Indiana March 2011 – December 2013 Consulting services focused on providing marketing communications and managing product development initiatives, including content/blog development for new websites and creation of interactive counseling resources. Consulting work also included project planning (deliverables, milestones, client reviews). Sallie Mae – Indianapolis, Indiana August 2000 - December 2010 Led product development and marketing strategy initiatives, including new loan products and enhancements to existing multi-billion-dollar federal and private student loan products, direct mail and email marketing campaigns, a competitive intelligence database, and online borrower-counseling resources. Frequently served as company spokesperson/expert on repayment strategies and sound credit practices at industry forums and in interviews with national, regional, and local news media. Held a series of management positions, including Vice President – Student Loan Market. USA Group, Inc. – Indianapolis, Indiana January 1994 – July 2000 Managed product design and marketing strategy for student loan products, including private loans and product enhancements for Federal Consolidation loans. Developed private loan programs for students attending post-secondary institutions. Supervised dedicated consolidation call center. Drafted briefing papers on major policy issues facing student financial aid and conducted original research on student loan trends. Served as resident expert on interactive information resources such as loan repayment calculators and student loan counseling software. Developed wide range of borrower counseling resources. Authored white papers on federal student loan program policy issues. Held a series of management positions, including Director of Policy Research and Consumer Issues and Director – Consumer Product Development. Hudson Institute – Indianapolis, Indiana February 1992 – January 1994 Charted marketing and public affairs strategy and supervised all phases of production of monthly briefing papers, quarterly newsletter, annual report, and other publications published by Hudson, a national policy research organization focused on economic security, education, and national security. Coordinated seminars, briefings, and conferences for policymakers, Hudson's financial contributors, and the news media. Served as chief administrative officer of internationally known think tank. Managed fundraising, communications, and publishing activities as well as day-to-day administrative functions. Singapore Press Holdings – Republic of Singapore July 1987 – August 1991 As Executive Editor of Singapore Business, I held responsibility for all editorial content in 120-page, monthly magazine; duties included assigning and editing articles and managing all phases of production. In addition, I served as a features editor and as a financial editor for the Business Times, Singapore's daily business newspaper. Editing duties for the newspaper included assigning news and feature stories, editing those stories, managing the editorial page, and writing editorials. U.S. News & World Report – Washington, D.C. April 1977 – June 1987 As Associate Editor, my duties included identifying, reporting, and writing business articles for national, weekly news magazine. Areas of coverage included banking and finance, consumer finance, and financial regulation. Entities covered: the Federal Reserve, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Comptroller of the Currency, and U.S. Treasury Department; the banking industry; the capital markets; and consumer financial services.

How long have you lived in Alexandria?

I moved to Alexandria in December 2022, so just over three years.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I am interested in serving on the Sister Cities Committee for two reasons. First, I think that international exchange and cross-cultural bonds are deeply enriching at both personal and community levels and I'd love to help facilitate such bonds. Second, I fully admit that I have no experience with participating in government directly and this seems like a great way to practice being an involved citizen beyond the basics of voting and social decency. I think that Alexandria is a fantastic community and would enjoy the opportunity to learn from similarly amazing communities elsewhere and to share what makes Alexandria so special.

Statement of Interest (Do not include personal information such as phone numbers, addresses, emails, etc.)

I am excited to apply for the steering committee of Alexandria's sister-city program. In today's world, cross-cultural collaboration is more crucial than ever. I have seen firsthand the power of international partnerships in my own work, where I collaborate with colleagues from diverse backgrounds and countries. With the majority of my colleagues born abroad, I've learned to appreciate the value of diverse perspectives and the strength that comes from working together towards a common goal. I believe that Alexandria's sister-city program has the potential to foster meaningful connections and drive positive change, and I would be honored to be a part of it.
