Less than 1 year

Statement of Interest
After over a decade in the DMV and a brief time in Maine with my extended family, my family and I have recently settled in Alexandria, where we are eager to grow our roots and contribute to the community. I was excited to see a position open on the Sister Cities Committee, as it aligns with my passion for fostering international connections and community engagement. My professional and academic experiences reflect a deep love for cultural exchanges, which I firmly believe are vital to promoting global understanding and advancing a more peaceful world—an ideal championed by President Eisenhower through the People-to-People program. Although new to the city, I bring over a decade of experience in project management, digital strategy, and training within the federal space. Coupled with my commitment to citizen diplomacy, these skills position me to meaningfully support the committee’s mission of promoting global connections and mutual understanding. I appreciate your consideration of my application. I would love to utilize my expertise and passion to help solidify Alexandria’s role as a leader in international engagement and cross-cultural collaboration.
