Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

Service is a central part of a successful community. I think my experience as both a practicing artist and an arts professional and administrator in the federal government is a good fit for the Alexandria Commission for the Arts. I think that my experience in a variety of art media, art preservation, grants review and management, and arts programming aligns with the duties and mission of the commission. My experience includes a BFA, an MA and PhD in fine art conservation with treatment experience in multiple materials, exhibitions in mixed media and photography including a named archive at the Smithsonian Institution (SI) and a monograph (published by SI) of my photography, and repeated service on arts grant review panels for multiple federal agencies. I am also the Program Official/PI for several Interagency Agreements between the Smithsonian, the U.S. Department of State, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, and the U.S. Department of Justice for cultural heritage training for federal law enforcement tasked with fighting looting and trafficking of cultural heritage around the world. I am used to handling sensitive information and relationships, and I am familiar with organizing, reporting, and presenting information to different audiences based on access restrictions and legal concerns. The arts are how we live and record the human experience; the arts enrich our lives. I am so happy to see the City of Alexandria promote and support the arts and I would like to help with that effort.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

The arts have been a personal interest and passion of mine for as long as I can remember. I am not an artist or performer, but I am active consumer of the arts and love nothing more than attending museums and cultural events here in Alexandria and when I travel to new cities. I also believe that arts contribute to a community in numerous ways, from providing a sense of vibrancy to encouraging economic growth and development to creating a sense of community identity. Alexandria is a thriving, evolving community and has a great track record in supporting artists and cultural matters but should be proactive in strengthening access to the arts and keeping up with changing demographic trends among our residents and visitors. I would be honored to be part of the Alexandria Commission for the Arts to participate in the discussions and decisions that have the potential to affect the cultural landscape of our unique city.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

I have lived in the City of Alexandria for over twenty years and enjoy sharing my time, talents and passion to make this the best city of live in. Prior to having children I served in numerous volunteer roles-- Commissioner with the Commission on Aging and member of the Board of Directors for Senior Services of Alexandria--to name a few. Once I had children I devoted my extra time to serving in officer roles on their respective school PTAs. I am also the parent of a disabled child which is why I am applying to the Commission on Persons with Disabilities.. I would like to represent all persons with a disability in our city and work to ensure we offer them a comprehensive array of services and supports to help them live in our great city.

SUMMARY OF WORK AND PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE (Please list titles and duties for the past five years):

I have served in leadership roles in the nonprofit sector for the majority of my career. Specifically my expertise is in the areas of membership, member services, marketing and communications, volunteer engagement and management, leadership development, and strategic planning. I started as Vice President for Membership, Member Services, and Marketing for the Business Group on Health in July 2021. Prior to that I was Vice President of Membership for AAMI, an association that develops global standards for medical devices. In addition, as the parent of a disabled child, I am adroit at understanding and navigating the legal, social, educational and financial challenges that persons with disabilities must address.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

As a resident of Old Town North in the Parker-Gray Historic District, I am amazed by the history that surrounds the neighborhood and what has been preserved. Although the city has continued to grow and progress, challenges still remain for our most vulnerable citizens and I look forward to listening and collaborating with my fellow board members to bring innovative solutions to the City of Alexandria. The COVID-19 pandemic has exacerbated issues that contribute to poverty and the lack of a social safety net, this board has the unique capacity to bring forth solutions to City Council to ensure we live up to the promise of being a more inclusive and supportive community for all citizens. The opportunity to contribute, serve and learn was something I could not pass up.

I previously served in two different capacities on the GWBCC, social media/marketing specialist and co-chair of the Cherry Challenge restaurant competition. In those roles, I have more successfully used technology to spread the word about the organization and worked to find ways to promote celebrating George Washington outside of the parade and related events. Our Cherry Challenge continues to be successful and generate tens of thousands of sales in local restaurants, and our online analytics have increased (since 2017) by 55% (for unique website visitors), 27.5% (pageviews), 43% (FB likes), 257% (FB lifetime post total impressions), 809% (FB lifetime engaged users), 223% (Twitter impressions), and 6% (Twitter followers). I also bring extensive knowledge of nonprofit management and work in a "friends of" fundraising committee role.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

As the Chair of the Alexandria Archaeology Commission, I believe it is critical to have a strong and collaborative working relationship with other City commissions and boards that focus on historic and preservation efforts for Alexandria. As the stewards of the City's archaeological artifacts, including the ship timbers, it is the goal of the Alexandria Archaeology Commission to interpret and exhibit the artifacts in the most compelling and innovative manner. This is becoming increasingly critical with the return in the next few years of the conserved ship hull discovered at the Hotel Indigo site in 2018. This can best be achieved with consensus and input from sister organizations. After having served on the Historic Alexandria Resources Commission for the past two years, I am increasingly aware of the need for collaboration and identifying the key challenges facing the preservation community for the Commission to be effective. I look forward to serving another term to address some of the key issues currently discussed, ranging from the future of the Torpedo Factory to the successful opening of the Freedom House.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

My interest in being the Lee-Fendall House's representative for the Historic Alexandria Resources Commission stems from my love of Alexandria's unique history and regard for its safekeeping. I believe that being a representative for the commission would enable me to become a better informed advocate for preserving Alexandria's historic treasures, as well as a liaison between the museums and the public. Additionally, since the Lee-Fendall House is a private museum, being a part of HARC allows me to learn about what issues other museums are facing and how we can work together on various collaborations.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

Integrity, accountability, and compassion are traits that nurture successful relationships. As a property management professional at one of the largest apartment communities in Alexandria, I understand the value of maintaining positive tenant-landlord relationships. And, I recognize the importance of having policies in place to protect and enhance those relationships. I believe serving on this board will enable me to optimally serve my residents and all residents of Alexandria City. I am dedicated to serving with excellence. This dedication derives from my genuine love and compassion for people. When a person takes the time to intently listen to another's complaints and grievances, it is an invaluable experience. Even more valuable is when that person is empowered to conciliate and present solutions for those grievances and complaints. This is what excellence looks like to me—taking action to create positive results for others. My personal constitution of character, commitment to community service, and growing expertise in property management will make me a great asset to the Board of Landlord-Tenant Relations.
