

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the autism spectrum is a neurological difference which can cause significant social, communication and behavioral challenges; and

WHEREAS, early identification and the resulting appropriate education and intervention are vital to the future growth and development of persons living with conditions emanating from this complex developmental condition; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations has designated April 2 as World Autism Awareness Day; and

WHEREAS, the annual observance of Autism Awareness Month in the United States promotes the rights and education of all autistic individuals, while helping families, professionals and the general public to understand their unique challenges.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JUSTIN M. WILSON, Mayor of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, and on behalf of the Alexandria City Council, do hereby proclaim the month of April 2022 to be:

“AUTISM AWARENESS MONTH”

Throughout the City, and I call this observance to the attention of all our citizens, and I encourage all Alexandrians to work together to ensure that autistic individuals enjoy equal access to vital programs and services, and are also able to share the quality of life we seek for all residents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Alexandria to be affixed this fifth day of April, 2022.

MAYOR JUSTIN M. WILSON

On behalf of the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia

ATTEST:

Gloria A. Sitton, CMC City Clerk
