Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

I am a health care professional (occupational therapist and health administrator) and assistant professor who is committed to social justice through working with marginalized, minoritized, and stigmatized populations. I am a creative problem solver who is interested in making a difference in peoples' lives. I am especially interested in community initiatives/program development related to court alternatives and diversion programs. I believe people, for the most part, are inherently good and do not harbor ill intent. Unfortunately, many times people in the criminal justice system have experienced various life circumstances where they make poor decisions based upon their perceived options. Understanding the full picture of why an offender offends is important--especially considering the significant role education, health & well-being, housing, food security, etc play in many of these decisions. With my background and passion, I believe I can play an important role on this board.

For the past 5 years I have been employed as an Assistant Professor of Occupational Therapy (OT) for two different OT programs (Creighton University & George Washington University) For Creighton University, I was the Director of Clinical Education--placing students in clinical placements. I taught neuro-occupation, management, and professional development and ethics, mentored students with research, and did community outreach with a local middle school for exposing socioeconomically disadvantaged students to health care careers. For George Washington University, I have been developing a new OTD program--so I have played an integral role in program and curricular development for the program. As the program commences this fall, I will be teaching, placing students in clinical placements, and I serve the program as the Service Learning Coordinator. Prior to teaching, I worked for 16 months as a Hospice Director with a home-based hospice team and a 9-bed hospice house.

Interests & Experiences

During law school, I was involved in Georgetown Law's curriculum B, which studied the intersections of law, culture, and policy. I also completed internships at the Nashville District Attorney's Office, the DC Office of the Attorney General, the DC US Attorney's Office, and provided legal aid with Whitman Walker, Catholic Charities of DC and, Legal Aid of Middle Tennessee. Through these experiences, I saw firsthand the difficulties experienced by those convicted of crimes in completing their sentences due the many impediments and restrictions placed upon them by the criminal justice system. This caused me to become a firm believer in alternative forms of sentencing and diversion programs so that those convicted of crimes could remain members of society, rather than becoming second class citizens. Access to public transit, employment discrimination, childcare, and affordable housing and healthcare all play a far more significant role in the root causes of crime than some sense of fear of punishment.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

I believe I would bring a wealth of valuable experience and insights to the Board. Specifically, I have served as both a federal and state public defender, former staff attorney for the U.S. Sentencing Commission, and I currently work at a national nonprofit litigating on behalf of immigrants and their communities. These positions have given me in-depth experience with both the people who become involved with the criminal justice system and the various entities with which they interact. My roles have instilled in me a particular concern for the value of each individual and ensuring that the "justice" part of the criminal justice phrase is not forgotten.

January 2019 - present: Staff Attorney at National Immigration Law Center. In this position I have filed and litigated significant federal lawsuits across the United States on behalf of immigrants and their communities. I have taken a particular interest in the intersection of immigration and criminal law, spearheading my office's filing of briefs against discriminatory enforcement statutes. May 2017-December 2018: Staff Attorney at U.S. Sentencing Commission. In this position, I assisted the Sentencing Commission--which was then evenly divided between Democratic and Republican commissioners--in reaching policy determinations to amend the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines Manual. 2015-May 2017. Assistant Public Defender for the Office of the Public Defender for Maryland. In this position I represented individuals charged with serious felonies in the Circuit Court for Prince George's County Maryland. August 2012-2015. In this position I represented individuals charged with federal offenses in the federal trial and appellate courts.
