I have worked in information technology, specifically information security for over seven years in both government and commercial capacities. I am excited about the opportunity to give back to the great city of Alexandria and advise our lawmakers on technical and policy matters to address the needs of the community. I am an experienced project manager, capable of explaining complex technical problems and solutions into easily understandable concepts. I believe this commission has a responsibility to the citizens of Alexandria to enact and enable good, common sense changes to our technology policy.
