Interests & Experiences

My past work on the Alexandria City School Board sparked my interest in budget and finance policy for both the city and schools. Currently, I am interested in helping our city to focus on the future and rebuild after this pandemic has challenged some of our city's long-term plans. I have had a variety of experience in the past working with the city's long-term plans, goals for infrastructure, and the growth of social equity plans. During my six years on the School Board, four of which I was School Board Chair, I participated in:

- overseeing six years of annual School Board operating and capital budgets
- starting a Budget Advisory Committee to advise the School Board
- strengthening the relationship between BAC and BFAAC
- analyzing and rewriting all the finance policies with my School Board colleagues
- serving on the Long Range Educational Facilities Plan Work Group

Due to this involvement, I will be able to jump in and get started without a large learning curve. Along with my knowledge of the annual budgets, I can contribute my experience by helping to reform and reprioritize the next ten to twenty years because of my familiarity with several past versions of capital long-term plans. While I had been in a position of working with the numbers of budgets, I understand that the main job of BFAAC is to help Council set a philosophy for the annual operating and capital budgets and advise on improvements for budget procedures and processes. I am experienced at understanding the tough trade-offs in budgeting for a city. With that understanding, I can help craft reports for Council using innovative ideas for capturing as many of the city's long-term and short-term priorities as possible. I am interested in having the opportunity to be a contributor to the work of the City Council and the City Manager as our city repositions itself post-pandemic to move into the future. I hope you will consider my application for the Citizen-at-large position on BFAAC.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

I have years of budgetary and fiscal experience from across various government positions. From working with Appropriations on Capitol Hill, to my current position of writing policy and managing the Department of Defense's $1.5B account for international security cooperation programs. I believe what makes me a good budgetary professional is my ability to not only dictate funds, but to follow and monitor the execution of funds to ensure it goes to the intended project or program, and to constantly assess and evaluate the programs to ensure the taxpayer is receiving the highest quality of service. Another attribute is my aptitude of fiscal responsibility to accurately gauge the amount of funds you're allotted to ensure you can properly and effectively create a plan. Programs and projects are constantly changing, and a good spend plan will always allow you to be transparent when moving funds around, and also how the list of priorities through any budget. Budgetary and Fiscal issues are the lifeblood of any government, business, and personal success. I fully understand the importance of how the money is spent, how it's collected, and the overall affect it should have on its citizens. Funds should be used as a tool to ensure every citizen has the same opportunity to excel within the City of Alexandria, improve the areas we live, and improve the lives of the citizens within.

Interests & Experiences

I truly believe in the power and importance of public service. I have dedicated a majority of my professional career to public service through roles at both the State and Federal levels. In these roles I served as an Accountant and Auditor; both capacities provided extensive experience in analyzing financial statements and records. Currently, I work as an Audit Manager for the U.S. Department of The Treasury, Office of Inspector General. In this role I regularly contribute to the development of my directorates annual budget request. I also engage with other members of the Federal Government community to ensure audit activities meet the expectations of congressional mandates and support my agency's mission. Outside of my professional role, I am currently a member of the Alexandria City Academy's Fall 2022 cohort. During my time with the academy I developed a strong appreciation for the city of Alexandria's efforts to engage and support its citizens. Since joining the Academy, I signed up to serve as an elections officer for the November 8, 2022 election, attended a City Council Meeting, and attended the Budget and Fiscal Affairs Advisory Committee's October meeting. I believe my professional knowledge and experience, commitment to public service, and current engagement with the city, qualify me as a viable candidate for the Budget and Fiscal Affairs Advisory Committee. If appointed, I am dedicated to using my skills to advance the committee.
