I have been on the Alexandria-Caen Sister City Committee since 2015. If reappointed, this coming term will be my last one due to term limits. I have supported our speaker series, Beaujolais, and other programs, and have been the lead organizer of our D-Day Commemoration Program since 2016. Along with Mayor Wilson, I represented Alexandria at the 75th anniversary of D-Day in Caen in 2019. We are now preparing our commemoration for this June, and 2024 will be a major program as it will be the 80th anniversary.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

I am beginning to plan the 2023 D-Day Commemoration and wish to follow that project to completion. If reappointed, I will also be able to help plan the 80th anniversary program for 2024. I also want to transition the D-Day program to newer members before I step down. Beyond D-Day programming, I also want to continue assisting our committee with other projects in 2023-2025

I feel I have provided successful leadership in building the D-Day program and would like to continue working on it. I also would like to transition that program to other committee members before I depart. Finally, I believe my experience at one major anniversary (the 75th) will be useful as we plan a program for the next major anniversary -- the 80th, in 2024. I also look forward to work with our current leadership to further build our contacts with the members of our counterpart committee in Caen,

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

Since my recent retirement from the corporate world, I have a desire (and the time) to become more involved with Alexandria's activities and the mission of the Alexandria-Caen Sister City committee piqued my interest. I enjoy collaborating and committee work allows one to focus on the goals of the relationship. I've had the opportunity to connect and collaborate with other nonprofit work (AIAA and NASA, DEI for Aviation Week, Women in Aerospace) across the aerospace industry which has allowed me to expand my personal knowledge and professional development. I'm interested in the sister city committee role because I view it as an opportunity to expand viewpoints and pave the way for fulfilling experiences, to celebrate the uniqueness of Alexandria and Caen to a broader audience.

I was an exchange student for a year in high school located in Nagoya, Japan. Nagoya was sister city to Los Angeles.
