I retired in January 2014 as a Senior Executive within the Federal Government. My federal career spanning 35 years involved managing people, programs, projects and budgets. My last position was as the Deputy Budget Director for the US Department of Homeland Security. Throughout my tenure with the Federal Government, I served in high level budget/federal financial management positions in the Department of Defense, Department of Energy, White House and the Department of Homeland Security. I led the development, formulation, justification and defense of budgets involving billions of dollars at the Department level within the Federal Government. This involved working closely with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and the Congressional Appropriations Committees to obtain funding for a whole host of Federal programs. I also oversaw the execution of various budgets/programs and took required actions to realign funds when necessary. I held a Top Secret/SCI security clearance.
