Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

Around the world, the rights of children and youth are often not respected, and young people have little input on the issues and policies that affect them, so as a youth representative, I'll make an effort to advocate and support Alexandria Youth and children through Children, Youth, And Families Collaborative Commission. I believe that being a voice for representing youth, children and families who can not speak up for themselves makes a difference in their lives, and I'm fond of making that difference and impact on their lives. Additionally, I'm a good candidate for this position because I'm dedicated and trustworthy and fully prepared to put my utmost effort into fulfilling my duties and bringing new skills and ideas to the table. Along with this, I would like to pursue the passion that I have for my community and people and can assist them in different ways.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

Over the past decade I have become very familiar with the life challenges facing persons with disabilities, as I have a 14-year-old daughter and an uncle (now deceased) with Fragile X Syndrome. I experience these challenges with the context of also having a 17-year-old neurotypical daughter, so the differences in how every life experience plays out for each of my children are starkly contrasted for our family every day. Through advocating for my younger daughter and my uncle (who worked for the USPS in Alexandria for 40 years!), I have become passionate about finding ways to improve inclusion in our communities, starting with compassion and understanding; I have also learned the power of community and how it truly "takes a village" of families and caregivers of children and adults with disabilities to help one another navigate systems and resources in order to provide an acceptable quality of life for our family members. At Maury (now Brooks) elementary school, I founded the Special Ed Parent Network to provide a space for parents to come together to discuss and problem solve issues related to their children's IEPs and school experiences, to advocate for and support teachers in differentiated learning, and to plan events to increase student's, parent's, and staff's understanding of people with disabilities (especially invisible disabilities like ADHD and dyslexia). For example, one year during Special Education Awareness month (October), we developed a series of short bios of famous people with disabilities, which were read each morning on the announcements. We also helped the school librarian curate a display of books that highlight people with disabilities, and during that process discovered that there were very few books in the school collection to choose from. The Special Ed Parent group then compiled a list of recommended books, and the librarian was able to use that list to obtain a grant to purchase the books to update the school's collection. I would love to bring my in-the-trenches experiences navigating school and community services for my daughter and uncle to the Commission to help the City in its efforts to be a leader in inclusivity for all residents.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

As a veteran, Alexandria resident, and lifelong Virginian, I have great pride in our shared history with George Washington and the legacy he left on the world. The George Washington Birthday celebrations in Alexandria are a unique and exciting way to celebrate the impact George Washington made in our city and across the world, it would be an honor to serve towards making the GWBC a success. I've also helped plan several large events for nonprofits in my career and think my planning skills would be useful for the committee.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

I have an abiding interest in public service and would like to contribute to the betterment of the City of Alexandria as I plan on staying long-term. I should be appointed to the Sister Cities Committee in particular because that would leverage several of my strengths: foreign cultural experience (military exercises and delegations abroad), large project/event cost vs benefit evaluation (air shows, family days), and [potentially -- I don't know how heated these Board and Committee meetings get] reasoned debate and building consensus (military lawyering in general). I would also simply like to meet other local citizens who hold enough of an interest in municipal activities to donate this kind of time and effort to making them possible.

Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

I am deeply interested and invested in Alexandria. My husband and I, who have lived in four city neighborhoods since 1994, have raised our three children here (they all attended ACPS for their entire K-12 education). I have worked with many Arlandria organizations through Girl Scouts, ACPS/PTA entities and currently as an adult ELL instructor. I'm a former Washington Post reporter and a former chief of staff to Congressman Don Beyer. I'm also a former board member of Guest House. I would like to be part of the Social Services Board in order to continue to be an active member of the community and to help, such as I can, to help with these vital efforts and programs.
