Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

Architecture and construction have been a major part of my career and interest. As President of an international General Contractor, I have led projects across the United States including the United States, including being part of the team to update the historic GM Warren Technical Center, which was designed by Eero Saarinen. Have done restorations as well as overbuild developments on historic properties in Philadelphia. I believe I bring passion and experience that can benefit the committee.
