Interests & Experiences

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

As a new citizen of Alexandria and a recent graduate of City Academy, I have a deep appreciation for the people that make Alexandria successful and am eager to get engaged in the community that I now consider my home. I am passionate about the work of the Commission for Women because I believe in impactful programs, policy, and services that benefit female Alexandrians. It is my desire to be part of a team that fosters this kind of investment in intentional advocacy to eliminate discrimination because of sex. I have dedicated my career – first in higher education and now on a Virginia State Senate campaign – to amplifying the voices of women. With efforts in neighboring cities and states to undermine the autonomy of women, continuing the fight for a dynamic and representative community right here in Alexandria is more important than ever.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

I've been committed to improving the way women are treated for many years. In fact, my professional responsibilities included working to prevent financial institutions from carrying out unfair, deceptive, or abusive practices, and ensuring that they complied with the federal civil rights requirements that apply to lending. Among other things, these requirements prohibit discrimination based on gender, marital status, or the receipt of public assistance. Consequently, as a federal attorney and policymaker, I oversaw programs intended to address lending discrimination and other practices that hold women back. Later, as a consultant, I advised financial services firms about how to avoid practices that caused this kind of harm. In both capacities, I also worked to ensure that firms designed and managed their operations to reduce the risk that such practices would recur. Most recently, I have been an energetic volunteer for both Virginia Democracy Forward, a local grassroots group that supports progressive issues and candidates in Virginia, and the Virginia Grassroots Coalition, a larger alliance of grassroots groups. Through my work on behalf of both groups, I have helped raise awareness of concerns that relate to women and families. With this background, I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to collaborate on programs that address the needs of Alexandria women, raise awareness about the issues that they face, and foster governmental policies that support them. If appointed, I would be honored to join the Alexandria Commission for Women.

SUMMARY OF WORK AND PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE (Please list titles and duties for the past five years):

As my resume explains, I had an extensive career in federal public service before I became a consultant in 2016. I continue to be committed to civic activities as a volunteer. Over the last seven years, I have worked on behalf of both the Virginia Grassroots Coalition, an alliance of 200 groups that support progressive issues and candidates in Virginia, and Virginia Democracy Forward, a local group that advances democratic values and helps elect exceptional Democratic candidates. With these groups, I have taken part in Virginia legislative initiatives, raised awareness of social issues - including reproductive rights and other critically important matters for women - and actively worked to elect progressive candidates. My most recent professional experience involved working as a Senior Advisor to TRELIANT LLC from 2016 to 2022, when I retired. Treliaant is a consulting partner to the global financial industry. As a Senior Advisor, I used my deep knowledge of the federal consumer protection requirements applicable to financial services to advise firms on compliance risks and how to address them. Among other things, my work with clients included providing insight into how the federal banking agencies approach potential unfair, deceptive, or abusive practices, and alerting firms to compliance risks related to the federal prohibition against lending discrimination, including discrimination against women. An important focus of my work was helping firms design and maintain compliant programs. Both my volunteer and professional work have provided me with insight into the bias that women face, and the operational and legal challenges associate with addressing it. If appointed, I would employ this insight into developing and carrying out the programs sponsored by the Commission.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

My career has been a part of the movement to ensure quality access to education both nationwide and around the world. Working in various communities, I have learned that in order to truly transform our communities, women must be engaged in the change process. I have a strong desire to become involved in the Alexandria community since I am a new mom who continues to observe the impact that can be made when women have advocates for their needs. Serving on the Commission for Women would be an incredible opportunity to combine my love for ensuring the success of all community members with my passion for collaborating with adults to foster change.
