Honorable Mayor Euille and Members of City Council.

I have applied for another term as a Commissioner on the Northern Virginia Juvenile Detention Commission representing the City of Alexandria.

I have worked very hard on the Commission in recent years and continue to assist in many projects, especially on matters of the budget and the regional agreement. I would like to continue that work for another term partnering with the participating jurisdictions and our new Executive Director. My past experience as Director of Court Services helps me to contribute in a unique way by acquainting the staff and my colleague Commission members to the workings of Alexandria City government and the staff and Alexandria budget process.

I hope I can count on your support for my reappointment to the Northern Virginia Juvenile Detention Commission.

Please feel free to contact me at Lillian.b.brooks@gmail.com if you have any questions or want to discuss this with me further.

Thank you.

Lillian Brooks. Esq.

Subject: Lillian Brooks

Good evening, Jackie.

Ms. Lillian Brooks, former Director of the Alexandria CSU and member of the Northern VA Regional Commission, approached me about writing a letter of recommendation on her behalf for her reapplication to the Commission.

I am away but am hoping this note will serve to support Ms. Brooks' application.

I have known Ms. Brooks for close to 20 years and fully support her application to continue as a member of the Commission. She spent her career supporting, creating and overseeing the improvement of youth services within our community as Director and I know her presence on the Commission or any board will be of great help.

Sincerely,

Mike Mackey
