Dear Ms. Sitton,

I enjoyed speaking with you this morning. I am the author of a Petition to Rename Jefferson Davis Memorial Highway in Virginia which has collected over 4,000 signatures many of which are from residents of the City of Alexandria.

I read in today's Washington Post that the Alexandria City Council will be discussing a proposal to rename Jefferson Davis Memorial Highway as well as the future of other Confederate memorials including numerous street and school names. Please add our petition to the record for the Council meeting tonight when this agenda item is discussed.

I have attached for the Mayor and the Council the petition signatures as well comments made by the petitioners. Below is the url for the online petition which should also be included in the record.

<https://www.change.org/p/terry-mcauliffe-virginia-general-assembly-commonwealth-transportation-board-stop-memorializing-a-slave-owner-and-white-supremacist-rename-jefferson-davis-highway>

I plan to speak at the Alexandria City Council meeting on Saturday when a vote is expected on the matter.

Kind Regards,

Arlene Black	Oakton, VA	2015-05-03	Yes, I think it is time for the change.
David Black	Great Falls, VA	2015-05-04	150 years after the Civil War's conclusion, one would hope that we can finally agree that succession from the Union was grave error and the individuals who led the Confederate government were not examples of "loyal Americans" we want to honor. While I have respect those who wish to commemorate their Confederate "heritage," our community need not go as far as naming our public thoroughfares after individuals who intentionally breached our Constitution and endorsed the institution of slavery. Let's show the world that Virginia truly is for "lovers" rather than 19th century white supremacists whom history passed by long ago.
Artyom Korbut	ann arbor, MI	2015-05-12	I live in Michigan and I believe this is important.
Cheryl Morris	Weehawken, NJ	2015-05-12	I agree that we are now in living in a new world. If we can abolish any slave related history that was formed and related to slavery in a negative way ..We as Americans should demolish , and get rid of it!!!!!!
Wesley Smith	Manchester, NH	2015-05-12	We, as a civilized society, simply cannot afford to glorify, condone or excuse bigotry or supremacy ideologies of any nature.
Lisa Reed	Woodbridge, VA	2015-05-12	I should not have to see a road that is right in front of my house that is honoring someone whom I know hated me.
Marko Sebastiani	Loxley, AL	2015-05-12	It's not nice to lynch people and be rewarded for that.
Matthew Jones	Hanover, PA	2015-05-12	Please, can we get out of the 50's. That's 1950 and 1850.
E Allan Willis	Benton City, WA	2015-05-12	No person or group of people should be constantly reminded that they have been or are viewed as having less worth as a human being.
Mustapha Mahmud	Phoenix, AZ	2015-05-12	It makes sense.
Nicholas Vaia	Sugar Grove, IL	2015-05-12	Racism should be non existent.
Albert Coffman	Perkasie, PA	2015-05-12	This is just another obstacle to achieving a post-racial society. Despite the progress of the last 50 years, we're still not even close.
KENT KASTEN	CORONADO, CA	2015-05-12	Why anyone would want to honor or celebrate that part of our history boggles me.
Robert Nieves	Nashville, TN	2015-05-12	Disgusting Memorial to a hateful racist
Sheila Vardakis	Kansas City, MO	2015-05-12	Times have changed thank goodness. No need for someone to be glorified who was racist.
Richard Gilbert	Franklin, TN	2015-05-12	I am not pure evil!
marcos bullon	astoria, NY	2015-05-12	Im signing this but i have to remind you Washington was a slave owner too
Eric Touchberry	Ypsilanti, MI	2015-05-12	We should honor people who represent the best in America. Sometimes, the definition of "best" can change.
John Poplar	Cedar grove, WI	2015-05-12	I'm signing because slavery is the ultimate form of racism and the worst trait of a human being.
Patrick Herbert	Norcross, GA	2015-05-12	Racism should not be memorialized!
Krista O'Connell	Arlington, VA	2015-05-12	My office is located on Route 1, and I am ashamed to be associated with Jefferson Davis!!! Please rename this highway!!
Lisa Miller	Camarillo, CA	2015-05-12	It's the right thing for me. Thank you.

Name	Location	Date	Comment
Ann Odette	Fairfax, VA	2015-05-12	Jefferson Davis was not a hero he was a traitor and nothing should be named for him. He stood for a society that believed it was ok to own other human beings. No, no street named for him.
Fran Watson	Spring Valley, CA	2015-05-12	This type of thing definitely needs to stop!
Maddy DeFreece	Fairfax, VA	2015-05-12	Virginia is my home and I will not stand for this
Kristen Schupp	Fairbanks, AK	2015-05-12	I believe in a better world
s maxie	Lawrenceville, GA	2015-05-12	This is the eq
Robert Ponichtera	Alexandria, VA	2015-05-12	It might be argued that keeping the name honors a 100-year-old position on state's rights. Part of that position, however, was rooted in a misconceived and arrogant notion about people of color. One cannot be separated from the other. That being the case, Mr. Davis and his views should be relegated to the past; they deserve no place of honor today.
Richard Kline	Llitz, PA	2015-05-12	I am signing this because I do not think we should remember the names from those who believed in the segregation of nation!!!
Rev. Randy Creath	Henrico, VA	2015-05-12	His time is long past!!! Further, those who fly the confederate battle flag should be reminded they lost and that their flags are no longer appropriate in this day and age!
Annetta Cheek	Falls Church, VA	2015-05-12	As a Virginian I believe it is time for us to step away from this racist heritage. While I recognize it is probably political impossible to completely do away with some monument to Davis, surely we can do something that doesn't expose so many Virginians and non-Virginians driving Rt. 1 to a celebration of this unfortunate past.
Lynn Fox	Woodbridge, VA	2015-05-12	I'm signing because it's time to forgive our past and let it be our past from which we learn.
Neil Hodges	Okemos, MI	2015-05-12	The honor of naming a highway should be reserved for those who exemplify our common humanity not ignorance and hate.
William Clegg	Jamestown, NC	2015-05-12	I'm signing this because it's the right thing to do. I also think we should take a look at other racist like George Washington and Thomas Jefferson. Both of whom owned slaves
Sandra Rodemyer	Urbandale, IA	2015-05-12	He should not be immortalized any longer!
Timothy Anderson	Mer Rouge, LA	2015-05-12	I'm an abolitionist and still contend with the results of this traitors cause.
robert johnson	alexandria, VA	2015-05-12	The remembrance of racist should be eradicated for the betterment of humanity
Donald Rosanelli	Fairfax, VA	2015-05-12	I moved to Northern Virginia several years ago and was dismayed to see Rte 1 named for a traitor to the United States, the first president of the rebellious CSA. I did not know the history of the naming of the highway for Jefferson Davis until today, and it is an affront not only to the Black citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia but also to ALL Virginians who believe in the equality and dignity of all our citizens.
Elva Martin	Fresno, TX	2015-05-12	Shameful
Raven Jackson	Nashville, TN	2015-05-12	Because as an African American I want to raise a family here in Amerikkka and teach them the difference between right and wrong and that doesn't include explaining to my kids that being a racist and killing blacks is okay
Shawn-Laree O'Neil	Chicago, IL	2015-05-12	I'm signing because we need to ensure that our public byways are not named for individuals who maintained beliefs that are antithetical to our Constitution.
Maryann Manning	Ashburn, VA	2015-05-12	Because changing the name of this highway is way overdue.

Name	Location	Date	Comment
Maqsood Khan	Sterling, VA	2015-05-12	Racism of any kind cannot be tolerated in the world . We have to set the bar much higher to show everyone we will not stand for racism.
E Jamaine Reed	Birmingham, AL	2015-05-12	it is a part of history, but not good history. No need to commemorate or lift up those that suppressed others.
John Johns	Los Angeles, CA	2015-05-12	As an American whenever I visit Washington, D.C. I can't believe that I am driving on road named after a seditious traitor and slave holder. It's embarrassing if you are hosting foreign visitors.
James McGuiness	Virginia Beach, VA	2015-05-12	Why don't we name all our highways after villains and enemies of the red, white and blue? This naming of the highway came 100 years after the Civil War and is as vile and insulting as the stars and bars. Clean it up and out.
Bradley Purcell	Richmond, VA	2015-05-12	Jefferson Davis is the last person whose name should appear on a Virginia Road.
Ursula Moon	Fairfax, VA	2015-05-12	I am signing this petition because this shows the covert ways that some groups of people continue to minimize and reward the atrocities of slavery, it's history, destruction and all those who participated in it! The fact that this needs to be brought to this site is the real issue!
Kamryn Doan	Dublin, OH	2015-05-12	Equality is the future. Racism is the past.
Tierra Coleman	Lynchburg, VA	2015-05-12	It figures Virginia would do this. It's full of racism!
Catherine Van De Veer	Hanalei, HI	2015-05-12	We know more now.....and can choose who to honor.
Therese Brownfield	Larkspur, CO	2015-05-12	I wonder which elected leaders have the courage to do the right thing.
Sherrie Gustafson	Yakima, WA	2015-05-12	Its time for changes. Just because it was OK then doesn't mean it is now. I think a slaves name should replace him. Thank you
Alvin Wilson	Petersburg, VA	2015-05-12	I am signing because I think it is wrong to name a highway for someone who hated a race because of the color of there skin.
Shirley Zigler	Lansing, MI	2015-05-12	Slavery was and is wrong
Danielle Mullen	Richmond, VA	2015-05-12	Roads should bring us together. They shouldn't break us apart. Allowing the name of a white supremacist to continue as the name of a highway in a diverse state makes no sense in the 21st Century. The name of someone in favor of diversity and unity should be used, or we can simply call it Route 1.
Ras Jamie De Bus	Tucson, AZ	2015-05-12	Raaaaaaaaaaaaas Tafari!!!!!!!!!!!!!!  Fai-yah Bun!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Molly Sullivan	Alexandria, VA	2015-05-12	fuck racists
Pamela Osgood	Grass Valley, CA	2015-05-12	There are more honorable folks the highway could be name after.
breandan mcnulty	Northbrook, IL	2015-05-12	It's 2015. Pull your head out of your racist, ignorant, inconsiderate-buttthole.
Kathryn Burns	Austin, TX	2015-05-12	The last thing the South needs is a memorial to a nation founded on preserving slavery.
Elaine Becker	Roanoke, VA	2015-05-12	He should have been hanged as a traitor!
chuck cathcart	New Brunswick, NJ	2015-05-12	Name the streets or highways after a positive role model...
Mark Hagy	Sunbury, PA	2015-05-12	I feel that this issue is the same as calling it the Adolf Hitler Highway. That just is unacceptable.
Maureen Allen	Talking Rock, GA	2015-05-12	Our nation has not advanced, beyond bigotry but we now understand that buying and selling people is wrong. Let us, therefore, commemorate the best of who we are, not memorialize the misguided.

meghan okane-olson	ameia ct hse, VA	2015-05-12	The war is over,the confederates lost.why must we honor this man.he was a bigot.the south seems unwilling to let go .of the past. The confederate flag ,represents,to many a way of life abhorant and basicaly a symbol of a tyranny of a people that bordered on l.prisonment.the displayment of that flag should be left to the scars of history,also herosizing and giving roads,schools,parks ect inmy eyes is furthering racism Which to y observation here especilly in the south fuels the fires of hate
Jo Johnsen	Villa Park, IL	2015-05-12	Disgusting.
Jennifer Thomas	Milwaukee, WI	2015-05-12	All men are created equal!! All roads, buildings and bridges bearing the name of a racist separatist should immediately be removed from said fixtures. This includes the FBI Building!! J. Edgar Hoover and Jefferson Davis held the same opinions and ideologies in regards to people of African descent.
CeCe Olson	Seattle, WA	2015-05-12	Let's honor good people, not racism
Matthew Perriam	Alexandria, VA	2015-05-12	This shames the state of Virginia
Anne Mongere	Lewisville, TX	2015-05-12	How would the world react if Germany/Austria named a gazillion places after Adolf Hitler? Yet the US has no problem with scores of places named after murderous racists, such as J. Davis, A. Jackson, K. Carson, et al. Weird, hein?
Roselyn Tolliver	Fairfield, CA	2015-05-12	Not only should this be changed, but Lee-Jackson-King Day should be renamed MLK Day.
f farty	Leeds, United Kingdom	2015-05-12	It should be named after Al Sharpton, who has worked so hard to stir up the thugs.
Grant Dvorak	Laguna Hills, CA	2015-05-12	MURICA, FUCK YEAH
Florence Turner	Alexandria, VA	2015-05-12	Agree! Good Luck!
Anna LeRoux	Castro Valley, CA	2015-05-13	I'm descended from his cousin, and I think the highway should be named after one of the many other people of his time and geography who showed more enlightened views about slavery. Not all Virginians of that time fought for the confederacy did so because they supported slavery and white supremacy. Many Virginians of earlier times had more enlightened views, and of course no reputable Virginians of our time support white supremacy. You have so many other better candidates.
kelista santos	Friant, CA	2015-05-13	black lives matter, even the ones that are gone
Peggy Blackwell	Rochester, MI	2015-05-13	A champion of slavery and racism should not have a highway named after them.
Cindy Shon	Rancho Palos Verdes, CA	2015-05-13	I believe that people need to stop memorializing racism and slavery.
Raymond Brown, M.A.	Pittsburg, CA	2015-05-13	It is horrible to have Jefferson Davis, who spewed racist ideas have anything named after him like a road.
Nina Davis	Austin, TX	2015-05-13	Nasty supremacists!
Brittny Stafford	Lenexa, KS	2015-05-13	I don't want future generations to think it's okay to stand behind a racist bigot whose own views were backwards
Eric Hodge	Fresno, CA	2015-05-13	I lived in the DC area for 10 years, and yes, this is an indignity and an affront.
Elisabeth Sommer	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-05-13	Some historical figures and events don't need memorializing. This is one such case. It's time to move on.
Michael Brodie	North Hollywood, CA	2015-05-13	It is the right thing to do - - especially for us white folks.
Carl Stauffer	Harrisonburg, VA	2015-05-13	We will never be able to overcome the historical scourge of slavery much less have an honest conversation about race in this country if we don't start to deconstruct the patriotic narrative that honors white supremacy.

Nicole Frost	Arlington, VA	2015-05-13	I was shocked when I moved to VA from the West and saw the highway. I thought it was a joke. It needs to be "unnamed" or "renamed".
Kurt Kupferer	Chicago, IL	2015-05-13	Unfortunately, even a century and a half after the confederacy was defeated, there are unreconstructed southerners still fighting the civil war. They like to claim that memorializing their ignominious heros like Jefferson Davis and flying the confederate flag is their way of celebrating their heritage, but all it amounts to is an expression of their ignorance and bigotry. They refused to be dragged kicking and screaming into the 20th century. How on earth are we going to usher them into the 21st century? Perhaps knocking Davis off the pedestal they have him on and relegating him the the dustbin of history where he belongs is a start.
Jacqueline J Spratley	Portsmouth, VA	2015-05-13	Am signing because I can't comprehend this obsession with the "color my skin"!
cathy lombard	Minneapolis, MN	2015-05-13	How do way still have anything (other than a prison) named after that man?
Gary Rogers	St. Petersburg, FL	2015-05-13	In memoriam to my ancestors who were slaves.
Shelley Smith	Gastonia, NC	2015-05-13	there is so much racism in the world and people are ignoring it. Its not going to go away people I'm tired of people saying that black people play the race card. we play the hand that is dealt to us. when racism stop then we'll stop. Until then we're going to keep marching and complaining about the Hand that were dealt we are going to keep on fighting for what we believe in this is not going away until people realize that racism real.
Michael Mattson	Wahpeton, ND	2015-05-13	I don't much care for Jefferson Davis. Plus, that's a really stupid name!
Lisa Medoff	NY, NY	2015-05-13	It's long overdue.
Marjorie Clark	Richmond, VA	2015-05-13	It is time to move on.
David Allen	St Augustine, FL	2015-05-13	Jefferson Davis led the rebellion against the U.S.A. that led to the greatest loss of American lives in the history of our nation - all to continue practicing the sinful crime of slavery.
Kate Starzec	Grayslake, IL	2015-05-13	I agree it is time to put racism out of this country. It's an embarrassment that our country has to bear, but we most certainly do not need to memorialize it!! I say no way in Hell!
Mark Harrison Jr.	Bedford, IN	2015-05-13	This man's name should not be praised.
Brett Braidman	Folsom, CA	2015-05-13	Yes, good point. As if we don't learn anything from Baltimore. Seriously?
Shawn Marie Hardy	Spring Lake, MI	2015-05-13	We need to refresh and revamp our country so that it no longer honors those who are such negative reminders of the crimes committed against Americans of all colors and races.
James Angel	Fairfax, VA	2015-05-13	It is an embarrassment to Virginia to have a major road named after Jefferson Davis.
Rick Welch	Lowell, MA	2015-05-13	Had no idea that Jefferson Davis was a bad president.
hattie shocket	richond, VA	2015-05-13	hattie shocket
Jacqueline Frye	Brightwood, VA	2015-05-13	It's time to make a change.....the past needs to remain in the past....let's move forward with a fully united nation and undo the prejudice of judging folks by the color of their skin. We're all human beings, and our great State of Virginia needs to be positive in demonstrating this.

Malik Graves	Rhoadesville, VA	2015-05-13	This one hits home. I can say I never once gave the name any thought and would have never guessed the history behind the name itself. Just goes to show how many of us today simply just go with the flow...
William Morrissey	Salt Springs, FL	2015-05-13	And while we're at it, lets change name of Jefferson Davis Community College in Bewton, Alabama
LaNell Tucker	Fort Worth, TX	2015-05-13	Wh should a person who owned my ancestors be idolized. No thanks
Kaamel Hasson	Buffalo, NY	2015-05-13	No racist, slave order or white supremacist should ever be memorialized for their hatred.
Robert Rust MD	Afton, VA	2015-05-13	I'm signing because it is the right thing to do.
Laurie Shapiro	Oakland, CA	2015-05-13	gross.
Don Cornell	Denver, CO	2015-05-13	Ownership of another human being as if he/she were merely a piece of property or even an animal should be a BLACK MARK that makes you unworthy of being memorialized beyond serving in the military. If you shoplift, you could get a criminal record that haunts you for life thus making it difficult to get a job, buy a home, rent and so on.
Jeffrey Elkner	Arlington, VA	2015-05-14	It is shameful to be honoring white supremacists and racists.
Lois Tague	Dayton, OH	2015-05-14	The legacy of the South, the Civil War, & Slavery needs to be set straight or forgotten - in other words "GET OVER IT - YOU LOST & NOW YOU, TOO, HAVE TO WORK FOR YOURSELVES & STOP DAYDREAMING ABOUT SLAVES DOING YOUR WORK FOR YOU"!
fiona wimber	vancouver, WA	2015-05-14	No one in the practice of slavery should be honored.
Asa Gregory	Wilson, NC	2015-05-14	Jefferson Davis is a traitor & doesn't need to be memorialized at all.
Lucy Porco	Pinole, CA	2015-05-14	Can we not name stuff after slave-taking bastards
Christina Felice	Detroit, MI	2015-05-14	Because I believe in freedom and equality for all Humans
Nicholas Murray	Phoenix, AZ	2015-05-14	End ignorance!!
James Marriott	Greenbackville, VA	2015-05-14	Mr. Davis' prison cell at Ft. Monroe is worth memorializing; his name, via this roadway, is not.
roderick johnson	Chicago, IL	2015-05-14	naming a hwy after a slave owner is unethical
Mary Hoffman	Alexandria, VA	2015-05-14	Because I believe that The highway should be renamed for someone other than a slave owner.
Emil Scheller	Fort Lee, NJ	2015-05-14	I'm signing because it is time to stop honoring people who committed treason against the U.S. in defense of slavery.
Jeanne Davis	Dudley, MA	2015-05-14	It's time for the terrible history of racism and segregation to end. De facto segregation continues, especially in the South. We are all Americans protected under our Constitution no matter our color.
Angelique St.Pierre	Melbourne, FL	2015-05-14	He's an anathema to everything that this country stands for..... a traitor whose name should NEVER be on any 'memorial'.
Monica Ezzo	Angola, NY	2015-05-14	Monica Ezzo
Curtis Mosby	Columbia, MD	2015-05-14	Not only was Davis a racist slave owner, he was also the leader of a bloody, seditious insurrection that resulted in the deaths of over 600,000 people. What about his legacy deserves to be honored?

Name	Location	Date	Comment
Karen Branan	Washington, DC	2015-05-14	I'm signing because I am descended from a long line of slave owners and I would not want to see any of them memorialized in this country today. America must apologize for the sin of slavery and stop worshipping its perpetrators with public memorials.
George Pinkard	Atlanta, GA	2015-05-14	Jefferson Davis cannot be erased from our nations history...that is a fact. To remove his name from the public eye as in this petition concerning transportation, would justify a desire/attempt towards a more positive image of our nation now and in the future. Holding on to legacies geared towards oppression is a slap in the face towards Christianity and all faiths aimed towards equality and justice for all people. Sorry Jefferson but your past has come back to haunt you and all your guilty, wealthy, family members who benefited and participated in this historical evil.
Enoch Jenkins	Panama City, FL	2015-05-14	I'm only for removing his name because of his status as a white supremacist. We do not celebrate those minds.
Carolyn Staruch	Xenia, OH	2015-05-14	I stand against racism.
John Gant	Newport News, VA	2015-05-14	I'm a black man born and raised in Richmond and it's time for change and growth in Central Virginia. We have made some huge strides BUT there is a LONG way to go. Let's start with one thing at a time.
Frederick Royce	Gainesville, FL	2015-05-14	He was wrong, he was a traitor, and he lost.
Nicole Preston	Denville, NJ	2015-05-14	I'm signing because memorializing a Slave Owner and White Supremacist is NOT acceptable!
M.-J. Taylor	Key West, FL	2015-05-14	I affirm that Black Lives Matter!
David Harris	Redding, CA	2015-05-14	It's time for change!
Charles High	Sterling, VA	2015-05-14	I'm signing for the reason that is eloquently stated in the petition—Jefferson Davis was an unrepentant white supremacist and the leader of a rebellion dedicated to the preservation of slavery. While he is an important figure in southern history, honoring him by using his name for a portion of a north-south interstate highway inevitably gives credibility to his ignoble cause.
Howard Brown	Port St. Lucie, FL	2015-05-14	I think Frederick Douglass Highway would be a better name. It's not like I was recommending U.S. Grant! Although Virginia does have a Lee-Jackson Highway, because both of them were Virginians first, Americans second or maybe third, after God.
Wanda Kennedy	playa vista, CA	2015-05-14	Change is necessary and honoring someone who endorses slavery, is only sending the message we agree with still honoring Jefferson Davis. Surely he did good in some other way, and can be known for that. Perhaps a family member in his lineage can come forward to take the name down, or be present for the renaming. God Bless All Americans!!!
Hector Lopez Ballesteros, Esq.	Bronx, NY	2015-05-14	By justice and decency, the name of a murderer, racist and evil man can not be used by the State of Virginia in any public road/highway.
Keith June	Arlington, VA	2015-05-14	Continuing to honor and indeed memorialize people who incited and led an insurrection and who led a government founded on the belief of the ownership and inferior of other human beings is patently wrong.
Alexis Agee	Kennewick, WA	2015-05-14	I'm signing this because I believe naming a highway after someone who screwed over many innocent people is wrong

Walt Whitman
Norman Bolotin	Woodinville, WA	2015-05-14	As an author an historian, I have studied the Civil War and its players for many years and feel compassion for both the people of the North and the South and recognize that the vast majority of Confederates were good, quality people who supported states' rights not slavery. Honoring Davis was and is a mistake. This is not about dishonoring the South but removing Davis' name where it truly does not belong. The message it sends is wrong for Black, white and all Americans.
Lionel Ellis	Dallas, TX	2015-05-14	It's obvious
Elizabeth Snyder-Baldonado	Winston-Salem, NC	2015-05-14	Some of my ancestors probably owned slaves. Some of my ancestors probably WERE slaves. & some of my ancestors were victims of a gruesome genocidal campaign to wipe out Native Americans. Healing is IMPOSSIBLE without forgiveness. I STILL would rather NOT see important roads, schools, WHATEVER, named after a slaveowner. Let's save the honors for those who have contributed to the UNITY/ADVANCEMENT of the whole world.
Carletta Casey	Atlantic,, IA	2015-05-14	This is WRONGto have a street named after this man. It only encourages more riots, which we don't need more of.
Samuel Stella	Brentwood, TN	2015-05-14	NO, NO enough is enough ! We are still being treated because of Racism, many White race people are afraid that the Black people and other none white races are taking over the United States , they still want to control everything and none white race destiny ! No , we need to keep fighting for change !
Theresa Smith	jackson, MI	2015-05-14	Because I believe in non-racist and non-violence of all and am a mixed race of European, Indian, and African American monica Rodriguez	San Antonio, TX	2015-05-14	I'm against racism God created us all different but at the end we are all Gods children!!
sergio reyes	Downey, CA	2015-05-14	Change with the positive times of human healing. Salute
Ollie Benjamin sr	Pittsburgh, PA	2015-05-14	I'm signing this because it's just not right at all. There is no way it can be justified at all.
Derrick Hamilton	Washington, District of Columbia, DC	2015-05-14	It's the right thing to do.
Roger Gaither	Somerset, NJ	2015-05-14	I think naming a highway for the losers of the civil war is stupid!!!
Armando Howard	Bronx, NY	2015-05-14	Jefferson Davis was a traitor to the Unites States. No part of our country should bear his name.
David Sporkin	Jersey City, NJ	2015-05-14	I unfortunately drive that that highway 8 or or 10 times times a year. I could could never phantom how how a traitor, racist and one of the the most despicable human beings, could have a highway named after them.
Linda Delano	Hinsdale, NH	2015-05-14	He was an ignorant, inhumane man, and no person with those characteristics should have anything named after them.
Marina Slaton	Boring, OR	2015-05-14	The history of this highway is in itself a reason to change the name of it! There are many other people whose names would honor it, or even name it for a mountain range or other landmark would be appropriate. The present name is NOT appropriate, and never was!

Christina Cowan	Burke, VA	2015-07-09	Treason in support of slavery should NOT be celebrated nor honored. That name has outraged me since I came here as a Navy officer 30 years ago. For that matter, Army bases named for Confederate officers should also be renamed - the John Mosby Army Reserve Center at Fort Belvoir could become Francis Marion (the Swamp Fox of the Revolutionary War) for instance. Celebrate fighting for liberty, not in defense of slavery.

Brad Bauer	Campbell, CA	2015-07-11	This is long overdue. I remember watching the film "12 Years a Slave" in a theater in Arlington, and wondering why--in the 21st century--we still had highway a couple of miles away from that theater named after someone who advocated the enslavement and torture of human beings, like those portrayed in this film, and who fought for a system that perpetuated that. It boggles the mind, and it is long since past time to remove the name of this traitor to our nation from this thoroughfare.

Jennifer Friedl	Arlington, VA	2015-07-11	When I moved to Virginia I was flabbergasted that so many schools and roads were named after Confederate leaders - and that no one seemed to care! SO relieved and glad something might (one can only hope) be done about this. Nazi Germany renamed all the roads in Berlin after Nazi leaders, and they were promptly renamed again after the war. Why have we not renamed these sooner? I see a direct analogy between the two.

Eric Koszyk	Arlington, VA	2015-07-11	Jefferson Davis was, by all definitions, a traitor to the United States of America. After the War he was unrepentant for helping instigate the deadliest war in our nation's history. A war mostly fought over the institution of slavery.  There is no reason why we should honor this man. Change the highway's name immediately.
Emily Allen	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-11	The pain invoked on a daily basis by this ode to a white supremacist could easily be ameliorated by a simple name change. Do it now.

Debbie Caulk	Sterling, VA	2015-07-11	I agree- not honoring Davis for his body of work
Matthew Whitehead	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-11	Jeff Davis was a traitor against my country (the United States) and a racist. As a retired U.S. Army officer, I swore an oath to protect and defend the Constitution against all enemies foreign and domestic. Jeff Davis and the Confederate South are the embodiment of the domestic enemy I swore to fight. It bothers me everyday when I have to drive on a highway named after a traitor and a racist. (Just incase you are wondering, I'm a white male Republican in his 40s').
Jim Kessler	Washington, DC	2015-07-11	Isn't it obvious?

Julia Cade	Washington, DC	2015-07-11	Although my GA and NC relatives fought for the Confederacy, I do not support what the Confederacy stands for -- and no one in my family taught me hatred or ever expressed any racist sentiments and I don't feel that it is disrespectful to my ancestors to remove the names of white supremists such as Jefferson Davis from highways, buildings, etc. we should not be honoring or glorifying white supremacy and the legacy of slavery.
james roberts	washington, DC	2015-07-11	My children need to see a street called unity, peace, brotherhood etc.... not a name for a traitor who failed to destroy our Union. Lets move the statues to cemeteries as well as they are a failed symbol of a time when many failed to support the Union and ending of slavery.
Dee Dalton	Reston, VA	2015-07-11	I travel this road everyday back and forth to work. It shouldn't be named after a traitor and "champion of a slave society." Where's the honor in that?

Desiree Stolar	Arlington, VA	2015-07-11	I live in Jefferson Davis Highway. As a young black woman who embraces and respects her Virginian history, I believe we can honor Jefferson Davis' legacy without celebrating it. We should name (or re-name) streets after those who represent the highest ideals of our society. I imagine there are teachers, local officials, inventors, Olympians, etc. whose name could represent Route 1 in the future.

cynthia krohmal	alexandria, VA	2015-07-11	I love Virginia! I would like the name of this major road to memorialize someone that valued all humanity and lived a life of honesty and integrity, a person that call Virginia home.
James Dieter	Vienna, VA	2015-07-11	I worked on this highway for years, and had to include the name on my mailing address. It made me ashamed.
K. Roddy	Edgewater, MD	2015-07-11	It is incomprehensible to "honor" someone who advocated and assisted in the killing of thousands of Americans for personal and monetary gain. He wanted to break up and destroy the United States. Might as well call U.S. 1 the "Hitler Highway". Frankly, that is the kind of relationship Davis had with the United States.
Raymond Maloney	Stafford, VA	2015-07-11	Naming a major road after a white supremacist is a slap in the face to all non-white Staffordians. Also, to honor a traitor like Davis is an insult to patriotic Americans, like my ancestors that fought and bled on this ground to preserve the Union.
Henrik Erslev	Wheaton, MD	2015-07-11	He is History
Paul Dockins	Burke, VA	2015-07-11	To correct the mistake made about 90 years ago in naming a public road for the leader of a treasonous rebellion premised on the perpetuation of chattel slavery. Today's Virginia can and should do better.
Denise Philipbar	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-11	I'm signing because I think it's despicable that I must drive down this highway named after a traitor to the United States of America on a daily basis. There should be no memorials to a cause that championed human trafficking, especially in this area at this time.
Stephanie Miklos	Edgewater, MD	2015-07-11	Progress!
Donald Perkal	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-11	We need to stop honoring those on the wrong side of history. Davis and those like him were traitors to the ideals this nation was founded on.
Richard Price	Arlington, VA	2015-07-11	The time has come to forget the myths of the Civil War and understand that what the south did was treason. And honoring the former confederate president By putting his name on a portion of US 1 is just wrong. It's time to remove his name from this road.
John Swanberg	Fairfax Station, VA	2015-07-11	We have no reason to honor this person who helped wreak havoc in our country.
Mr. IAM DUMBASS	Washington, DC	2015-07-11	I like stupid ass people.
Clayton LiaBraaten	Ashburn, VA	2015-07-11	Davis was a racist loser who committed sedition.
Robert Wilson	Arlington, VA	2015-07-11	It's ridiculous that the United States continues to fetishize the Confederacy.
John Bauer	Reston, VA	2015-07-11	It's the right thing to do!
Donna Martin	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-11	I've wanted this to happen for years! I'm thrilled someone took the initiative. Thank you thank you thank you....
Rudy Porter	GAITHERSBURG, MD	2015-07-11	The murders in Charleston prove that we cannot keep turning a blind eye to the symbols of slavery and white supremacy. Davis did not want to be part of the USA. Why should he be honored?

Anna Tucker	Arlington, VA	2015-07-11	The confederacy and it's leaders stood for the freedom to maintain an economic system that relied on slavery. Memorializing the defenders of that system amounts to honoring their choice to commit treason in order to maintain slaves. It was never right to memorialize the confederacy, and it was only done to placate elements of society that should never have been placated. Such memorials have no place in the land of the free and it is high time they be done away with.
Jo Ann Staebler	Manassas, VA	2015-07-11	It may be "just a symbol," but symbols have more power than we realize to shape hearts and minds.
Robert SanGeorge	Chevy Chase, MD	2015-07-11	All reverence for the treasonous, slavery-loving historical scum of the South must be eradicated.
Amanda Morgan	Stafford, VA	2015-07-11	Imao fuck this guy
Timothy Stanton	Chester, VA	2015-07-11	I live one mile from US Route 1. It embarrasses me to have to use this name in directions.
Brian Stout	Reston, VA	2015-07-11	Many Confederate heroes were proud natives of the Commonwealth who would have taken arms to defend Virginia regardless of the convention's vote in the spring of 1861. They were, first and last, Virginians. Most prominently was General Robert E. Lee, who wrote: "If Virginia stands by the old Union, so will I. But, if she secedes (though I do not believe in secession as a constitutional right, or that there is sufficient cause for revolution), then I will still follow my native State with my sword, and if need be with my life." We should not dissociate from our fellow Virginians; their insurrection against the United States was a more reluctant one than most of their fellow Southern peers. We should not, however, venerate (even tacitly) traitors to the Union who were not sons of the Old Dominion. Rename Route 1 and remove all similar tributes to the Confederacy proper, except where they already lie in National Historic Landmarks.
Lisa Crocker	Stafford, VA	2015-07-11	I have to drive this road every day, and I've always been bothered by the name. Glad the time is finally right for this to gain traction (although I wish it wouldn't have taken another massacre to do so.)
Jestina Roberts	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-11	I drive home on Jefferson Davis Highway everyday and its hypocrisy makes me shake my head. Jefferson Davis committed treason against our country and supported racism but has a highway named after him? For the folks who continuously shout that racism is not real anymore -- this is a sign that you're terribly wrong.
Virginia Gray	Sterling, VA	2015-07-11	because Jeff Davis is a disgrace to this nation and to moral people
Alexa Fraser	Rockville, MD	2015-07-11	it is the right thing to do
Kristen Lackey	Herndon, VA	2015-07-11	I'm signing because why did we name a highway after a non-supporter of the United States in the first place.
Laura Price	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-11	It has always been RT 1 to me and I cringe when I hear the other name
Walter Scales	McLean, VA	2015-07-11	I've always thought it outrageous that a major Virginia thoroughfare is named for Davis. In other areas, it's appropriately called "Richmond Highway".
Marlys Gramley	Potomac, MD	2015-07-11	I agree! Also I was a resident of VA for 21 years and my paternal ancestors lived there for 3 or more generations in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries.

Donald Saunders	Blowing Rock, NC	2015-07-11	The man should never have been pardoned, he should have been tried and executed for treason against the US of A or at least imprisoned for the rest of his life. He got off way too easy.
Nancy Malir	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-11	I have been always been disturbed by the fact that a highway on the outskirts of the capital of the United States of America is named for a man who deliberately broke with this country to try and form a separate one. When I moved to Virginia from my native Kansas 25 years ago (the last free state to enter the Union) I was told this is what you have to look forward to living in the South. I'm now looking forward to not living with it. Thank you for starting this petition.
Chris Pav Crowley	Richmond, VA	2015-07-11	I was surprised as a teenager when I realized that Richmond highway changed names to the treasonous leader when you got south of Fairfax County.
Ryan Arnold	Arlington, VA	2015-07-11	I've always called it "that highway that they really need to rename."
Andy Gottlieb	Guilford, CT	2015-07-12	Long past time this happened.
Marcia Wilson	Tacoma, WA	2015-07-12	The Civil War was about slavery. Do not obfuscate or make it more than it is. It is past and time to move on, like our spate of calling German Measles 'Liberty Measles' during WWII. It is false patriotism that does not acknowledge the states that left the Union did so as traitors.
Robert Maslyn	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	because doing this is long overdue
David Ferrel	Vienna, VA	2015-07-12	I only regret that I did not start this petition years ago.... Please sign if you agree.
Ted Hochstadt	Falls Church, VA	2015-07-12	We don't have roads named after the traitor Benedict Arnold, and we shouldn't have roads named after the traitor Jefferson Davis!
Mark Edward	Aurora, IL	2015-07-12	As a Vet who served this Country for 8 years. I feel no road in this country should be named after anyone so despicable. Honoring the memory of white supremacists is something that we as a country should not tolerate any longer.
Michael Kohler	Clifton, VA	2015-07-12	I've wanted this change for years. It makes me angry every time I have to drive on Route 1. Naming such a prominent road after someone like Davis (who wasn't even a Virginian, mind you) is just totally inappropriate in 2015.
Marcus Allsup	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-12	I'm signing because Jefferson Davis was a traitor to the US, and does not deserve the honor of having anything named after him.
Michael Guedri	Richmond, VA	2015-07-12	it's 2015.
Celia Wexler	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	Naming a highway after a hero of slavery is unseemly.
Philip Kogan	Washington, DC	2015-07-12	We need to put the Civil War and its apologists behind us and get on with building a great America
Krystal Rodney	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	I live in Alexandria, and the thought of driving on that street literally causes my stomach to churn.
Gina DeAngelis	Williamsburg, VA	2015-07-12	It should be Harriet Tubman Highway.
Michael Lynch	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	I used to live off this street and was ashamed that a traitor to the US had a street renamed in his honor just outside the Nation's capital.
Lindsey McCuiston	Gloucester Courthouse, VA	2015-07-12	I'm signing because racism has gone on for long enough. I don't want to return to a college that promotes equality but comes off a road named after the leader of the Confederacy.

Krista Krahm	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	I don't want a traitor to be honored. Why aren't men of brilliance from Virginia honored? Walter Reed, Booker T. Washington, Meriwether Lewis, and Pocahontas did much for our country. Why should we honor someone who turned his back on the US when there are so many great Virginians to celebrate?
Donald Bell	Harvey, IL	2015-07-12	I'm signing because, as an American citizen, I don't want to support the idea that we honor the leaders of countries that have taken up arms against the United States. I'm signing because, as an American citizen, I don't want to support the idea that we honor the leaders of countries that have taken up arms against the United States. Would we name a major public work after Adolf Hitler or Emperor Hirohito or even King George III? I think not!
Cynthia Simpson	Barre, VT	2015-07-12	I'm a native of Richmond and grew up with Monument Avenue, Jeff Davis Hwy and the Confederate Flag. It is way past time for all of this to be over. It's not the removal of history; it's respect for our African American brothers and sisters whom we have treated so badly for every second of every minute of every hour of every day since 1619. Time to let these symbols of hatred and oppression go. They have no place in the current public sphere. They belong in museums and history books...and we need to quite lying in those places, too.
Vincent Darby	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-12	Read the text of the introduction to this petition and you will see why you should sign too! Change the name now!
Sherjeel Khan	Dumfries, VA	2015-07-12	why continue to parade around a disgusting racist leader?
Sarah Riedl	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	Jefferson Davis Hwy has sickened me since I moved to Northern Virginia in 2003. It's about time we stopped HONORING people who took up arms against the United States over their purported right to own human beings. Remember them, yes; honor them, no!
Justin Smith	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	As a transplant but now 11 year resident, it is now incumbent on me to stop recognizing what I thought was "local tradition" and instead insisting on justice and "what is right".
Chris Centner	Reston, VA	2015-07-12	This thoroughfare's name is not right. We have many great Virginians who made our state better, such as abolitionist Moncure Conway. Let's rename the highway after someone who made our world better.
josh butler	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-12	Fuck him. I've wanted this for ages.
Vinay Murthy	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	I strongly agree with the petition's statement.
Arielle Masters	Oak Hill, VA	2015-07-12	This is LONG overdue.
Brian Gallagher	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	Ever since moving to Virginia from New Jersey I've found it an affront to the US, the Constitution, African-Americans, and anyone who've died defending the country. Jefferson Davis is not someone worth remembering.
Glenna Gallagher	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	Seems like Jeff Davis was a dick, route 1 is, too, I guess.
joel cooper	reston, VA	2015-07-12	Why name a highway after a traitorous loser?
Tom Kissel	Ashburn, VA	2015-07-12	The South lost. Get over it.
Haley Southee	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	I have been waiting for this street to change for years. It is a disgrace to my hometown of Alexandria, VA.
Brian Wood	Boston, MA	2015-07-12	I'm a white southerner and I am NOT proud of slavery and Jim Crow.
Elizabeth George	Silver Spring, MD	2015-07-12	The great Commonwealth of Virginia should not be venerating this man.

Debra Bell	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	When I moved here from further north I was stunned to find myself driving every day on a highway named after a racist traitor. Perhaps rename to honor those who died at the Pentagon?
John Marshall	Washington, DC	2015-07-12	#ERACISM
Allen Webber	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	I live 1 block from JDH (over 20 years). Never understood why his name is honored. JD has no connection to Virginia, other than leading them to commit treason against the USA. Certainly there is some worthy Virginian to name this road after.
Frank Schreiber II	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-12	Jefferson Davis Hwy has sickened me since I moved to Virginia in 1995. It's about time we stopped HONORING people who took up arms against the United States over their purported right to own human beings. Remember them, yes; honor them, no!
jerome friar	surf city, NC	2015-07-12	A highway named for a white supremacist has no relevancy in our contemporary society.
M Holmes	Silver Spring, MD	2015-07-12	It is the right thing to do. I hope the petition is taken seriously by lawmakers but doubt anything will come of this action. As American citizens we need to come to terms with our country's history as well as have true perspective. While I cannot speak for anyone else, I have noticed that many speak of desegregation as if it were 400 years ago - it wasn't. I don't think many of American descendants of slave owners and slaves understand the timeline and its impact. Yes the civil war took place, slaves were freed but were immediately segregated. This took place for a huge chunk of time as did racial disharmony and the seeds of racism and bigotry. By the time desegregation became a reality of sorts did American citizens honestly think racial discrimination, bigotry and discord ceased -these feelings simply seethed in individuals and communities with microcosm explosions that sparked public outrage. Perhaps that doesn't lend a reasonable explanation yet consider a racist father lives to be a racist great grandfather and dies at the age of 100. He lived for 1 century. Jefferson Davis lived 150 years ago and our hypothetical great grandfather was born at some point during the same timeline. The two share the same ideals - a white America with Blacks in servitude. The racist father has the opportunity to pass down his ideals to not one but two generations and started on a third before his passing. Great grandfather was loved by many but saw whites as superior in every way
Melody Mobley	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	I'm signing this because I think it's shameful and repugnant to have a major thoroughfare especially so near the Nation's capitol named after an unrepentant white supremacist who fervently and whole-heartedly supported and stands for slavery and segregation. It is not a small matter to people like me whose ancestors suffered and died in slavery.
Jan Feldman	Cupertino, CA	2015-07-12	Not only was he a racist and slaver, Jefferson Davis was a traitor to the United States of America. Nothing should be named after him.
Kaitlin Gross	Richmond, VA	2015-07-12	I am glad the silent majority has come together to end this finally. HATE NOT HISTORY
Elise Axelrad	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	Time to celebrate Virginia, not white supremacists.
Gerald Bowman	Richmond, VA	2015-07-12	I am from Richmond and this name is a scandal. It is offensive.

Valari Elardo	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	It's a short stretch of Route One but it's MY stretch and has been for over 30 years. And I always avoided calling it "Jeff Davis Highway" the way traffic reporters do. Actually, they compound it, erroneously using the moniker for the entire stretch from North Old Town to the 14th Street Bridge. Jefferson Davis was not even a Virginian, much less a citizen with values we should be commemorating with his name on any part of a Virginia thoroughfare, much less this major route used by locals, commuters and tourists from around the world by the tens of thousands every day.
Mark Smith	Wilmington, DE	2015-07-12	The feelings of those who see Confederate symbols and names as celebratory of slavery must be acknowledged.
Leo Nolan	Falls Church, VA	2015-07-12	For 12 years, I resided on Jefferson Davis Highway in Arlington, VA. I never liked putting his name on forms and envelopes.
Michael Todas	Mount Bethel, PA	2015-07-12	I grew up in NOVA as a minority and met bigotry more times than I would ever admit to. The symbols and stories of the Southern Army were a large part of my education. Upon moving to NYC it became apparent that people who grew up in the North did not have a deep education regarding the Civil War. So it seem to me that the south educated the youth to be more racist rather than in the north. As small as these symbols may appear to be, they represent a larger idea of hate that I pray my children will never have to deal with. Please consider changing the name of route 1 to a Virginian who deserves the honor and one who
Bryan Roessler	Midlothian, VA	2015-07-12	I work on Jeff Davis Highway and it embaresses me every time I have to give someone my address
Bert Berlin	Richmond, VA	2015-07-12	It is time for Virginia to stop living in a four-year period of its history. We need to stop worshipping leaders who led us in rebellion against the United States.
Sandra Caughlin	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	I live on a section of Hwy 1 North that is called Patrick Street while it runs through Alexandria, Virginia. Before and after this street I have to see the name of a man I do not think should be honored. Someone who tried to destroy the union of a country I love and served as an officer in the US Army for over 24 years!
Blake Velde	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	It's time to honor a Virginian who loves the US
David Donlon	Springfield, VA	2015-07-12	It's ridiculous. I have hated that his name was on there since I was old enough to understand history.
Shante White	Williamsburg, VA	2015-07-12	This is way overdue!
Briana Lewis	Triangle, VA	2015-07-12	We live in the United and not Separate States
Craig Wiley	Herndon, VA	2015-07-12	There is no Adolf Hitler St. Hirohito Blvd., Hermann Goring Memorial Hwy, Sirhan Sirhan Lane, Lee Harvey Oswald Memorial Hwy, or Osama bin laden Memorial Hwy. NOT TRYING TO CHANGE HISTORY, JUST DON'T BELIEVE IN HONORING OUR ENEMIES OR HONORING THOSE WHO HAVE COMMITTED CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY. The history books are filled with people who will not be and should not be memorialized. Don't change history but don't memorialize evil.
Paola Christy	Charlottesville, VA	2015-07-12	I'm signing because my daughter age 6, sitting next to me, is hopeful for change. To see history through her eyes and know how essential it is to have a more positive story.
Cathi Long	Centennial, CO	2015-07-12	We need to learn from our past and make positive changes. This is one more example in which this can happen.
Maria Fahlsing	Lorton, VA	2015-07-12	The times have changed so why not the road name?

Name	Location	Date	Comment
Charles Rawlins	Hyattsville, MD	2015-07-12	I have always wondered why anything should be named for the president of a region of the US that took up arms against the US for the primary purpose to protect slavery. What's next, Benedict Arnold Highway? Sheesh! Thankfully, someone has finally taken notice and seeks to do something about it.
Regina Foertsch	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	We have learned from the events in South Carolina how important it is to represent all of the people. It's a travesty to drive down a road honoring a man who fought to keep my ancestors slaves as a free, educated black woman. The name has to go. Why not re-name the road to something that unifies Virginians instead of dividing them?
Peter Mason	Reston, VA	2015-07-12	Born and raised in Alexandria, Va, I've been forced to tolerate the memorialization of Confederate generals and soldiers my whole life. It's time for this to end.
Andrew Duran	Springfield, VA	2015-07-12	As a decedent of a slave owner, it is long past time to remove honorariums for those that wanted to sustain this abhorrent practice and then "white-wash" if by saying it was a states right issue. Slavery has always been morally wrong and indefensible blot on the US of A. Lets just paint over the Davis on all the signs. Jefferson at least did positive things.
Johnisha Levi	Newton Highlands, MA	2015-07-12	As an African American and former Virginian I am deeply ashamed that these individuals are to this day being celebrated for their treasonous actions in defense of a barbaric institution that enslaved my ancestors. Let's move on!
Nicole Carbone	Towson, MD	2015-07-12	I'm from NJ and live on this highway.
Karen Santos	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	I've lived along this road in Alexandria, VA, for nearly 30 years. Never understood why it memorialized the president of the failed cecessionist states.
keith hicks	burke, VA	2015-07-12	after visiting the Jeff Davis "Presidential Library" in Mississippi, I came to the realization that Mr Davis was truly racist in his heart, and I can't see why modern individuals would memorilize him
Mike Davis	Newport News, VA	2015-07-12	Although the Confederacy will remain an integral part of our history as a commonwealth, it should no longer be held in such high esteem as to completely ignore the atrocities committed in its name.
Robert O'Neill	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	This is long overdue. We should rename it Lincoln or Union Hwy.
Angela Thornburgh	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	It's offensive and it's been offensive. This isn't about erasing history; that history is and should be taught. This is about ceasing to aggrandize figureheads of the Confederacy in our public spaces.
james jenigen	North Chesterfield, VA	2015-07-12	I'm signing because I agree that we should change the names of schools and streets to be more reflective of our modern society. I do not believe that monuments should be removed however.
Marshall Newman	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	J. Davis was a traitor to the USA. We should not name streets after people of that ilk.
Meghan Foley	Stafford, VA	2015-07-12	In my county we have Jefferson Davis Hwy and, shortly off that, Confederate Way. Although the Confederacy and everything it stood for is certainly an unremovable part of our history, I think the roads we travel should be a reflection of our present and, more importantly, what we want our future to be.
Yanping Soong	Charlottesville, VA	2015-07-12	I am a graduate of the University of Virginia. A third-culture kid immigrant born in Singapore, I have lived most of my US life in Maine. But I attended UVa and lived in Virginia for five years, I experienced my "second childhood" there. A lovely state like Virginia should not pay to respect a treasonous Confederate leader who has done nothing for Virginia's legacy and heritage.

Arona Kessler	Port Jefferson Station, NY	2015-07-12	I see the street signs for this highway nearly every time I drive. It is an embarrassment. It is time for Virginia to come in to the 21st century and stop honoring treasonous Confederates. They lost, we won.
Alicia Guy	Stephens City, VA	2015-07-12	I live near this highway and the name is a disgrace.
Jeffrey Sokolow	Atlanta, GA	2015-07-12	Stop honoring secessionists, traitors, and Slave Power white supremacists.
Jonathan Jones	Richmond, VA	2015-07-12	I'm only signing this just so I can see the names and information of those who signed it previously. Naturally I do not support such a silly 'movement'.
Jessica Green	Merritt Island, FL	2015-07-12	I live in Arlington VA a good part of the year. As an Arlingtonian and American, I do not believe this is a man who should have the distinguished honor of having a road named after him. I cringe every time I see a road sign.
Pierce Macdonald Powell	Oakland, CA	2015-07-12	Jefferson Davis did not earn the honor of having his name on a public thoroughfare. Virginia has so many other important people that could be recognized and celebrated.
Mariam Bederu	Silver Spring, MD	2015-07-12	It is not acceptable to dedicate high ways and roads after these kind of embarrassing historical figures. We should be ashamed of their evil deeds not proud of their murder of innocent human beings.
Jim McBride	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	because Jefferson Davis doesn't reflect our Arlington values
Brittany Rose	Richmond, VA	2015-07-12	Its about time!
robert schmeelcke	Springfield, VA	2015-07-12	It turns my stomach to drive on this road every day
Simone Liu	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	Driving on this road for my whole life , always wondering why Jeff Davis Highway is supposed to be an okay thing I accept.
Melissa Mackenzie	Missoula, MT	2015-07-12	it is high time to stop glorifying the legacy of slavery and move toward unity.
isabel walls	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	Let's change it to Abraham Lincoln Highway!!!
Peter Francisco	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	Jeff Davis tried to perpetuate a slaveholding society and was the political leader of a revolt against the U.S. Government and Constitution that led to over half a million deaths.
Jennifer Kirk	San Francisco, CA	2015-07-12	My parents live in the area and I'm supporting their opinion. I also would love to not have to drive on this road when I visit. I appalls me every time.
Margo Robinson	Chantilly, VA	2015-07-12	Rename so all Virginian feel united.
Jason Breakiron	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-12	It's time to rename this section of highway to something more respectful and not for a leader who committed treason and willingly enslaved thousands of people and thought that it was ok to do so. We need to stand and say that it is NEVER OK to use or celebrate anything that allows hatred, racism, bigotry and slavery to continue to exist in today's world.
Catherine Nnoka '74	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	Change the name! And get rid of all these other representations of racism that persist in the USA. Jefferson Davis and his fellow southern traitors would be tried for crimes against humanity at the international courts in The Hauge if they were still alive.
Michael Kluznik	Mendota Heights, MN	2015-07-12	Why should we continue to send federal dollars to subsidize highways that promote racism?
Jonathan Nyborg	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-12	It is time to review the status of the most prominent confederate landmarks.
Dan Silk	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-12	I always wondered how he got highways named for him; seems odd to me that we would memorialize this guy like that.
William Paul Liggett	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	I, too, am outraged that I must mention a racist overlord's name when referring to locations on/near Route 1 (as I live in Virginia).
Jenni Carpenter	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	Have always hated that this road was named for that man.

Name	Location	Date	Comment
Vickie Davis	Chester, VA	2015-07-12	Time has come for change in Virginia. Symbols of oppression and reminders of our racist history are not deserving of memorialization.
Sylvia Dwyer	Richmond, VA	2015-07-12	Time to stop honoring these infamous people that more in common with Hitler than MLK.
Peter Neisuler	Arlington, VA	2015-07-12	I'm tired of driving down a highway named for our country's greatest racist traitor, across the river from the Lincoln Memorial.
Sharon Wuerschmidt	CARTHAGE, NY	2015-07-12	I believe that historic route 1 has born this name long enough. The road itself is one of the country's earliest routes. Older than civil war.
Myke Reid	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	I agree that we shouldn't be honoring those who instigated armed insurrection against the United States of America.
Katharine Gates	Dobbs Ferry, NY	2015-07-13	It's time for Virginia to step into the present
Nicholas Dizdar	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	Jefferson Davis was a traitor. The names of all traitors otherwise known as Confederates should be removed from any and all public property. Would loyal Americans name public property after Benedict Arnold?
Derrick Martin	Washington, DC	2015-07-13	It is demeaning for me to regularly drive on a road named after a person who, not only saw me as less than human, but perpetrated a war to keep my ancestors in bondage.
Tanetta Caleb	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	I am signing this because America needs to stop turning a blind eye and own up to our painful history.
Jeannine Glnivan Hyde	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	I live here and want to know the town's history but not memorialize and honor what was wrong.
Karen Akers	Vienna, VA	2015-07-13	I'm signing because a name that conjures so many offensive associations to so many people needs to go. It's past time for it to happen.
Carolyn Bohannon	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	WE NEED TO BE DONE WITH THE OPPRESSION OF AFRICAN AMERICAN AND STOP REMINDING US THAT RICHMOND WAS A SLAVE TRADE.
Catherine Casteel	Arlington, VA	2015-07-13	This man should not be memorialized as any kind of revered figure. He does not deserve to have a pebble named for him, let alone a main highway.
Lee Ball	Henrico, VA	2015-07-13	A better and more appropriate name for this
Alisha Hall	Ashburn, VA	2015-07-13	I sign because I believe that change can be good! #equality #justice
terrence bell	Stafford, VA	2015-07-13	I'm black.
Jay Rusniak	Quantico, VA	2015-07-13	Jefferson Davis went to war with the United States
Jeffrey Dunn	Charlottesville, VA	2015-07-13	It's the right thing to do.
Mary Lewis	Blackshear, GA	2015-07-13	Because memorializing a White Supremacist who was also a slave owner is not ok!!!! This is like memorializing one of Hitler's henchmen.
Stephen Foster	Vienna, VA	2015-07-13	Clearly our lives are too good in order that we can worry about such trivial matters. Pancreatic cancer still exists right? There's a homeless problem & shelters need donations still, right? Women are beaten daily & need supplies to move on w/ thief lives to remove themselves from toxic situations, right? Let's focus on ACTUAL problems than ,are up ones. It will make the world a better place
Aleshia Jones	Henrico, VA	2015-07-13	I feel change needed under circumstances
Dee Irby	Henrico, VA	2015-07-13	This is offensive to African people and to all who struggled feverishly for equal rights and freedom.
Peter Blaise Monahan	Arlington, VA	2015-07-13	No more second class citizens, ever, please.
James Dukes	Upper Marlboro, MD	2015-07-13	This person should not be remembered as a hero for wanting to enslave a whole race of people!

Michael Highlander	Washington, DC	2015-07-13	I live in DC on work off this road in CC. I've always refused to call it JFD Hwy; simply Route 1
kareem shabazz	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	I am signing this petition because as a black man living in Richmond Virginia I should not have to be subjected to seeing street names and statues of deceased slave owners.
Madelyn Peay	Midlothian, VA	2015-07-13	I concur.
Lakisha Rivera	Washington, DC	2015-07-13	Anything that is an association with racism, needs to be deleted!
Cassandra Shaw	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	Slavery is inhumane
J Michael Flynn	Newark, DE	2015-07-13	I'm signing because it's outrageous that any roadway, especially a major thoroughfare, would be named after a known racist and Confederate general. All known people and symbols who supported the Confederacy should be banished altogether or relegated to museums.
virginia fines	Spotsylvania, VA	2015-07-13	this is the name it was given years ago and it was for a good reason or they wouldnt have named it that !!!!!
Helen Ellis-Brown	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-13	I now understand where the name came from, and like the flag, his info belongs in a museum, not on a major roadway.
Miguel Cruz	Gaithersburg, MD	2015-07-13	I think is pathetic that people celebrates such a dark embarrassing past. By the way i'm a foreigner...
Kathy Desmond	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	We should not honor someone who fought to preserve slavery. It is offensive to me as well as to many white Virginians.
Joe Mode	Knoxville, TN	2015-07-13	I'm tired of people trying to erase the history of this Republic to suit their agenda. All history can be offensive to any number of people. Shall we erase all of our history and start over?
magic johnson	york, PA	2015-07-13	I'm against racism
William Killian	Falls Church, VA	2015-07-13	We don't need to honor treason.
DavoN Harris	Colonial Heights, VA	2015-07-13	It's my right as American
Gerard Erdue	Alpharetta, GA	2015-07-13	I'm against racism and the founding fathers thereof.
Monica Chambers	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	When are we going to wake up and stop celebrating treason? When are we going to wake up and embrace humanity? The past existed, and we have an opportunity to make a better future. Let's move in a more progressive and healthy direction. Let's stop honoring and celebrating treason and violations of humanity.
Keith Savage	Manassas, VA	2015-07-13	It is unconscionable that we would allow Confederacy views to be memorialized as romantic and worth symbolizing as a active viewpoint. Do you think Hitler is memorialized this way?
Sandra Bland	Colonial Heights, VA	2015-07-13	he was hailed as a champion of slavery,and wanted to keep slavery,who needs a street named after him,rename the highway,and I think that lee ,Jackson and king day ,martin should have a holiday all to his self,not with them two,Robert e.lee was a confederate too,
DeLores Almond	Gainesville, VA	2015-07-13	Why is a white supremacist be honored? We don't honor Hitler with a street named after him. My father fought for this country, let's not dishonor him.
randal witherspoon	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	Randal witherspoon
George Martin	Midlothian, VA	2015-07-13	I have become more aware of his character.
Jeff Blythe	Washington, DC	2015-07-13	Let's rename it "Loving Highway", after Virginia's own civil rights heroes, Mildred and Richard Loving.

Megan Livingston	Trenton, NJ	2015-07-13	I lived in the DC metro area for 10 years before moving to Baltimore, and always felt disgusted driving down this road. The American south is the only place I know of where the losers of a war are celebrated and memorialized. That is absurd. That it's connected to a history not just marked by, but soaked in racism and racially violent acts and institutions, is horrifying.
Samuel Myers	Silver Spring, MD	2015-07-13	I had this road as my address for over a year and it was humiliating and offensive just to tell other people my address. Change the name. He wasn't even from VA!
David Dike	Warrenton, VA	2015-07-13	It is time for the Commonwealth to stop celebrating hate.
Daniel McNulty	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	No memorializing of those who committed treason in defense of slavery.
Matt Gyory	Washington, DC	2015-07-13	I live in Northern Virginia and no street should be named after the leader of a rebellion fought in the name of slavery.
Christina Phillips	Washington, DC	2015-07-13	I used to live on Wesmond Dr. in Alexandria, right off Route one and hated the name given to that route then, and continue to now, even though I moved a few years ago.
Tammy Durrett	Partlow, VA	2015-07-13	No it shouldn't be changed. Just leave the history alone. This is stupid!!
Troy Boyle	Elsmere, KY	2015-07-13	While he is an important historical figure, he does not deserve the honor of having a highway named after him. Put him where he belongs: in history books.
nilson martinez	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-13	I'm signing because we are in the 21st century and racism should not be existing anymore.
carvis moncrief	Brandywine, MD	2015-07-13	Name one president of any opposing army, of any battle against the USA in which we have a named street. There is no Ho Chi Minh ave, Saddam Husayn Bulavard, Adolph Hitler Way, Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto Circle, Kim Il-sung Court, General William Howe Point, Joseph stalin Drive, Bin Laden Street. No they are all loses or we did not agree with their system of government and therefore did battle and under the Constitution they are not mentioned, nor does their flag, symbols there of, there bigotry or remnants, colors cased or non-cased fly on any Federal, State, City or local governmental building empowered by the US Constution to do so. Therefore it is unlawful, a mere act of treason to represent any form of government other than that which is sanctioned by the US Constution and to the men and women who gave their lives to keep these borders free to practice your freedom of speech off and outside of Federal, State, City, County and Local official embodiments to include public roads. Out of the victory comes the spoils of war. The Confederacy were not the victory so they do not and should not enjoy the spoils. Written in history not continuing to make history on these soils of Freedom.
Teresa Knott	Glen Allen, VA	2015-07-13	Don't think we should do anything to honor or glorify Jefferson Davis.
Shawn Harmon	Virginia Beach, VA	2015-07-13	It won't change anything.
Julia Young	Arlington, VA	2015-07-13	It's the right thing to do!
Kathy Jones	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	It's not fair for a person with no moral turpitude to have high honors. Delinquent behavior deserves to be addressed appropriately. It's so disrespectful to all, especially Blacks. Stop using the term African American, generally. It doesn't apply to all Blacks.
Denae Lonzer	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	Everything named after them(ironically in mostly black communities) has seen violence and destruction through the use of social engineering. Good riddance!
Elizabeth Goldstein-Rice	Columbia, MD	2015-07-13	This generation needs to put its mark on place names, removing those that evoke a way way bygone era of which we are not proud.

Curtis Brown	Goochland, VA	2015-07-13	People need to know more before they dismiss problems as unimportant. Clinging to the way things used to be just because that's how they used to be is an awful thing.
Greg Marrs	Midlothian, VA	2015-07-13	because "obvious"
Indigo Gregory	Temple Hills, MD	2015-07-13	I'm signing here because its time to remove all the negative memorials honoring those who's honored slavery its history and should be left in the past. With little acknowledgment in history books . They hurt my people for decades we fought to long and hard for this to still be able to be in our faces is disrespectful.
greg fleming	Norfolk, VA	2015-07-13	i do not agree with racism!
ernest ackermann	fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-13	I'm tired of the embarrassment of living near a road named for a person who was the leader of a group to destroy our nation.
William Collins	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	For all the time I visited Virginia and since 1990 when I moved to Alexandria, I have been disturbed by this memorializing of someone who turned against his country to uphold human slavery.
dave ubastards	Chesterfield, VA	2015-07-13	Go to hell. Fuk you wiggers and niggers. Leave shiit alone. i'm starting a petition to keep the name.
Korey Johnson	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-13	I am a person who had family who land was stolen in Prince William County and an Afrcan American from Octoroon and Malatto descent. We are also relatively related to Vice President Richard Mentor Johnson and believe that hates committed by the State which succeeded are still not repared. We see Jeff Davis as a war criminal and deserves not recognition by treason.
Patrick Smith	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	We shouldn't name roads after traitors who fought to defend slavery.
Theodore Evans	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	The time has come to stop aggrandizing the confederacy. They lost the war! My great-grand-father died at Andersonville Prison.
Michael Castelle	Petersburg, VA	2015-07-13	I would like the name of this highway to be more inclusive to all who live in the state and not just those who want to perpetuate a legacy of hate and shame.
Thomas Johnson	Upper Marlboro, MD	2015-07-13	Long over due
ROY ROBERTS	Ft Belvoir, VA	2015-07-13	I don't want this radist, slave owner memorialized as some kind of a hero.
Paul Baldwin	Culpeper, VA	2015-07-13	Davis played a big part in our nation's history and his name should stay!
Shaun hickman	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-13	it is time for change and his name represents hate
JACQUELINE ROBINSON	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-13	Tji
Josh Bearman	richmond, VA	2015-07-13	It is an easy way to make a big difference and show that we are attempting to move into the 21st century and erase the revisionist history that portrays traitors as heroes.
Larry Penwell	Tall Timbers, MD	2015-07-13	It is an insult to so many Americans, specifically those who suffered the injustice of slavery, those who died to bring it to an end, and to all their ancestors
Rob Bies	Henrico, VA	2015-07-13	It's 2015 - how is this STILL the name of this road? Shameful.
Matthew Peters	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	It needs to change. Perhaps other historical Virginians Like Thomas Jefferson
Lisa Johnson	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	I've lived in this area for 50 years. Even as a kid I couldn't believe there was a street named after a traitor and a white supremacist.

john decola	Dover, DE	2015-07-13	Change nothing, because Lincon had slaves as well as Washington. And the US flag flew over slaves ships that brought them here against their will. So left rname all the washington names And remove Lincoln.. (the emancipation proclamation only freed slaves in the south BTW) not the north.
Kristy Esparza	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	I have winced at these street signs ever since I moved to Alexandria in 2008. The city is experiencing an exciting time of growth and renewal, and renaming Highway 1 would be a positive step for the future of the community.
Nicolas McCarthy-Rivera	North Garden, VA	2015-07-13	We have greater people of Virginia to memorialize than him.
Claude Ranson	Chester, VA	2015-07-13	The neighborhoods and areas that we live in should reflect the views and ideas of the poeple that live there. Jefferson Davis (as well as all of other Confederate leaders) were "as a point in "Fact" by definition treasonist, and racist, and we should not pay tribute to individuals .
Roger Smith	Kenbridge, VA	2015-07-13	It's a racist name that needs to go
George Dow	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	I feel Jefferson Davis has no place in Richmond and certainly doesn't represent Richmond's people,
Jeff Peters	Glen Allen, VA	2015-07-13	The south lost the war and they need to get over it already. Stop celebrating unconstitutional bigots.
Carla Gullatt	Silver Spring, MD	2015-07-13	The moment is now to stop perpetuating racism, racist ideology and bigotry.
Brenda Martin	Chesterfield, VA	2015-07-13	Jefferson Davis Highway has been that for over 100 years. Please please do not listen to a few people we are Virginia it is part of our History. Please keep it Jefferson Davis Highway.
Mike "Celtic Warrior" O'Brien	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-13	We need to rid the roads, highways named after him and other confederat generals. We have come to far to keep recognizing a painful part of history
Mary Berrey	Dewitt, VA	2015-07-13	I am morally opposed to slavery
Eric Lorentzen	Chesterfield, VA	2015-07-13	I do think that it is time to rename Jeff Davis Hwy.
Tameia Dale	Hopewell, VA	2015-07-13	I want the legacy of subjugation, slavery, and honoring those who promoted it whole-heartedly to end.
Paul Donaldson	Arlington, VA	2015-07-13	It is time we purged these symbols and names of those who committed treason against the United States from out public areas.
Carol Schmidt	Waianae, HI	2015-07-13	I agree with the reasoning
Carla Hass	State College, PA	2015-07-13	I grew up in Virginia and now live in Pennsylvania. It is time to stop honoring those who tried to tear the country apart.
Melanie Gormus	Buckingham, VA	2015-07-13	They have taken this stuff to far!!! It's not right to change history! Change MLK then!
Jessica Gibson	Harpers Ferry, WV	2015-07-13	The only place these people need their names mentioned is museums and history books. Any place that is named after a Confederate needs to be re-named immediately. Stop glorifying these stains on history.
Eric Redfern	Ruther Glen, VA	2015-07-13	I agree, change the name'
Jesse Wilinski	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-13	I signed this petition because a public road should not be named after a Traitor.
Maria Cabrera	Chesterfield, VA	2015-07-13	Traitors to the USA and humanity should not be honored in any way.
Gerrard Gibbs	Colonial Heights, VA	2015-07-13	Its time we take ALL Americans into consideration
Gary Peterson	Chester, VA	2015-07-13	Just wrong. People need to learn their true history.
Paul Zimmermann	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	I don't think Virginia should honor a non- Virginian, who was a slave holder, a standard bearer for slavery, and a traitor with his name on a highway

Norris Agnew	Catharpin, VA	2015-07-13	While stationed in Europe for more than three years as an Active Duty Air Force member, I was troubled by the treatment I often received whenever I traveled to former Soviet bloc countries in Eastern Europe (I'm black, and apparently things haven't changed much in some of those areas). When I returned to the U.S. in 2014, I settled in the DMV region and felt as if I had finally arrived "home" due to the celebration, not just tolerance, of cultural diversity. But once when I made a trip into Northern Virginia to do some sightseeing with my family, I discovered that one of the main thoroughfares running through Alexandria is named after Jefferson Davis, president of the confederacy. My first thought was, "Et tu, DMV?" I can sorta understand former Soviet Bloc nations being behind the times, but the metropolitan area surrounding our nation's capital???
Andrew Finch	Longview, TX	2015-07-13	We need to stop supporting racism and hatred in all areas much as possible.
Angry Liberal Steve LaDouche	Arlington, VA	2015-07-13	We should also take down the Washington Memorial! George Washington owned slaves so he was a terrible American!!!
Iou greener	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-13	do not think that Confederates should be honored
Donovan Powell	Washington, DC	2015-07-13	Time for a change.
Lee G Warren	Arlington, VA	2015-07-13	The time to honor these traitors ended 150 years ago.
Gary Thabet	Glen Allen, VA	2015-07-13	Although I am white, the idea of slavery offends me greatly. And no matter what anyone says the reason for the Civil War...many say states rights...it was about slavery...states rights to have slavery. Some say that slave owners took good care of their slaves...dumb argument. One human being cannot own another human being. Its wrong. So to memorialize is wrong. Time to change...time to get along...time to so no to racism and the vestiges of a divided nation. We are the United States of America.
Barbara Radwan-Wiehe	Arlington, VA	2015-07-13	It is wrong to honor someone who fought for the South. Many people today are offended and rightly so by these reminders.
Virginia Peoples	Norfolk, VA	2015-07-13	why are peoples trying to ease history it's 2015 people get over hang onto something that happen so long ago. Have you not heard it's 2015
Brian Archer	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	This is one of many changes that have been long overdue.
Diana Maxwell	Chesterfield, VA	2015-07-13	We no longer live in the 19th century.
James Padilioni Jr	Lansdowne, PA	2015-07-13	As a mixed race former resident of Arlington, this highway constantly reminded me of how my tenuous place in this civil body politic has only been recently tolerated. My enslaved ancestors who lived, loved, cried, and died in Virginia going back over 250 years are equally a part of Virginia's heritage, and I'm tired of the heritage argument only being used for the heritage of White people. We have always shared this commonwealth, but now is the time to embrace that fact and consciously work on improving it.
Justina Fowler	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	Because I Am A Black Woman Who Is Very Knowledgeable About Virginia Slavery & Racist History & Jefferson Davis Was A Staunch Supporter Of Keeping Slavery And Fought Under The Confederate Flag To Uphold His Rights As Well As The Rights Of All White Virginians Who Were All For Keeping The Ungodly & Inhumane Business Of Slavery Alive & Legal For Virginia & All Of The Southern States!
Ananias Jones	Henrico, VA	2015-07-13	We should not memorialize those who suppressed our human rights. He was a slave owner and a criminal.

Joy Kenney	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	We must honestly move forward and we can only do this by no longer honoring those who championed slavery and divisiveness. Going to schools, entering building and driving on roads paid for with tax money that have confederate names is hurtful to African Americans and shameful to us all.
Chris Hoffman	Mechanicsville, VA	2015-07-13	I'm signing because I feel it's high time we stopped treating traitors like hero's. I don't see a veitcong, taliban, or al qeada monument in our country and they didn't kill anywhere near as many of our soldiers as the traitorous south.
Karen Vieira-Verdi	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-13	No one celebrates Hitler, or leaders of the SS, with a main thoroughfare, despite believing in their cause. Because it was misguided and wrong. The main propellant of the Civil War was slavery, a morally, ethically and generally wrong way of treating human beings.
Sinic Staton	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-13	It never should have been named that to begin with, WTF people?
val walker	decature, GA	2015-07-13	There is enough pain and separation
Jennifer Gray	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-13	The physical form of slavery is no longer in existence, and no longer should there be publicized visual memorandum of someone who believed strongly in slavery. Praising a person who believed that a human being is less than human simply due to their color & ethnicity brings a sense of satisfaction to those who choose to continue to believe in our Nation's horrific, troubled, and true past, and it gives those the will and emotion to treat others who are different with acts of racism and hate. To claim that it is "Southern Heritage" to memorialize a thoroughfare after someone who believed it was the right of a white man to rape black women (I'm sure black men and children as well), to claim another as property, to sell one as property, to beat until the will to live out of a human, to kill at will if one tried to run for their freedom...if one believes this man is a historical figure in the plight of "Southern Heritage," then one is truly out of touch with heritage of any kind. It's 2015, I shouldn't have to drive on a road named after a racist slave owner. Please change the name!
Henry winston	Chester, VA	2015-07-13	I'm signing the petition because I don't think we should be honoring anyone that think it was okay to slave another.
maria tanksley	aurora, IL	2015-07-13	There's no room for any white supremacist, road, bridge or otherwise!
Sean Lacy	Castle Hayne, NC	2015-07-13	It is time to put an end to celebrating those who were pro-slavery and truly not for equal rights for ALL people!
Leona Sakura	Santos, France	2015-07-13	I didn't realize terrorists could get highways named after them; pardon my language, but that's pretty fucked up.
Justiin Banks	Richmond, VA	2015-07-13	It's the right thing to do.
Mark Nusbaum	Petersburg, VA	2015-07-13	We live in the United States, not the Confederate States. All the flags, and people who were on the Confederate side need to be in history books and museums not Everywhere we look.
Robert Goschy	Arlington, VA	2015-07-13	It's about time.
Edward Sebesta	Dallas, TX	2015-07-13	I am a published expert on the Jefferson Davis Highway. It is the lost highway to white supremacy. I was published in a journal at Cambridge University. I can help you get rid of it.

Edwin C. King	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-13	I come from the deep South, Dixie, Georgia. I had ancestors who shed blood for the Confederacy. I lived in the South When the Democrat WhitePrimary was the real election aa no one else ran for office. I saw the South, almost overnight, after the Civil and Voting Rights Acts were passed by Democrats, become solid Republican. I now long to see my beloved South turn its back on the "Old South" and look for a better future. To do that it MUST remove the flags, statues, building and road names that inflame, remind and perpetuate the superior race concept. It is long past due.
Jeff Bond	Petersburg, VA	2015-07-13	I am so glad people are starting to more widely recognize how totally disgusting it is to honor racist Confederate leaders. I'm tired of the rebel flags and the claim of heritage. It's a heritage of racism and pure evil!
Colin Leach	Catonsville, MD	2015-07-13	There is no justifiable reason to name any public thoroughfare after the leader of the failed rebellion. None.
Jonathan Alvarado	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-14	Is pure evil!
Arthur McBeath	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-14	It needs to change in this day and time
Seth Barch	HARRISONBURG, VA	2015-07-14	It's unacceptable to be honoring a traitor who had his citizenship revoked for his crimes against the country and constitution.
Michael Day	Catonsville, MD	2015-07-14	Because while it is not my place to tell folks in Virginia whom to name their roads after, nevertheless, were I to be polled I would vote for changing that roads name. Perhaps to General Patton Highway?

Dave Salovesh	Washington, DC	2015-07-14	150 years after the Civil War we're long overdue putting those who were on the wrong side of history, justice, and humanity in places of honor.
Sybil Lee	Bowling Green, VA	2015-07-14	The name of a racist, separatist confederate hero is an affront to any intelligent modern society.
Jared Jackson	Glen Allen, VA	2015-07-14	Simply change the name to Jefferson Highway after TJ. Could just paint green over Davis! No new sign necessary!

Maureen Anderson	Mahtomedi, MN	2015-07-14	All americans despise slavery.
Dave Salmon	Arlington, VA	2015-07-14	U.S. 1 should be renamed for Sam Houston - a Virginia-born white Southern civil war era patriot, Governor, U.S. Senator, and President of the Republic of Texas who opposed secession & slavery. Unlike Davis and Lee who could not who could not resist the call of their beloved Virginia and Mississippi, Sam Houston warned his people and defied his beloved Texas when it joined the confederacy.

Dane Burke	Henrico, VA	2015-07-14	It is past time to fight back! we are constantly reminded that we were slaves here in the state of Virginia. Our names and history have been wiped out and those that consistently and intentionally did evil and wrong stand above us in the form of statues and other negative reminders and are remembered and idolized. Yet we live under a so called constitution that says one nation under God with liberty and justice for all. I'm confused! does this apply to all non African Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans and Asians? will we ever be one nation under God?
Anthony Breda	Reston, VA	2015-07-14	We should honor only honorable people
Heather Seashols	West Point, VA	2015-07-14	I feel we should stop honoring people that have done atrocities in our past.
Ellen Hunt	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-14	Jeff Davis Hwy needs to be renamed asap.
Brandi Jenkins	Dorchester, MA	2015-07-14	I'm a Virginia native and I'm currently in the process of moving back. I want to know that my State is changing for the better.
Robert Arvizu	Henrico, VA	2015-07-14	Whether Southerners are sincere, or deluded, it doesn't matter: Southern states seceded, and started the Civil War ... all to preserve slavery, an abomination.
Lisa Jacobs	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-14	The whole thing is offensive. Change it.
Ankine Dolabdjian	Montevideo, Uruguay	2015-07-14	Vivi 11años en Richmond;VA y sé que en este Estado existen muchas cosas deplorables de la época de la Confederación. Un verdadero atraso
Andre Roy	King George, VA	2015-07-14	you should change the name of the highway
Nichole Brunk	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-14	It glorifies one of the ugliest chapters in Virginia history. Change is needed.
Randy Haase	Petersburg, VA	2015-07-14	Leave name as is...
patricia morris	Petersburg, VA	2015-07-14	i w
Denise Brown	Arlington, VA	2015-07-14	Our state should no longer memorialize the leader of a racist lost cause. We should be honoring heroes and upstanding citizens.
Despina Belle-Isle	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-14	It's time to face reality. This is not someone who we should be celebrating. It's someone we should be ashamed of.
Alexandra Walker	Waterford, VA	2015-07-14	I'm signing because, as a Virginian, I want my state to renounce its racist past. We're better than that.
Jonathan Markman	Washington, DC	2015-07-14	This man and his cause do not deserve celebration in the 21st Century.
Ted Perih	Falls Church, VA	2015-07-14	It's not right
tessa Barsic	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-14	You shouldn't memorialize hatred and ignorance.
Sarah Pray	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-14	Time to reflect the America of today! Change the name, Gov. McAuliffe!
Merritt Kim	Petersburg, VA	2015-07-14	My opinion is that this negative part of history needs to be replaced with one of today's heroes who has accomplished more than champion of slavery.
Linda Carew	East Providence, RI	2015-07-14	I signed this petition because I think this should have never been done.
Crystal Bethea	Portsmouth, VA	2015-07-14	It's Time For CHANGE! #InTheRightDirection
Dwan Sturtevant	Richmond, VA	2015-07-14	There is no honor for those who defend slavery.
Bobby Hansford Jr.	fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-14	Glorifying a renowned racist is offensive and outdated. Let's choose a more politically correct name for this highway.
Aubrey Carew	PROVIDENCE, RI	2015-07-14	Aubrey M. Carew
Francena Reed	Petersburg, VA	2015-07-14	I think this is the right thing to do. It should have been done years ago.
Joshua Vaughan	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-14	Having a major road through Alexandria and Arlington named for a racist traitor is unconscionable. All sections named for Jefferson Davis should be renamed Richmond Highway.

charlotte polaski	Richmond, VA	2015-07-14	Its time to end hatred
Channon Doughty	San Pedro, CA	2015-07-14	So you threw this bone to the racists when you were still trying to appease them. Now it's time to honor those he wanted to remain enslaved
Aaron Pollock	Henrico, VA	2015-07-14	Jefferson Davis lost "The War" and what he and his cronies stood for the day the war ended & the South died. It is offensive to African Americans, Whites, and many other ethnic groups to still have this old highway name for him. Especially considering it runs through the entirety of South Richmond, a predominately Black and impoverished area of town infested w/ crack, heroin, and violence. Almost like ole "Jeff" got his way..So On a side note... I and many others ALSO wish that Monument Avenue here in Richmond were completely changed. All of the Confederate Statues should be moved to a historical "park" somewhere and replaced with monuments that reflect the present values of the City of Richmond. Arthur Ashe can stay but I am not a fan of the design of that statue. It looks as though he is pulling the books away from the children and threatening them with his tennis racket... but at least it is of a positive figure representing Richmond. I am sure the people of Richmond could come up with much more positive historical figures from Richmond to fill those spots on our "beloved" Monument Avenue.
Iretha Coleman	Camden, NJ	2015-07-14	Virginia is my home state
Henry Chinn	Ruther Glen, VA	2015-07-14	It is time to stop honoring a traitor to The United States of America
Travis Shavers	Midlothian, VA	2015-07-14	Don't agree with the name
Diane Gray	Baltimore, MD	2015-07-14	Begin the conversation by removing the symbols of racism. Start the healing by recognizing the trauma. I suffer from PTSD of Slavery.
Jeffrey Imm	Olney, MD	2015-07-14	Jefferson Davis was the leader of a racist slavery enemy of the United States, who led the effort to kill 400,000 American patriots. We should not have anything named or memorialized after him. It is a monument to White Supremacy.
John Chilton	Richmond, VA	2015-07-14	Some things are easy to change. This is one of them.
James Harris	Richmond, VA	2015-07-15	IT SHOULD BE RENAME FAIR IS FAIR
JEFF SMULYAN	Arlington, VA	2015-07-15	I'm signing this petition because I live on Jefferson Davis Highway and he does NOT deserve a road named after himself who was a slave owner and a hater of others.....it should be renamed George Washington Highway or Thomas Jefferson Highway....anything but Jefferson Davis Highway.
P Simon	Chester, VA	2015-07-15	Inappropriate for. A major roadway whatsoever. A person willing to extend and expand slavery is not fit to be recognized at any government level.
Robert Watlington	Petersburg, VA	2015-07-15	It's time to remember honorable role models. Not people who did harm to human life.
Scott Morgan	Lake Hopatcong, NJ	2015-07-15	Why have we named a highway that goes right by the Pentagon and Arlington National Cemetery after an infamous traitor who committed treason for a cause – as President and Gen. Ulysses S. Grant put it: "...one of the worst for which a people ever fought, and one for which there was the least excuse."
Rami Shabazz	Richmond, VA	2015-07-15	It's time to move this country forward
Corey Willis	Midlothian, VA	2015-07-15	Country shouldn't have landmarks that represent any type of slavery
Mathew Feehan	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-15	We should not memorialize people who are traitors that seceded from the United States. This man would have seen our country split in two and enslaved a whole race of people. Let's move on from the Civil War.

Name	Location	Date	Comment
William Werner	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-07-15	This has gone on for far too long. The Civil War is over and it's time for the offspring and supporters of the vanquished to stop pretending it's still going on and/or that the South won. Slavery was and remains a terrible crime against humanity and ought not be glorified.
Dave Munson	Arlington, VA	2015-07-15	I don't know any other country that would name anything after someone who wanted to destroy that country for reasons that are counter to the ideals of said country. Jefferson Davis was anti-American, and a United States Route should not bear his name any more than it should Benedict Arnold, Poncho Villa, or Fidel Castro.
Nakej'a Smith	Richmond, VA	2015-07-15	The title is correct...
William Schorr	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-15	Memorializing one of the greatest traitors to the USA is a continuing insult to the state of Virginia and it's inhabitants.
Gilbert Johnson	Bethesda, MD	2015-07-15	I believe that it is a disgrace to so honor a man who took up arms to preserve slavery by dismembering the United States of America.
Kern Kelton	Washington, DC	2015-07-15	Jefferson Davis was a traitor and a seditionist he does not need to be memorialised in any way.
Aderajew Hailu	Lorton, VA	2015-07-15	Adeajew Hailu
Deb S	Rockville, MD	2015-07-15	It's time. Heck, it's PAST time.
william ridgeway	Stafford, VA	2015-07-15	they lost the war ...why are we honoring a traitor?
Dorothea Barstow	Great Mills, MD	2015-07-15	I do not support treason .
Marisha Goodman	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-15	I'm signing for those who would have but could not because exercising their civil liberties would/could have cost them their lives. I'm signing because route one should be named after someone who loves/loved America and worked to make it even more united instead of divided.
Ruth Larsen	New London, WI	2015-07-16	35 years ago driving down this highway between Annandale/7 Corners & FairOaks, I would think, "Why in the hell did they name this stretch after that loser? What a damn insult! They must think we're some kind of dunderheaded dinosaurs." AND STILL hasn't changed?!! Glad I didn't raise my very white kids in VA. because this indicates a very low level of education, emotional intelligence and dedication to ALL the citizens of your state. You can't prove "Virginia Is for Lovers" by hating on so many of your people the way the name of this slaver secessionist does. There are all kinds of historic figures that rise and fall in prominence and if you think Jefferson Davis is more honorable than tragic, you are wrong.
Michael Castellano	Arlington, VA	2015-07-16	It's time to move on to a new chapter of American history that includes and shows respect for everyone. Jefferson Davis can still be recognized as a part of history without forcing Virginians and other Americans to drive down a highway honoring someone that they believe represents actions and values anathema to America's core ideals.
Lauren McCone	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-16	Speaks for itself- seems absurd not to!
Martha Fitzgerald	Windermere, FL	2015-07-16	We need to the legacy of the purveyors of hatred and division where it belongs, in the history books.
Margaret Tucker	Richmond, VA	2015-07-16	The actions and life of Jefferson Davis should not be honored in any way.
Terry Walz	Washington, DC	2015-07-17	I grew up in Virginia and I strongly object to honoring the leader of the rebellion against the United States.
Raymond patton	Richmond, VA	2015-07-17	Because Jefferson Davis was a person who believed in slavery and caught for this disgusting treatment of my ancestors to continue.
Douglas Himes	Alexandria, VA	2015-07-17	I am a patriot and I love the United States of America.

David Smith	Hampton, VA	2015-07-18	We should not honor those who fought against our country.
Craig Robertson	Richmond, VA	2015-07-18	I don't think streets or schools or anything should be named after traitors.
Akwasi T-Kodua	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-18	I think we are in the 21 century and moving forward so any backward mentality to support slavery and racism must be left on the way
Samir Salifou	Charlottesville, VA	2015-07-19	I am an African American man that has to drive on Route 1, a road that is named for a man, who if he had won his war against America, would have maintained an institution where I would be a second class human with no rights under the constitution. It is despicable and shameful that Virginia chooses to honor such an individual at the expense of all those would have been subjected to his madness.
Julia Buchanan	Woodbridge, VA	2015-07-20	Ask the question, would YOU want to be a slave? If you would not mind, then don't sign this petition. If you do mind being a slave, then sign this petition.
Allen Muchnick	Manassas, VA	2015-07-21	Stop memorializing slavery and white supremacy.
Scott Harding	Manassas, VA	2015-07-21	A road should not be, and should never have been, memorialize a man who claimed to be "president" of an illegal confederacy that supported nationally-institutionalized slavery and led a rebellion against the United States.
Tanya Cuevas	Lorton, VA	2015-07-21	These people shouldnt be celebrated in anyway and what they stood for is a crime to humanity!
Rhinda Pleasure	Sterling, VA	2015-07-21	It's time...why keep the name of an American road after a clearly dicymented white supremacist.
Inti Urcuchillay	Fort Lauderdale, FL	2015-08-06	Stop Memorializing a Slave Owner and White Supremacist: Rename Jefferson Davis Highway
Kathy Quivis	Woodbridge, VA	2015-08-08	its time to remove all symbols of slavery
Warren Dahlstrom	Arlington, VA	2015-08-24	Yes! Rename it. Grow up Virginia. Let's move into the 21st Century! signed, a lifelong Virginia navite aaron montana	Fredericksburg, VA	2015-09-05	There is no place in our country for any public place or institution to be named after a traitor to our nation, particularly anyone like Davis, who fought to defend slavery.
Kate Woods	Carthage, NC	2015-09-08	It is inappropriate to have a public roadway named after a white supremacist and slave owner. This is offensive to many of us who drive on it.
