Subject: Robyn Konkel - AHAAC

Gloria, thank you for offering to circulate this email to City Council, endorsing Robyn Konkel, who is currently serving in the practicing attorney position on Alexandria Housing Affordability Advisory Committee (AHAAC).

Robyn has been an extremely dedicated and active member of the Committee. During her tenure on AHAAC, she has become very knowledgeable regarding affordable housing development and finance and provides great insights and perspectives on the issues presented and discussed. Robyn has served as Chair for the past year, and on Thursday night, was unanimously elected to serve again as Chair through the current fiscal year.

As Chair, Robyn manages the Committee's discussions well, including on complex policy issues, makes sure all members speak and are heard, and seeks consensus when possible. She takes AHAAC's advisory role seriously, and often takes the lead in drafting memos to the Planning Commission or City Council on development cases so AHAAC's views may be considered on projects that involve housing affordability issues. Robyn also provides an informed housing affordability perspective as a resident-member of the Braddock Implementation Advisory Group.

Robyn's service has been an asset to AHAAC and to the City.

Helen
