Aloused			Alexandria. He was a major in the 3rd Virginia Regiment in 1776, and he joined Washington's staff as an aide-de-camp to Gen Washington in November of that year. Fitzgerald was wounded at the battle of Monmouth, and he resigned from the army shortly thereafter. He returned to his business in Alexandria, and at one point he helped supply American prisoners-of-war. Col Fitzgerald was elected mayor of Alexandria in 1783. His friendship with Gen Washington continued after the war, when he was a guest at Mount Vernon. Also, during Washington's presidency, he was appointed a local collector of customs. On March 17, 1788, Col John Fitzgerald hosted a dinner for prominent Maryland and Virginia citizens at his home in Alexandria, hoping to raise building funds for the first permanent Catholic parish in the Commonwealth. It is asserted by the Church that verified documentation from the period exists to prove that General George Washington himself made a contribution to the fund. Col Fitzgerald was a prominent figure in the history of Alexandria as a patriot, businessman and citizen. it is very appropriate that the park at the end of King St be named after Col John F Fitzgerald.

Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	The history behind Colonel (Mayor) Fitzgerald in the city of Alexandria is fascinating. Naming the park something generic like "the park at King St" would be disappointing and unbecoming of such a waterfront park. Alexandria's history can more thoroughly be appreciated through legendary men and women such as Col. Fitzgerald and their stories. Let's face it, Alexandria can learn how to market to tourists the way Charleston does. Charleston is a draw for visitors because it has historic significance and an allure that cannot be suppressed. Let Alexandria shine through her history. Least of all don't PC police it down to the naming of a park to "Park" just not to offend anyone.

Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Fitzgerald Square is historically relevant, since Mr Fitzgerald was responsible for the land being created-pushing the bluff into the water from his land at the top of the hill. His warehouse sits adjacent to the park. He was a prominent early city father. This would be a tribute to Pat Troy and his efforts to acknowledge John Fitzgerald.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	History, our heritage and where we come from are important. Alexandria is uniquely privileged in our participation in history and this brings people, culture, and perspective which is sorely needed in today's world.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Let's honor what the late Pat Troy set out to do. To name a small plot of land and dedicate it to a man who did so much for the City of Alexandria, Colonel John Fitzgerald.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Old Town is revered because of its' history dating back to the revolutionary times. Col Fitzgerald is not only part of Alexandria's revered history, but was instrumental in laying the foundation of Alexandria and in particular the Old Town area - making it the historic area that it is today. It is fitting and proper that the park commemorate his contribution to our town.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	It is the original name and keeps the past alive by honoring a person from the founding of Alexandria and an important fighter for our independence.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Fitzgerald Square
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	The name connects with Alexandria's waterfront history, honors an Irish immigrant who was a close friend of George Washington, a founder of St. Mary's Church, and a non-sectarian - something significant now. His assistant, Guy Atkinson, a Protestant immigrant from Northern Ireland, became a founder of St. Paul's Episcopal Church when the split occurred within Christ Church.

Another Alexandrian close to George Washington, he served as the general's aide-de-camp and was at Valley Forge. Washington wrote a letter supporting Fitzgerald as the Collector of Customs in 1791. A committed citizen and businessman, he was a founder/director of the Alexandria Library, Bank of Alexandria, Potomac Company, and a Catholic who helped in the creation of St. Mary's Church and cemetery. He imported Irish linen with fellow Irishman Peers and exported wheat and then moved on to a wide assortment of European goods and wines. He was also involved in the Wales Brewery located on the 100 block of South Union Street and was a partner with Daniel Roberdeau in a distillery on Wolfe Street. Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	As city staff note, the confusion on whether the park had been formally named should have been clarified years ago. Unfortunately, it's not possible to go back in history to clarify this issue. Similarly, it's not possible to erase the history of an immigrant, war veteran, and former Mayor of our city. Naming the park after Colonel John Fitzgerald is a fitting tribute to his impact during our early years as a city. If concerns remain about his involvement with common practices of that period, then interpretive displays at the park could be used to discuss those issues and how we have progressed as a society today.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	I would like to name the Park Fitzgerald Square Park
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Fitzgerald Square is appropriate given our city's roots.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	The name Fitzgerald Square has been used informally for more than 7 years until the City Council decided to strip the name on St. Patrick's Day. Were Anti Catholic Irish biases at play?

Since 2012, Fitzgerald Square Park was the approved name for the park located at the foot of King Street, and it should be retained. No citizens petitioned for a name change. A public survey and a public hearing were held on Fitzgerald Square Park in 2016. What is the reason behind the arbitrary name change? Bigotry, anti-American Military, anti-American History? American Revolutionary War Veteran Col. John Fitzgerald saved Alexandria from being burned down by the British, was a mayor of Alexandria, started the City Council, founded the Alexandria bank and library, and filled in land to establish current Alexandria Waterfront. Col. Alexandria	Separate Parks	Pat Troy Square	I'd like to honor a more recent great Alexandrian who embodied the spirit of our town.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Pat Troy Square	Pat did a lot for Alexandria as a successful business man and founder of the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade. He is well known and well remembered by thousands in the city.

Alexandria	Separate Parks	Ramsay Park	After William Ramsay, for his forethought in developing and preserving the waterfront land at King Street, as well as for his role in curating and nurturing the establishment of the city.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Rosa Park	We should name it Rosa Park in honor of Rosa Parks
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Sankofa Park	There is a lot of history on the waterfront and in old town Alexandria. My hope is that with some of the new plans, there will be a significant presence of the contributions of those who suffered through the slave trade. Sankofa bird is based on a mythical bird (derived in Ghananian folktales) with its feet firmly planted forward with its head turned backwards. Thus, the believe the past serves as a guide for planning the future. it symbolizes wisdom in learning from the past which ensures a strong future. Belief that there must be movement and new learning as time passes. As this forward march proceeds, the knowledge of the past must never be forgotten.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Sarah Brady Memorial Park	Sarah Brady, a long-time resident of Alexandria, devoted herself to the service of others, including to residents of Alexandria and the nation. She demonstrated that one person could make a difference. Best known as the leader of the movement to pass the federal Brady Bill, Sarah was also a teacher in Alexandria in the 1960s. Sarah grew up in Alexandria (including in Park Fairfax), lived here as an adult (including on Lee St) and retired here at the Goodwin House. It would be fitting to have a park or monument named for a woman who made such a positive impact on the lives of so many others in Alexandria and beyond.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Scotland Yard	A nod to the city's Scottish heritage, and a little cheeky at that.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Seaport Park	John Alexander was the founder of alexandria. The area was used to land ships that had arrived from the West Indies and Europe and Africa. So it was a landing for ships, a Seaport.

Alexandria	Separate Parks	Solomon Northup Memorial Park	I think that with the continued gentrification of Old Town we need to recognize the history of the area a little more by naming the park after an African American with ties to Alexandria. I think Solomon Northup deserves to have a park named after him. Or any black educator or artist who made an impact here.
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Something that reflects a modern comm	See above. A strong Alexandrian community leader who contributed strongly to the welfare of the city â€" perhaps someone who helped children. This person should have no connection to slavery or any type of racism.

Alexandria	Separate Parks	Ticer Corner	for Patsy & Jack Ticer, who both served and loved this City, Patsy as its first female mayor and later State Senator!
Alexandria	Separate Parks	Ticer Park	The Ticer family has an active history of supporting and working for Alexandria. Edmund Ticer, was mayor from 1932 to 1934. His son, Jack, grew up on South Fairfax Street in Alexandria, and, except for his time in college and the military, never lived more than seven blocks from his childhood home. He graduated in 1940 from George Washington High School. He served on the Alexandria City Council in the 1950s and '60s. He voted against an urban renewal project that ultimately resulted in the demolition of three blocks of Old Town Alexandria. He became an early leader of Alexandria's historic preservation movement and, for the rest of his life, was strongly opposed to widespread urban renewal efforts. Patsy Ticer, Jack's wife, grew up in Alexandria, Virginia and graduated from George Washington High School. She served on the Alexandria City Council in the 1980s. She then served as Mayor of Alexandria from 1991 to 1996 followed by service in the Senate of Virginia from 1996 to 2011. Other members of the family continue to be active in the community. Note - I have not suggested this idea to the Ticer family and the information in this suggestion has been found on various websites. I believe it to be accurate.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Alexandria Arts Park	Emphasizes Alexandria's arts reputation and makes sense near the Torpedo Factory and with the public art there.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Alexandria City Park	We should avoid naming the park after a specific person, as I feel the name should be something all Alexandrians can identify with and that supports tourism and our image. Honoring a person, while well intentioned, would likely only support a select group and risks becoming obscure over time. This may be one of the most featured parks in Old Town, it should tie into our identity.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Alexandria City Park	Why not make it simple and just use the city's name?
Alexandria	Single Parks	Alexandria Gateway Park	something along those lines
Alexandria	Single Parks	Alexandria Riverfront Park	Make it easy to remember; easy to understand; branded for our city; and please do not name it after any one person.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Brent, Barrett, Jacobs Central Vision Park	Historically important visionary women in the history of Alexandria Harriet Jacobs, Kate Waller Barrett, and Margaret Brent. They were centrally focused on a vision to empower women and social justice.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Celebration Park	While historical names are great, I think it's inportant to name a park for what it aspires to become. My hope is that Alexandria celebrates family, friends, community, and togetherness. In such a divisive political climate, I think this is the chance for our community to embrace our individual differences and come together to celebrate what untied our community. My hope is that this park is full of people (and dogs) of all different backgrounds and hosts a variety of celebrations.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Citizen's Landing	No other comments
Alexandria	Single Parks	Citizens Park	I am hopeful a name that is given to the park that pays homage to all citizens of Alexandria, without highlighting the historical atrocities that Alexandria participated in during its infancy.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Citizen's Park	You could honor Alexandria's Citizens who have made significant contributions to the city by listing them somewhere, the list would be added to over time as significant contributions (such as political, artistic/cultural, scientific, social) are made. In contrast to Founder's park which is a static in its history. This park could be as dynamic as the city itself growing as the city grows. Lastly, there could be ways to promote art and culture in the park by having featured exhibits devoted to the various figures or organizations. This could be done in collaboration with the Art League and other groups in the city.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald	Fitzgerald was a founding father of this city, one who I was never really aware of, in 25
		ľ	years of living here, until this controversy arose. From what I know about Old Town (probably about the same as the average visitor), it was all John Carlyle and Scottish or English folks. Put his name on the park and let's talk about it. Honor Pat Troy's memory by following his recommendation. Be honest about it and set up informational displays about African Slavery, Irish & English Slavery, "transportation," the difference between slavery and indenture. I was never much of a history buff until recently, but would you believe I was over 50 years old before I learned about the white slavery that took place alongside the African slave trade? Granted, there are astounding differences between the two communities in both numbers and outcomes, but I feel cheated that no one taught about transportation in school, at least when I was there. Most Americans don't even know that there was a white slave trade. Put the actual facts on signs, along with the context of the period, not some bullshit rumors about his involvement with slavery. It's not pretty, but the only way past it is through honest, open dialog. Shying away from it is hiding the skeletons in the closet.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Park	I believe the city should stay with the original name proposal. His significant and noteworthy contributions to Alexandria and the country are worthy of commemorating.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Colonel Fitzgerald was a good friend and Aide-de-Camp to President Washington during the Revolutionary war. Fitzgerald, like many people in Alexandria, came to this country as an immigrant, and displayed during his life good citizenship. He served as Mayor, he started a library, he contributed to Universities such as Georgetown and contributed to helping to start St. Mary Church, the first Catholic Church in Virginia. I can think of no better Alexandrian who historically displayed an excellent amount of leadership and good citizenship. Please name this park after him.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Please keep the agreed upon name of Fitzgerald Square.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Fitzgerald Square
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	let's go with what it was prior
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	I don't have any comments.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	No comment just want to honor Colonel Fitzgerald
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	It honors an important figure in Alexandria's deep history.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	None
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	The city needs to stop going back on promises, either explicit or implied, that it makes to its citizens. TC Williams lights, the PY south metro entrance, and many others are recent examples. As a Catholic, I believe we should have some public representation in the city. Also, this would honor Pat Troy's memory, who fought for this name.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Keep the name. It is foolish to change it.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	History is history. We should acknowledge both the good and the bad. Mr. Fitzgerald made significant contributions to Alexandria. To the extent history shows that certain of his choices would not be acceptable now, we have the opportunity to discuss it and to remember not to make choices like that again.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Remember our history
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Honoring a historic figure in Alexandria history.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Colonel John Fitzgerald deserves to be commemorated as proposed in the initial Waterfront plans. He was an aide to George Washington in the Revolutionary War who participated in several pivotal battles, a merchant who constructed several nearby warehouses that remain standing to this day, a customs agent, a delegate to the Virginia House of Burgesses, a Mayor of Alexandria, and a prominent civic leader in the early history of the city. As an Irish Catholic, he also symbolizes the drive of immigrants to succeed in America, despite belonging to what was at that time a persecuted religious minority.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	It is a fitting honor for an important figure in the history of Alexandria and our country.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Thank you
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	I'm in favor of retaining the name "Fitzgerald" for the park, or one of the parks if separate. Alexandria has a strong Irish heritage, and the George Washington association makes this a perfect name.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Return it to its rightful name, please.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Keep Alexandria's rich history of our major players with this name.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Please keep the name as promised last year. It is an appropriate tribute to a great Alexandrian of Irish ancestry, and important to the keeping of Alexandria's history in this great nation.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Fitzgerald Square acknowledges a war hero and a part of Alexandria history. Something like "Waterfront Park" is generic and could be used anywhere in the country. We need a sense of place
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Fitzgerald Square
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Park recognizing a great Alexandrian
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Besides the fact that this is the most appropriate name, much of the marketing for this effort stated the goal was to tie in new development to Alexandria's past. Seems duplicitous now that the park is nearly finished you are kicking Fitzgerald and the Irish Community to the curb
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	This aligns with Alexandria history and is just perfect.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	This name honors Alexandria's history.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Na
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	The City made a huge mistake by stripping this name from the area. We should be emphasizing Alexandria's deep Irish past and current culture, not demeaning it!
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	The City of Alexandria owes it fame to its historic charm. John Fitzgerald was a major part of the City's growth into "a center of large commerce." Please don't be afraid to love and represent history. You already do it through building restrictions, school names, etc. Let's honor and remember an intregal member of Alexandria's history.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	It will help the city return to its former image of Historic Alexandria and not a second rate Georgetown.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Irish immigrant and influential Alexandrian.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Appropriate honor to one of Alexandria's Founding Fathers . It's what people are accustomed to calling it anyway!
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	The park should be named in honor of Colonel Fitzgerald who was so instrumental in Alexandria's history. Put a plaque in the park enumerating all that he contributed to Alexandria.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Thank you.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	I am tired of the City not standing by it's agreements.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	For once, can the city stop changing and re-interpreting fairness; the citizens want elected officials and employees paid by taxes serve the citizens instead of their personal agendas. There is a genuine lack of confidence. Honor the 2012 name and move on to bigger issues. Why are we overcrowded but the city approves more housing units? Why do we lack green space so the city changes the way it computes it? Why do we make traffic decisions in collusion with Metro or to get some "gold star" rating when it impacts citizens that chose to live here because of the way they found it. Do the right thing for the citizens!
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	It will be wonderful to have another green space for Alexandria families to enjoy!
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	N/A
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Why has this become such an issue. I thought it was settled long ago. Leave it alone. Fitzgerald was an important part of our city's history.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	There is still a large presence of Irish Americans in Alexandria who take pride in their heritage.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Meant to select "separate park option"

Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	At some point we have to realize that humans are flawed and accept our history.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Fitzgerald, is an historic figure, a revolutionary war hero who, supported General Washington, was instrumental in securing the freedom of our country and in the founding and early development of Alexandria. It is as fitting that the name Fitzgerald Square be continued, just as it is fitting that the major north-south corridor thru Alexandria continue to be named Washington Street. Also there were many Irish as well as Scots, English and Africans who were early residents in Alexandria. In reviewing the info regarding the naming it is noted that the name "should convey the historic sense of arrival and focus". Certainly Fitzgerald conveys this as he was early to arrive in Virginia and was focused on securing its independence. it goes on to state that the name "should be active and create feelings of celebration and arrival". again the person of Fitzgerald represents arrival much activity in the early history of Alexandria and feelings of celebration after the colonies won their independence.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Just look at the history of Col. Fitzgerald and his contributions to Alexandria.
Alexandria	Single Parks	FITZGERALD SQUARE	Col. John Fitzgerald exemplified outstanding good citizenship, serving as an aide-decamp to General George Washington, he served as Alexandria's Mayor, he started a public library, contributed to Universities (e.g. Georgetown University), he is a war veteran, and contributed to the founding of the Basilica of St. Mary - the first Catholic Church in Virginia.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	History, Heritage, Tradition!
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	р
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Please honor John Fitzgerald.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	No reason to change from the temporary name. Fitzgerald was both a Revolutionary
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	War hero and mayor, and deserves to be honored. John Fitzgerald served as a leader in Alexandria after his service with George Washington in the Revolutionary War. He helped repel a British attack on the city. He formed the St. Mary's Church.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	None
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	History is beautiful. Fitzgerald played a large role in our history and deserves remembrance.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Fitzgerald Is a big part of the cities history and we should consider naming the park after him.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	The old name should be retained
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Restore the name of the park to Fitzgerald Square!
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald square	Keep the Irish heritage naming please
Alexandria	Single Parks	FITZGERALD SQUARE	Col Fitzgerald was an immigrant who made his way in Colonial America. He was a Catholic in Virginia at a time when Catholic churches were not allowed - he worked within the system to make change and raised money to build a church. Anyone today of any religion can appreciate how he worked with leaders of other congregations. He was also mayor and a revolutionary war veteran.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Keep things as planned.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Keep it as was proposed
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square	I feel that Colonel Fitzgerald should be honored.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square (or Park)	There should be some recognition for the Irish community that has helped our city thrive. Removing that hurts our city's proud heritage and tells a vital part of the community that they are not welcome.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square on the Waterfront	Neither King St nor Prince St are common to the entire park as the bulk of the landmass falls between the two so those names are individually marginal. Given the park's location, somewhere in the name should be the reference to the waterfront or the river as the park ends there. Finally, as the original Fitzgerald warehouse is directly across the street, it would be fitting to name the park after Col Fitzgerald tying the new park to local historic reference and paying homage to one of Alexandria's original merchants. I suppose you could try to work "the Strand" into the park name but I don't see that that effort would clarify anything nor improve the final product. Thanks
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square Park	We should judge the man on the whole of his achievements not a singular sin, regardless of how grave. I mean, if Teddy Kennedy had been from Alexandria y'all still would have named stuff after him in spite of, well, you know
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square Park	It is a great name
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square Park	This named has already been vetted and approved Just do it and stop playing shell games
Alexandria	Single Parks	Fitzgerald Square Park	Colonel Fitzgerald's contributions to the founding of our Nation and the City of Alexandria deserve this recognition. Ownership of slaves during an era when it was a pervasive, common practice is not a disqualifying factor.

Those sites would include information about the history of: Irish indentured servants; slaves; Col. John Fitzgerald's development of the Fitzgerald Warehouse, his role in establishing our city's government and his establishing what is now the Basilica of St. Mary; Catholics in the Port City's history; significant Scotsmen; and the role of women in the Port City's colonial development. Benches could be installed noting contemporary cultural heritage leaders like Pat Troy. It could serve as an outdoor museum about the role of the Waterfront in our history and how may heritages have formed the Alexandria of today.

Alexandria	Single Parks	John Fitzgerald Park	I appreciate the concerns about naming the park for a slaveholder, however this is an opportunity to identify an important Alexandria citizen and also to do so in a way that contextualizes his contributions. We cannot remove from history these individual's contributions, but we can acknowledge that deeply flawed people can have a positive impact on our civilization. Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Keystone Park	All descriptions mention that this will be a keystone park for Alexandria. Just seems appropriate to put that in the name.
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Landing	or Waterfront Park

Alexandria
	Single Parks	King Street Landing	Keep the character of Old Town. Could also be King's Landing,
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park	I prefer thinking of the new park as an expansion of the existing park.
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park	It shouldn't be named after a slaveholder.
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park	Name it after a person and someone's precious feelings will be hurt. Though I'm sure
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park	someone will be offended by "King Street Park" anyway. I have no additional comments.
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park King Street Park	I think the City should not consider any name that is in honor of someone. Gov't would Alexandria	Siligie Falks	King Street Fark	do best to recognize the turning tide of this practice. For instance in our own City, the once respected names of past are now quite controversial (street names, TC Williams, etc.). Other instances can be seen in protests that occur when controversial donors are called into question for their actions in their private and professional lives:
			https://www.nytimes.com/2018/03/10/us/met-museum-sackler-protest.html If the City is set on naming the park after a person, they should do a background check and make sure there are no questionable practices of the person/s that may be chosen.

Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park	I recommend ceasing naming government structures after people, living or dead.
		0	There is always a good chance of controversy that has to be addressed with government time when new facts are discovered about people. I think naming should be kept simple. King STreet Park describes the geography of the park as well as provides a strong and recognizable name to tourists and locals alike.
Alexandria	Single Parks	King street park	Fitzgerald was a slave lover, I don't support a park in his name!
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park	Please do not name the park after a slaveholder.
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park	The single park should capture the name King Street Park and serve as the model of revitalization in the Potomac River waterfront in Alexandria.
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park	DO NOT name after slave owner John Fitzgerald!!!!!!!!
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park	None
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park at the Waterfront	I think naming the park something simple is a great and easy way for tourists and locals to know exactly where the park is.
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Park at the Waterfront	I do not support naming the park for a man who was prominent in the history of the City, but who does really represent all the people who lived here at the timeincluding slaves and women.
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Quays	Connects the park to the social and cultural richness of Old Town
Alexandria	Single Parks	King Street Riverfront Park	Using one name to designate the connected areas of the new park and the longtime Waterfront Park would provide a clear, single destination at the foot of King street for

Alexandria	Single Parks	Margaret Brent Park	I believe the park should be named after Margaret Brent. This naming process is an opportunity to highlight an underrepresented group who laid the groundwork for present-day Alexandria, but is rarely seen. According to the official city website, "Alexandria came into existence, in large part, because of its waterfront areaBut in the beginning, all of the land on which Old Town Alexandria is sited once belonged to a remarkable woman, Margaret Brent, considered the first woman lawyer in America and the first woman to seek the right to vote." What better way to honor her ties to the waterfront than with a park in her name? I see no other mention of her in Alexandria's parks or city landmarks. Thank you for considering my opinion and taking the time to read this. If not Margaret Brent, please consider this naming process an opportunity to highlight another underrepresented group who laid the groundwork for present-day Alexandria, but is rarely seen.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Mark Eaton Park	After Mark Eaton of T.C. Williams High School.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Martha Washington Park	Martha Washington Park
Alexandria	Single Parks	Martin Luther King	This large and open public park will be enjoyed by all and, if it is to be named after a famous person, one of those distinguished individuals is undeniably MLK. Not only that, it will casually be called the "King park" by local residents and, due to it being located at the end of King Street, it will help tourists find it more easily as one would expect the King park to be located somewhere on King Street. Our local residents in particular and our American and foreign tourists as a whole would benefit, if only intangibly, by having such a wonderful waterfront public space to be named after MLK. His cause was noble and his name timeless.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Martin Luther king jr. Park	No other sites named after MLK in the city
Alexandria	Single Parks	Mary Ann Shadd Cary Park	I think now is the time to honor not only a black person of note, but a woman and a suffragette as well. We have plenty of monuments to white men, and plenty of monuments to military men. Maybe we can change that up.
Alexandria	Single Parks	McCoy-Thomas Park	Joseph McCoy and Benjamin Thomas were two Alexandria victims of lynching in 1897 and 1899, respectively, according to The National Memorial for Peace and Justice in Montgomery, AL. The park could be a memorial to them and a chance for present healing.

Alexandria Alexandria	Single Parks Single Parks	NOT Fitzgerald Park	no thanks My nameis Jordan Smith and I am a historian of early America at Widener University and a former resident of Alexandria. I have conducted considerable research on Fitzgerald's distillery in Alexandria. I would strongly caution against naming the park Fitzgerald Park given his questionable business practices and his substantial reliance on enslaved workers. I am happy to talk more about my findings and can be reached at: jbsmith3@widener.edu.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Old Town Commons	While the park would be singular, the City of Alexandria and/or interested parties could utilize the entire park or only sections of the Commons, allowing for multiple activities (depending on scope) on a given day. This could allow for more revenue generation for the City of Alexandria and the opportunity to host public space art activation as well as community events.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Port city park	Nope
Alexandria	Single Parks	Port City Park	Name should have something to do with the waterfront and why it's there or keep it simple and go with King Street Park
Alexandria	Single Parks	Port City Park	Port city is the Alexandria nickname
Alexandria	Single Parks	Port City Plaza	Not wedded to this idea, but seems nice to include Port City somewhere since it is not used formally anywhere for city property and we are a Port City.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Potomac Crossroads Park	Alexandria's diverse cultural inhabitants and its historic experience all have 1 thing at its center: its relationship to the Potomac River. By including "Crossroads", the name applies to the experience of Alexandria by all peopleNative Americans, European Immigrants, African and African American Slaves, and the many modern day residents and visitors who inhabit it today.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Ramsay Park	William Ramsay was another of the influential Scots that played a key role in the creation and development of the town. He was born in 1716 in Galloway, Scotland. He emigrated to Dumfries, Virginia, on the Potomac River in 1742. He was, along with John Carlyle, one of the major proponents to establishing a town in the area that became Alexandria. He became one of the first trustees and purchased several lots at the first public auction. According to tradition, Ramsay barged a small clapboard house, constructed in 1724 in Dumfries, up the Potomac River and placed it on his lot, number 47. It is thought that he placed the house facing toward the river so he could watch his trading vessels sail in and out of the harbor. There is another tradition that I have not found any evidence to support, but it states that Ramsay was a very competitive person and sought to be the first person to have a house in the new town. Hence, the barge method. After establishing himself, he engaged in the export-import trade and did very well. He was good friends with George Washington, who was a frequent visitor to his home. His wife, Ann McCarty, a cousin of George Washington through his mother's family, conducted fund-raising campaigns totaling $75,812 for Washington's forces in the Revolutionary War. She was appointed treasurer of Alexandria and Fairfax County for the fund raising effort. Thomas Jefferson praised her efforts by saying, "that the amount collected was large and greatly to her credit, and let us give her all due honor for that work" William Ramsay served Alexandria as a public servant for some 36 years as a town trustee, census taker and member of the Committee of Safety. He was one of the first merchants to build wharves in front of the town. On St. Andrew's Day in 1761, the citizens of Alexandria voted Ramsay the first and only Lord Mayor of Alexandria, a largely honorary title. The ceremony was not without its fanfare. It was described by the Maryland Gazette as including "a grand processionwith drums, trumpet

Alexandria	Single Parks	Richard E. Byrd, Jr Park	Admiral Richard E. Byrd, Jr.: Bravery in War and Peace Perhaps Admiral Richard Byrd was simply destined for greatness. After all, his ancestors were among the "first families" of Virginia and included John Rolfe, Pocahontas and William Byrd, founder of Richmond. But as a naval officer and a pioneer in aviation and arctic exploration, Byrd did plenty to make his own distinct branch on the family tree. He was born in Winchester in 1888, and attended Virginia Military Institute and University of Virginia before graduating from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1912. He served in WWI, earning his pilot wings during his service. After the war, he became a primary force in transatlantic flights and polar exploration, earning credit as the first man to reach both the North and South Pole by air. He served again during World War II, distinguishing himself even further. During his lifetime, he earned 22 citations, 9 for bravery and 2 for life-saving heroism. He also received the Medal of Honor, the Silver Lifesaving Medal, the Navy Distinguished Service Medal, the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Navy Cross. He died in 1957 and was buried at Arlington National Cemetery, but his legacy as a trailblazer has long lived on.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Sankofa	Sankofa is an African word from the Akan tribe in Ghana. The literal translation of the word and the symbol is "it is not taboo to fetch what is at risk of being left behind." The word is derived from the words: SAN (return), KO (go), FA (look, seek and take). The symbol is based on a mythical bird with its feet firmly planted forward with its head turned backwards. Thus, the Akan believe the past serves as a guide for planning the future. To the Akan, it is this wisdom in learning from the past which ensures a strong future. We cannot and should not forget the human beings who were enslaved and sold as inventory on this waterfront particularly after 1808 when the domestic trade made our port one of it's bases. Alexandria's role in the domestic trade of enslaved human beings deserves a prominent telling within our history. These atrocities should be acknowledged as part of the foundations of our economy serving as a lesson and motivation to create systems of racial equity and healing.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	It's a public good so the name should be clear.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	If the parks will be combined into one, keep the name of Waterfront Park.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	I strongly advise against naming the Park for anyone. It is simply too divisive to do so. The park should be a unifying, welcoming symbol of Alexandria. Follow the lead of the Rt 1 naming committee and avoid naming for a person. Any other non-personal name would work - Port City Park, Waterfront Landing, King Street Seaport, etc.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	No comment
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	just add the new portion to the already existing park.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Please: Do not use the name of any person (living or dead)
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	I prefer a neutral, inclusive name.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Just expand the current park. Don't make it confusing.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Makes sense for both to be one park.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	If it's one contiguous park, it makes sense to keep Waterfront Park as the name for the entire space. It's direct and to the point. Waterfront Park is where to look for programming along the waterfront.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Do not name for Fitzgeraldor any other person. In Alexandria we spend too much time venerating people by naming things after them instead of finding more neutral, communal names.

Alexandria	Single Parks Single Parks	Waterfront Park	It's on the water. Keep things simple. Waterfront Park is simple, is an already known name and location, and does not show

Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Keep it simple and something that people can remember. Another idea is King Street Park
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Make it all Waterfront Park
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Simple, descriptive, and a continuation of existing Alexandria. It is evocative of a destination location, a must-see for visitors.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Just make it all Waterfront Park
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Combining the two together, this seems like the best name.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Waterfront Park or King Street Park as #2 choice.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Whatever one may think about the status of currently existing monuments, etc. that honor slaveowners, there is no reason now, in the 21st Century, to add new ones. I've heard it argued that Fitzgerald should be honored for his contributions to the City; but what about the contributions of his (and other) slaves? Slave labor allowed people like Fitzgerald to go about the lives they did. The fact that this whole thing is so controversial is reason enough not to name this park after a slave owner. There's nothing wrong with a descriptive name (like Waterfront Park), or a locational name (like King Street Waterfront Park).
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Keep it neutral and just expand the park to cover all. It will be confusing anyway to say to a non-local, oh no, not that park, the one on the other side of the tree or whatever. Just make it one big park using a name without controversy. Install a mini plaque/memorial to for Fitzgerald and highlight his accomplishments and contributions.
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Keep it simple
Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	I don't think it should be named for an individual unless there is some clear connection between that person and that piece of land. You already have Waterfront Park, just make it one park and keep the name.

Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	Why does everything have to be named after a person? Just call it Waterfront Park or

Alexandria	Single Parks	Waterfront Park	At some point in the future, we may want to rename it after an important person. It

Region	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	I believe it's appropriate to honor Col. John Fitzgerald, as was originally intended. He played an important role in the city's revolutionary era, even defending it from British attack. He did enslave people, unfortunately, as did most of his contemporaries, including George Washington. That should not be forgotten, but neither should his more honorable contributions to Alexandria's history. Also, perhaps an adjacent Waterfront Park would be a perfect setting for a statue or artwork memorializing the impact of the slave trade on Africans and the importance of African-Americans in Alexandria's history.
Region	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Colonel Fitzgerald was an important figure in the Irish and Catholic communities in Alexandria and to our country's fight for independence. Although not perfect, he is a strong example of service to community and patriotism for current and future Alexandrians.
Region	Separate Parks	Fitzgerald Square	Colonel John F. Fitzgerald's place in Alexandria's history is often overlooked, but his legacy is paramount. Aide-de-Camp to George Washington, Mayor of Alexandria, founder of the Virginia's first Catholic Church, the Basilica of St. Mary all form the core of this great man's legacy. Maintaining his legacy by retaining his name on the park solidifies his place in the long and great history of our beloved Old Town Alexandria.

Surely we are past honoring those who profited from slavery. Naming the park after a slaveholder constitutes a microagression against people of color and does a grave disservice to Alexandria's current honoring of African-Americans with its African-American Heritage Park. 2) Do we really need another place in the DMV named after an old dead white guy? 3) There are already memorials to Fitzgerald in Alexandria. Instead, please honor the contributions of ALL Irish-Americanspast, present, and future; male and female; rich and poorto Alexandria's rich history. Region	Single Parks	Mercy Park	Thanks
Region	Single Parks	Michelle Obama Park	She is a great and inspiring women who deserves to be recognized.
Region	Single Parks	Old Dominion Park	Provides a nod to the former boat club and the state as a whole.
Region	Single Parks	Old Port Waterside Park	The name is self-explanatory and honors the town's and the location's history as an important port.
Region	Single Parks	Old Town Park
Region	Single Parks		g Abbreviation WVG (Waterfront Village Green)
Region	Single Parks	Opportunity Park	For the Mars Rover
Region	Single Parks	Parkie McParkface	Dude, this is an awesome name.
Region	Single Parks Single Parks	parkie mcparkface	lolz Named after the internet's favorite boat.
Region Region	Single Parks	Parky McParkFace Parky McParkface	One big park would make much more sense
Region	Single Parks	Patawomeck Waterfront	Patawomeck is the original spelling of Potomac and references the river that is Alexandria's lifeblood and reason for being. It also honors the original Native American occupants in this part of Northern Virginia.
Region	Single Parks	Patricia Ticer Park	This would memorialize Alexandria's first female mayor.
Region	Single Parks	Peace Park	Instead of naming our parks and buildings after people, I think we should name them after values that we should strive for in the future, or values we should work on expressing in our everyday lives.
Region	Single Parks	Potomac Flood Plain Park	None
Region	Single Parks	President Donald J. Trump Park	Name the park after #45.
Region	Single Parks	Riverfront Park	none
Region	Single Parks	Riverside Park	It's on the side of a river.
Region	Single Parks	Sally Ride Park	Sally Ride was the first American woman in space and the first known LGBTQ+ astronaut. Also, her name is easy to pronounce.
Region	Single Parks	Samuel Wilbert Tucker	Civil Rights Leader
Region	Single Parks	Sarah Pugh	As an abolitionist from Alexandria, she would be a good choice.
Region	Single Parks	Ship's Ahoy Park	get it?
Region	Single Parks	something related to slaving history	I don't have a specific name suggestion, but I I think the park should have a name reflective of Alexandria's Civil War and slave port/trade history.
Region	Single Parks	Stabler Square	The fight against slavery is an important part of Alexandria's history that should be
