

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the City of Alexandria, Virginia enjoys a sister city relationship with the City of Caen in Normandy, France, characterized by educational, commercial, and cultural cooperation; and

WHEREAS, the assault on the Normandy beaches of Nazi-occupied France near our Sister City Caen in June 1944 by the United States and its allies, popularly known as “D-Day,” was one of the most important actions of World War II, and the success of that operation led to the defeat of Nazi Germany, the liberation of western Europe, and the advancement of freedom, democracy, and shared prosperity between the United States and western Europe in the post-war world; and

WHEREAS, sons and daughters of the City of Alexandria participated in that great operation and in the larger war effort of which it was a part, in some cases making the ultimate sacrifice; and

WHEREAS, remembering this critical moment in world history in Alexandria educates our community and honors our veterans and strengthens sister city comradery by recognizing this time when our nation’s endeavors overlapped and changed the course of history on June 6th, 1944: D-Day.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JUSTIN M. WILSON, Mayor of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, and on behalf of the Alexandria City Council, do hereby proclaim the month of June as:

“75th ANNIVERSARY OF D-DAY COMMEMORATION MONTH”

In the City of Alexandria and call upon the citizens of Alexandria to remember and reflect on the Normandy landings, and to participate in public commemorations of the wartime landings and Alexandria’s postwar relationship with Caen.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Alexandria to be affixed this 28th day of May, 2019.

MAYOR JUSTIN M. WILSON
On behalf of the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia

ATTEST:

Gloria A. Sitton, CMC City Clerk
