ACTIVITIES

Always active during my 40+ years of residency in the City of Alexandria in programs and organizations that affect the lives of children.

1978-1992 – PTA membership and officer positions as William Ramsey School, Jefferson-Houston Elementary School Francis C. Hammond Middle School and T.C. Williams High School. Also served on the City-wide PTA Council.

1979-1992 – Boy Scouts of America, as a leader, board member and coach from the Cub Scout Pack at William Ramsey School to the Scout Troop there, and the Law Enforcement Explorer Post at the Alexandria City Police Department. Working with the students in scouting skills, social skills and on the Explorer Post level working with the APD officers to demonstrate proper policing activities, laws of the Commonwealth and the US Constitution. During the time I worked with the Post, they went to the Virginia Explorer Convention annually and returned back to the City with top honors and awards.

1980-1989 – City of Alexandria Public Schools Special Education Advisory, a federally mandate committee for each school system in the country that works for improvement in the education of special needs children, educating the parents of these children as to their rights, and their child's rights. Also, working with the professional staff of the school system to better communication and education outcomes.

1981-1988 – City of Alexandria Public Schools Substance Abuse Education Advisory Committee – 5 years as Chairman of the Committee – working group from the school system, Alexandria Police Department, Court Services, Health Department, Recreation and Mental Health and with a student representative from T.C. Williams. The main goal was to distribute information on the various forms of illegal substances, their effects, and how we as parents and citizens could better educate the children of the dangers.

1993-1996 and 2010-2013 – Member, Alexandria City School Board, with working slots on the Budget, Capital Projects and other Board subcommittees.
