Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

I have been a proud Alexandria resident since November 2017. I am currently a courtroom clerk at the DC Superior Court and I am submitting my application to become a citizen member of the Alexandria Commission on Aging. With my experience in the legal field, I understand how the law and community programs or lack thereof can affect the lives of so many people especially the elderly. Subsequently, older residents are frequently and unfairly overlooked as a forgotten population which then creates disparities within the general population. With this in mind, my goal is to have an impact on the city that I call home by involving myself in the policies of its governing bodies. Furthermore, now that Alexandria is my home and I have enjoyed the history, vibrancy and culture of the city I consequently, want to reciprocate the opportunities that I have been given to give back in a productive manner. By serving on the commission I want to be a part of a group of citizens that have the common goal of doing whatever is in their power to make sure that our older residents feel like they still have a voice and are not abandoned. It is my objective to listen to all perspectives in this conversation and to be a vocal advocate to empower this community. The Alexandria Age Friendly Community Plan that has been created is a vital resource for the city. The Plan has strategically and with extraordinary foresight, invested the time and resources to research and implement an all inclusive plan to address the domains of livability for its residents and to invest back into the lives of older Alexandrians. As we are immersed in the Covid- 19 health crises, I believe our city can still be the platinum standard in how it responds to the needs of our elderly community. Our older residents are mothers, fathers, former police officers, nurses and veterans and they are vital members of the family of citizens that call Alexandria their home. Martin Luther King Jr. said, "Life's most urgent question, is what are you doing for others?" It will be an honor and privilege to become a citizen member of the Commission on Aging and if I am selected for this role I hope to serve older Alexandrians with integrity, honesty, fairness, excellence and with the highest standards of leadership that they so rightly deserve as members of our community in the city of Alexandria.

For the past five years I have held the positions of deputy clerk and most recently as a courtroom clerk. Both of my roles have had me to be in close working relationships with judges, attorneys and members of the public. Whether researching archived cases or assisting jurors in the courtroom during a trial it has been my job to be in the front line of the court.
