SUMMARY OF WORK AND PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE (Please list titles and duties for the past five years):

On March 1, 2021, Robert (Bob) J. Duffy, FAICP will be retiring from his position as Planning Director with Arlington County, Virginia. Over the past eight years, Mr. Duffy has led an outstanding team of professional staff to advance Arlington's commitment to sound, strategic and sustainable planning. His professional practice, innovative planning and commitment to active community engagement have been recognized regionally and nationally. The Senate of Virginia in 2018 adopted a resolution of commendation recognizing his outstanding contributions to Arlington County and communities throughout the United States. Recognized for his award-winning planning practice, programs and projects in the Midwest, Northeast, New England and Florida, Bob Duffy has sought highly diverse and challenging opportunities to ensure that planning plays a central role in shaping the future of towns, cities, and counties. His work has been acknowledged by elected officials, planning commissions, non-profit organizations, civic leaders, neighborhood organizations and, most importantly, by citizen planners committed to making a difference in their communities. As part of his personal commitment to civic involvement, Bob Duffy has served as a planning commissioner at the city and county levels and as chair of the City of Alexandria's Board of Architectural Review. Recently he served as a member of the Professional Advisory Board for the Sustainable Urban Planning Program at George Washington University and as an adjunct faculty member with the University of Maryland's School of Architecture, Planning and Preservation. Throughout his career he has been an active member of the Urban Land Institute and American Planning Association. In 2018, he was inducted into the College of Fellows of the American Institute of Certified Planners, one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a planning professional. Bob Duffy looks forward to the next chapter of his planning career as a planning commissioner. He will continue to play active roles with the American Planning Association and in advancing the education and professional development of the next generation of planning professionals.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

As a resident of Old Town and a Navy veteran, the waterfront area holds a special place in my heart. During the pandemic, my wife and I have gone on long walks/runs along the waterfront and it has most certainly been a point of solace during difficult times. I'd be honored to serve the City of Alexandria as a member of this Commission to preserve the beauty and appeal of our wonderful waterfront area.

Statement of Interest/Why You Should Be Appointed

In graduate school (Georgetown), my marketing class group did an assessment and review of the City of Alexandria Waterfront. Our paper was based on the potential of new business if the City of Alexandria Waterfront was redeveloped. The paper was based in part on the commercial success of the National Harbor (MD) and Southwest Waterfront (DC) development and the subsequent attraction of new business
